Waldron, 2014-05-16 Over the last decade the educational context for students with disabilities has significantly changed primarily as a result of mandates contained in NCLB and IDEA The purpose of this book is to summarize the research literature regarding how students might be provided classrooms and schools that are both inclusive and effective Inclusive schools are defined as places where students with disabilities are valued and active participants in academic and social activities and are given supports that help them succeed Effectiveness is addressed within the current movement toward multi tiered systems of support and evidence based practices that meet the demands of high stakes accountability Reading Strategies for Elementary Students With Learning Difficulties William N. Bender, Martha J. Larkin, 2003-05-20 This book is written with the purpose of providing primary and middle school teachers a practical set of research based instructional strategies primarily for students with learning disabilities and other learning difficulties This book includes strategies and instructional examples to be practiced in inclusive classrooms as well as in one to one teaching situations This book offers a practical ready reference for teachers increasingly important role in reading instruction for students with learning disabilities Trends and Prospects in Metacognition Research Anastasia Efklides, Plousia Misailidi, 2010-09-08 Trends and Prospects in Metacognition presents a collection of chapters dealing principally with independent areas of empirical Metacognition research These research foci such as animal metacognition neuropsychology of metacognition implicit learning metacognitive experiences metamemory young children s Metacognition theory of mind metacognitive knowledge decision making and interventions for the enhancement of metacognition have all emerged as trends in the field of metacognition Yet the resulting research has not converged precluding an integration of concepts and findings Presenting a new theoretical framework Trends and Prospects in Metacognition extends the classical definitions offered by Flavell and Nelson to carry the prospect of more integrated work into the future By opening the possibility to cross the boundaries posed by traditionally independent research areas this volume provides a foundation for the integration of research paradigms and concepts and builds on the relationship between metacognition and consciousness while integrating basic with applied research The Thinking Reader Ciera Harris, 2025-02-21 Concepts lesson plans and strategies for making reading lessons work The Thinking Reader Cultivating Critical Thinkers in the Classroom is the frazzled teacher's guide to setting up any grade 2-4 classroom for reading success. You won't find any busywork, condescending lectures, or boring worksheets in this book. Instead, you'll learn flexible reading strategies to blend into your lessons at the start of the school year that will support your students for years to come. This book also debunks old school ideas about reading instruction and explains the concepts that you'll need to know as you help students build a foundation for their future as readers. Former elementary teacher and instructional coach Ciera Harris has achieved remarkable, replicable results with young readers not with a rigid system or program but with a new approach to thinking about reading. In this book, you'll learn why it makes sense to go beyond all the lessons of phonics, fluency, and vocabulary by making reading personal to each student. This easy-to-use approach has helped teachers across the country create a culture of reading within their classrooms so students, even those that struggle the most with reading, can start view themselves as readers. Help students learn based on what interests them as individuals and watch budding readers bloom. Discover why reading is not a series of decoding skills but a personal, powerful act of thinking. Learn the steps to setting up your classroom for reading success at the beginning of the year. Get engaging lesson plans and techniques for implementing primary reading strategies like schema, asking questions, metacognition, and so much more. Overcome common roadblocks including student resistance to reading. With The Thinking Reader, elementary school teachers in grades 2-4 can build the ultimate framework for reading success.

Common Core Literacy for ELA, History/Social Studies, and the Humanities Katherine S. McKnight, 2014-04-18

Common Core Literacy for ELA, History, Social Studies, and the Humanities. In this age of the Common Core State Standards, all content area teachers must integrate literacy standards into their curriculum. If you're like most content area educators, you're feeling a bit overwhelmed at the thought of applying the new standards, or you might just need a little extra help. In this hands-on resource, Common Core literacy expert Katherine McKnight offers secondary teachers a clear understanding of what literacy looks like in English Language Arts, ELA, social studies, and other humanities-related subjects. She gives educators proven teaching techniques that will help them to develop literacy skills in their students. The book offers a wealth of practical strategies and activities that content area teachers can integrate seamlessly. Included are: A selection of activities that support literacy skills and build content knowledge; Ideas for implementing the literacy requirements of the Common Core in specific content areas; An easy-to-use Difficulty Dial that indicates the complexity of each activity; Robust student samples that bring the activities to life across a variety of grade levels. Praise for Common Core Literacy for ELA, History, Social Studies, and the Humanities: McKnight eloquently dispels much of the mythology surrounding the new standards and explains how to help students find success. You'll find this engaging book your go-to resource for implementing the Common Core. Richard M. Cash, Ed.D., Educational Consultant, Author, Advancing Differentiation: Thinking and Learning for the 21st Century. While this book would be a gift to any beginning teacher, its practical and comprehensible support for literacy as defined by the Common Core State Standards makes it a must-have for all teachers. Laura Garner, Language Arts Coordinator.
