Readings In Modern Western Civilization Fourth Edition:

Readings for a History of Anthropological Theory, Fourth Edition Paul A. Erickson, Liam D. Murphy, 2013-04-21

This comprehensive anthology offers over 40 readings that are critical to the understanding of anthropological theory and the development of anthropology as an academic discipline. The fourth edition maintains a strong focus on the four field roots of the discipline in North America but has been reorganized with a new section on twenty first century theory including coverage of postcolonial and public anthropology. New key terms and introductions accompany each reading and a revamped glossary makes the book more student friendly. Used on its own or together with the overview text A History of Anthropological Theory Fourth Edition this anthology offers a flexible and unrivaled introduction to anthropological theory that reflects not only the history but also the changing nature of the discipline today. Western Civilization to 1500 John Chuchiak, Walter Kirchner, 2011-08-23 Master Your Coursework with Collins College Outlines. The Collins College Outline for Western Civilization to 1500 covers all major events from the earliest known civilizations of Egypt and Sumer to the Greek and Roman Empires through the feudal times, the Middle Ages and the Renaissance finally concluding with the threshold of the Modern Age. Completely revised and updated by Dr John Chuchiak, Western Civilization to 1500 includes a test yourself section with answers and complete explanations at the end of each chapter. Also included are bibliographies for further reading as well as maps, timelines and illustrations. The Collins College Outlines are a completely revised in depth series of study guides for all areas of study including the Humanities, Social Sciences, Mathematics, Science, Language, History and Business. Featuring the most up to date information, each book is written by a seasoned professor in the field and focuses on a simplified and general overview of the subject for college students and where appropriate, Advanced Placement students. Each Collins College Outline is fully integrated with the major curriculum for its subject and is a perfect supplement for any standard textbook.

Teaching the Novel across the Curriculum Colin C. Irvine, 2007-11-30. Instructors at all levels are being encouraged to teach writing in their courses even in subjects other than English. Because the novel reflects a broad set of human experiences and history, it is the ideal vehicle for learning about a wide range of issues. This book helps educators learn how to incorporate novels in courses in English, the humanities, social and behavioral sciences and professional studies. The chapters focus on using the novel to explore ethical concerns, multiculturalism, history, social theory, psychology, social work and education. The book looks at major canonical works as well as graphic novels and popular literature. Language arts are at the forefront of education these days. Instructors at all levels are being encouraged to teach writing in their courses even if those courses cover subjects other than English. Literature instructors have long used fiction to teach composition. But because the novel reflects a broad range of human experiences and historical events it is the ideal medium for learning about contemporary social issues This book helps educators learn how to use the novel in courses in English the humanities social and behavioral sciences and professional studies The book is divided into broad sections on general education classes multiculturalism literature classes humanities courses classes in social behavioral and political sciences and professional studies such as social work and teacher training Each section includes chapters written by gifted teachers and provides a wealth of theoretical and practical information While the book examines major canonical works such as Hard Times Billy Budd and Invisible Man it also looks at graphic novels science fiction and popular contemporary works such as Finishing School and Jarhead Chapters reflect the personal successes of their authors and cite works for further reading Readings in Modern Western Civilization Don C. Rawson, Alan F. Wilt, 1982 Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magma Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa
