Proximity Levinas Blanchot Bataille And Communication:

Proximity Levinas, Blanchot, Bataille and Communication Joseph Libertson, 2012-12-06 The problematic reality of an alterity implicit in the concept of communication has been a consistent attestation in formal discourse The rapport of thought to this alterity has been consistently described as a radical inadequation By virtue of the communicational economy which produces discontinuity and relation illumination and the possibility of consciousness an opacity haunts the familiarity of comprehension Consciousness spontaneity is limited by the difference or discontinuity of the exterior thing of the exterior subject or intersubjective other and of the generality of existence in its excess over comprehension's closure An element implicit in difference or discontinuity escapes the power of comprehension and even the possibility of manifestation Within the system of tendencies and predications which characterizes formal discourse however this escape of alterity is most often understood as an escape which proceeds from its own substantiality the unknowable in itself of things of subjects and of generality Alterity escapes the power of comprehension on the basis of its power to escape this power That which escapes the effectivity of consciousness escapes on the basis of its own effectivity For this reason the rapport of inadequation described by the escape may function in formal discourse as a correlation The inadequation of comprehension and exteriority may function as the vicissitude of a larger adequation The latent principles of this adequation are power and totalization

Proximity Levinas, Blanchot, Bataille and Communication Joseph Libertson, 1982 Proximity, Levinas, Blanchot, Bataille and Communication Elizabeth Gage, 1982 Maurice Blanchot Gerald L. Bruns, 2005-04-13 Ch 9 pp 207 234 Blanchot's holocaust discusses the French thinker's philosophy of the Holocaust Blanchot, Extreme Contemporary Leslie Hill, 1997 Placing Blanchot at the centre stage of writing in the twentieth century Maurice Blanchot Extreme Contemporary sheds new light on Blanchot's political activities before and after the Second World War Blanchot Leslie Hill, 2002-01-04 Blanchot provides a compelling insight into one of the key figures in the development of postmodern thought Although Blanchot's work is characterised by a fragmentary and complex style Leslie Hill introduces clearly and accessibly the key themes in his work He shows how Blanchot questions the very existence of philosophy and literature and how we may distinguish between them stresses the importance of his political writings and the relationship between writing and history that characterised Blanchot's later work and considers the relationship between Blanchot and key figures such as Emmanuel Levinas and Georges Bataille and how this impacted on his work Placing Blanchot at the centre stage of writing in the twentieth century Blanchot also sheds new light on Blanchot's political activities before and after the Second World War This accessible introduction to Blanchot's thought also includes one of the most comprehensive bibliographies of his writings of the last twenty years Emmanuel Levinas: Levinas and the history of philosophy Claire Elise Katz, Lara Trout, 2005 Emmanuel Levinas 1905 1995 was one of the foremost thinkers of the twentieth century His work has influenced a wide range of intellectuals from French thinkers such as Maurice Blanchot Jacques Derrida Luce Irigaray and Jean Luc Marion to

American philosophers Stanley Cavell and Hillary Putnam This set will be a useful resource for scholars working in the fields of literary theory philosophy Jewish studies religion political science and rhetoric Titles also available in this series include Karl Popper November 2003 4 Volumes 475 and the forthcoming titles Edmund Husserl 2005 c 4 Volumes c 475 and Gottlob Frege 2005 c 4 Volumes c 475

Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993-10-01 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes's writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay's reputation as one of today's premier cultural and intellectual historians

Thinking Difference with Heidegger and Levinas Rozemund Uljée, 2020-06-01 Tracing the relationship between truth and justice as articulated by Heidegger and Levinas Rozemund Uljée presents the relation between the two thinkers as a subtle profound and complex rapport which includes both their proximity and radical difference This rapport is conceived not as a confrontation but rather as a transformation as Levinas's notion of justice does not renounce Heidegger's account of truth and its deployment Thinking Difference with Heidegger and Levinas shows how the ethical relation transforms the essence and task of philosophy in its entirety since it shifts the orientation of philosophy and the task of thinking from its concern with truth as ground or foundation to a question of justice As a result philosophy is no longer riveted to Being and its truth but answers to the call for justice and must be conceived of as infinite commencement where its impossibility to totalize meaning ensures that it remains open to the alterity of transcendence
