that will actually inspire them to read

Setting Reading Goals

Strong readers create goals that will challenge them to grow as a reader. When you set a reading goal, you want it to be very clear and specific. This will make it easy for you to know when you have met your goal.

Avoid making goals that are vague.

- ❖ I want to become a better reader.
- ❖ I want to get better at reading.
- ❖ I want to read more nonfiction books.
- ❖ I want to read different genres.

Instead, create very specific goals.

- ❖ I want to read for 20 minutes every day.
- ❖ I want to read 25 books every month.
- ❖ I want to read all the books in the Harry Potter Series.
- ❖ I want to read 10 books of Greek or different genres in the month of September.
- ❖ I want to read 5 books written by Kate DiCamillo.
- ❖ I want to ask for book recommendations from 2 friends and read the ones they suggest.

Strong readers will use their independent reading time to work on meeting their goals, and as soon as they meet one goal, they set another.

What is your reading goal?
