Time Driven Adrian Johnston, 2005-07-27 Freud outlines two types of conflict that between drives and reality and that between the drives themselves Adrian Johnston identifies a third the conflict embedded within each and every drive

Women, Love, and Commodity Culture in British Romanticism Daniela Garofalo, 2016-02-17 Offering a new understanding of canonical Romanticism Daniela Garofalo suggests that representations of erotic love in the period have been largely misunderstood Commonly understood as a means for transcending political and economic realities love for several canonical Romantic writers offers instead a contestation of those realities Garofalo argues that Romantic writers show that the desire for transcendence through love mimics the desire for commodity consumption and depends on the same dynamic of delayed fulfillment that was advocated by thinkers such as Adam Smith As writers such as William Blake Lord Byron Sir Walter Scott John Keats and Emily Bront engaged with the period's concern with political economy and the nature of desire they challenged stereotypical representations of women either as self-denying consumers or as intemperate participants in the market economy Instead their works show the importance of women for understanding modern economics with women's desire conceived as a force that not only undermines the political economy's emphasis on productivity growth and perpetual consumption but also holds forth the possibility of alternatives to a system of capitalist exchange

The Nasty Woman and The Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2018-12-07 The Nasty Woman and the Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema puts forward the theoretical notion of the nasty woman as a means of examining female protagonists in contemporary culture and cinema particularly films directed by women The phrase is taken from an insult thrown at Hillary Clinton during the 2016 Presidential election debates and reclaimed by the feminists worldwide The volume also draws from the figure of the femme fatale in film noir Piotrowska presents the nasty woman across cultural and mythical landscape as a figure fighting against the entitlement of the patriarchy The writer argues that in films such as Zero Dark Thirty Red Road Stories We Tell and even Gone Girl the nastiness of female characters creates a new space for reflection on contemporary society and its struggles against patriarchal systems The nasty woman or neo femme fatale is a figure who disrupts stable situations and norms she is pro active and self-determining and at times unafraid to use dubious means to achieve her goals She is often single but when married she subverts and undermines the fundamental principles of this patriarchal institution For students and researchers in Cultural Studies Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies Film Studies and Psychoanalysis in Film Studies The Nasty Woman and the Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema offers an original way of thinking about female creativity and subjectivity It is also a proud celebration of feminist and female authorship in contemporary Hollywood Embracing the Void Richard Boothby, 2022-11-15 A radical reinterpretation of the origin of religion through a psychoanalytic theorization of the unknown Renowned psychoanalytic philosopher Richard Boothby puts forward a novel theory of religion inspired by Jacques Lacan's theory of das Ding the disquieting inaccessible dimension of fellow human beings This notion of an unfathomable excess originally encountered in the figure of the mother led Lacan to break with Freud's formulation of the Oedipus complex and underlies Lacan's distinctive conception of unconscious dynamics Leaning on this account Boothby shows how our sense of the sacred arises from our relation to what we do not know Embracing the Void lays out the range of Freud's attempts at a psychoanalytic theory of religion and then sketches the rough contours of Lacan's contrasting approach From there Boothby offers the theoretical tools for interpreting the religious impulse and analyzes key religious traditions from ancient Greek polytheism to Judaism and Christianity and from Hinduism and Buddhism to Islam finally turning to modern capitalist culture and the seductive deity that dominates it money Lucid accessible and compelling the book provides a cogent intervention in one of the psychoanalytic tradition's most contentious topics and offers a new approach to our understanding of religion

Negotiating Difference John Clark, Juliane Noth, Birgit Hopfener, Brianne Cohen, Silke von Berswordt, Wang Ching-ling, Doris Ha-lin Sung, Adele Tan, Zheng Bo, Beatrice Leanza, Thomas Berghuis, Peggy Wang, Pauline Yao, Paul Gladston, Joe Martin Hill, Lee Ambrozy, Wenny Teo, Franziska Koch, Andreas Schmid, Davide Quadrio, 2012-07-12 Contemporary Chinese art is still a young field now being opened up to critical academic research Negotiating Difference is a pioneering collection of articles which engage with contemporary Chinese art in a global context The contributions collectively address the urgent methodological question of how to describe contextualize and theorize artworks and artistic processes in and beyond the People's Republic of China since the end of the Cultural Revolution The studies break new ground as they chalk out the transcultural entanglements of which art and its practices partake and which they in turn reconfigure The book features 20 essays written by a select group of international junior and senior scholars engaged in ambitious and methodologically innovative research on contemporary Chinese art Their multi-faceted in part interdisciplinary approaches are complemented by four contributions by distinguished practitioners in the field who as art curators and critics are located in China and explore key developments within Chinese art and the changing art scene of the last three decades

Asexuality and Freudian-Lacanian Psychoanalysis Kevin Murphy, 2022-12-05 Asexuality and Freudian-Lacanian Psychoanalysis Towards a Theory of an Enigma proposes that asexuality is a libidinally founded desire for no sexual desire a concept not included in psychoanalytic theory up to now Asexuality is defined as the experience of having no sexual attraction for another person as an emerging self-defined sexual orientation it has received practically no attention from psychoanalytic research This book is the first sustained piece of exploratory and theoretical research from a Freudian-Lacanian perspective Using Freudian concepts to understand the intricacies of human sexual desire this volume will also employ Lacanian conceptual tools to understand how asexuality might sustain itself despite the absence of Other directed sexual desire This book argues that asexuality holds a mirror to contemporary sexualized society which assumes sexual attraction and eroticism as the benchmarks for experiencing sexual desire It also argues that asexuality may be a previously unrecognized form of human sexuality which can contribute new understandings to the range and breadth of what it means to be a sexual being This book will be of interest to anyone in the area of asexuality or sexuality psychoanalysts psychotherapists psychologists psychiatrists university lecturers researchers students or those simply curious about the possibilities of the human sex drive Sexual Difference Between Psychoanalysis and Vitalism Arun Saldanha, Hoon Song, 2015-03-24 Throughout the twentieth century psychoanalysis and feminism were the practico intellectual fields most systematic and subversive in demonstrating that humanity is sexually fissured More recently further advances in the philosophy of difference and renewed emphases on embodiment materiality and life offer possibilities for attending to dimensions of gender and sexuality that were previously underdeveloped This collection examines these possibilities insofar as they can either deepen or displace the traditional centrality of psychoanalysis in matters sexual The authors come from a wide range of backgrounds and defend their approaches to the problem of sexual difference in a variety of idioms drawing on key thinkers such as Lacan Irigaray Deleuze Foucault and Badiou It is rare to come across these thinkers together but sex is too crucial a site for critical thought not to mobilize every conceptual power available This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki: The Journal of the Theoretical Humanities

A Concise Companion to Psychoanalysis, Literature, and Culture Laura Marcus, Ankhi Mukherjee, 2014-06-23 This concise companion explores the history of psychoanalytic theory and its impact on contemporary literary criticism by tracing its movement across disciplinary and cultural boundaries Contains original essays by leading scholars using a wide range of cultural and historical approaches Discusses key concepts in psychoanalysis such as the role of dreaming psychosexuality the unconscious and the figure of the double while considering questions of gender race asylum and international law queer theory time and memory Spans the fields of psychoanalysis literature cultural theory feminist and gender studies translation studies and film Provides a timely and pertinent assessment of current psychoanalytic methods while also sketching out future directions for theory and interpretation

