leadership of Ronald Reagan A New Beginning was unprecedented for a number of reasons it replaced the traditional nominating speech for the candidate at the Republican National Convention its form was a hybrid documentary and advertisement it illustrated the use of televisual rebirth rhetoric to gain public support for a political ideology and most importantly the masterful project documented a shift from verbal to visual rhetoric in American presidential campaigning The author examines the film as a cultural text and as an effective political tool Framing ideology myth and visual cliché are analytic tools used to deconstruct the film the method combines rhetorical theory with communication theory and semiotically based theories of film and television Morreale gives insight into the increasingly prevalent use of television to create a political reality