Beckett, Lacan and the Mathematical Writing of the Real Arka Chattopadhyay, 2019-01-01 Beckett Lacan and the Mathematical Writing of the Real proposes writing as a mathematical and logical operation to build a bridge between Lacanian psychoanalysis and Samuel Beckett's prose works Arka Chattopadhyay studies aspects such as the fundamental operational logic of a text use of mathematical forms like geometry and arithmetic the human obsession with counting the moving body as an act of writing and love and sexuality as a challenge to the limits of what can be written through logic and mathematics Chattopadhyay reads Beckett's prose works including How It Is Company Worstward Ho Malone Dies and Enough to highlight this terminal writing which halts endless meanings with the material body of the word and gives Beckett a medium to inscribe what cannot be written otherwise Works like a Charm Robert O. McDonald,2023-08-01 Works like a Charm addresses a simple question Why are incentives everywhere now From inducements to work harder at our jobs to tax rebates for corporations incentive names a general theory of motivation according to economists we are incentive driven creatures Yet far from being a neutral generalization this understanding of human behavior smuggles in a quintessentially economic way of seeing the world Works like a Charm applies Jacques Lacan's psychoanalytic concept of retroactive causality to explain the metastasis of the language and logic of incentives To discover an incentive is to place in the untouchable past an economic cause for a contextual historical force Tracing incentive from its roots in antiquity to its uptake by neoclassical and then Chicago school economists Robert O McDonald diagnoses the spread of incentives across the social cultural and political field and warns readers of the dangers of handing over causality to the economists Lacan and the Destiny of Literature Ehsan Azari,2011-10-27 In contemporary academic literary studies Lacan is often considered impenetrably obscure due to the unavailability of his late works insufficient articulation of his methodologies and sometimes stereotypical use of Lacanian concepts in literary theory This study aims to integrate Lacan into contemporary literary study by engaging with a broad range of Lacanian theoretical concepts often for the first time in English and using them to analyse a range of key texts from different periods Azari explores Lacan's theory of desire as well as his final theories of littoral and the sinthome and interrogates a range of poststructuralist interpretive approaches In the second part of the book he outlines the variety of ways in which Lacanian theory can be applied to literary texts and offers detailed readings of texts by Shakespeare Donne Joyce and Ashbery This ground breaking study provides original insights into a number of the most influential intellectual discussions in relation to Lacan and will fill a recognised gap in understanding Lacan and his legacy for literary study and criticism Žižek in the Clinic Eliot Rosenstock,2019-01-25 Psychotherapist Eliot Rosenstock proposes a philosophical foundation for mental health treatment based on the writings and ideas of Slavoj Žižek in the Clinic examines the state of the psychotherapy profession capital motivated reductionist treatment modalities and a philosophy of liberation for the therapeutic subject With the acceleration of technological advancement reminiscent of the machine gun's implementation in World War One the contemporary subject can be benefited by a working knowledge of their own psyche so as not to be pulled in the direction of anything that provides comfort and vague entertainment Žižek's analysis and application of Lacanian theory is a necessary component in the psychoanalytic fight for our own minds and our will to shape our own future in the deterritorialized hellscape of modern technocapital Civilization has never known discontents like the ones currently wrought This is not to say Civilization is more brutal than it has ever been Civilization is however at a certain tipping point regarding technological information flow and the expansion of capital a future demanding illusion The answer isn't a collapse of all ideology which we use to function in our day to day lives but a clinical Žižekian lens Theorizing Desire K. Gorton,2008-03-13 What is the nature of desire This book gives an accessible

introduction to the concept and a coherent critique of the competing theories of desire within contemporary theory Through analysis of representations of desire in television and film it considers ways in which the concept is theorized and presented on screen The Political Psychology of the Veil Sahar Ghumkhor,2019-11-21 Veiled women in the West appear menacing Their visible invisibility is a cause of obsession What is beneath the veil more than a woman This book investigates the preoccupation with the veiled body through the imaging and imagining of Muslim women It examines the relationship between the body and knowledge through the politics of freedom as grounded in a natural body in the index of flesh The impulse to unveil is more than a desire to free the Muslim woman What lies at the heart of the fantasy of saving the Muslim woman is the West s desire to save itself The preoccupation with the veiled woman is a defense that preserves neither the object of orientalism nor the difference embodied in women s bodies but inversely insists on the corporeal boundaries of the West s mode of knowing and truth making The book contends that the imagination of unveiling restores the West s sense of its own power and enables it to intrude where it is other thus making it the centre and the agent by promising universal freedom all the while stifling the question of what freedom is Prolegomena to Any Future Materialism Adrian Johnston,2013-07-31 Adrian Johnston s Prolegomena to Any Future Materialism planned for three volumes will lay the foundations for a new materialist theoretical apparatus his transcendental materialism In this first volume Johnston clears an opening within contemporary philosophy and theory for his unique position He engages closely with Lacan Badiou and Meillassoux demonstrating how each of these philosophers can be seen as failing to forge an authentically atheistic materialism Johnston builds a new materialism both profoundly influenced by these brilliant comrades of a shared cause as well as making up for the shortcomings of their own creative attempts to bring to realization the Lacanian vision of an Other less One less ontology The Outcome of Contemporary French Philosophy yields intellectual weapons suitable for deployment on multiple fronts simultaneously effective against the mutually entangled spiritualist and scientific foes of our post Enlightenment biopolitical era of nothing more than commodities and currencies RAW Ricky Varghese,2019-11-15 RAW addresses the question of sex without condoms or barebacking in the age of PrEP a drug that virtually eliminates the transmission of HIV Writing out of the history of the AIDS crisis the authors in RAW expand the study of barebacking into new areas such as its appearance within lesbian heterosexual and BDSM communities and its implications for teaching critical sexology
