Readings In Psychology For The Teacher:

Readings in Psychology for the Teacher Dennis Child,1977-01-01 companion text for Psychology and the Teacher Pref

Readings in Educational Psychology Edgar Stones,2012 The papers in this volume relate to the nature and conditions of classroom learning with particular emphasis on the cognitive aspects They are concerned with the question of concept formation and stress the importance of the teacher s function in ensuring that the child really has assimilated the ideas and not merely the words for the concepts The role of language is fundamental to this theme and the interaction of language thinking and learning is dealt with in the first section of the book This section also provides a context within which subsequent discussions of classroom learning problems can be viewed Some problems concerning the elaboration of a general theory of teaching are then examined with particular reference to possible methods of bridging the gap between research and implementation Educational Psychology in Context Bruce A. Marlowe,Alan S. Canestrari,2006

Educational Psychology in Context Readings for Future Teachers takes an exciting new approach to educational psychology by addressing the questions that real teachers in real schools ask about real students This book s purpose is to provide a stimulating alternative to traditional texts by helping teachers develop a strong theoretical and research based understanding of how their students learn and develop Unlike other texts this book of major readings is an anthology of primary source readings selected for students entering the teaching profession and for teachers interested in examining learning and development Readings in Psychology for the Teacher Dennis Child,1977 Readings in Educational Psychology E.  Dechant, 2013-09-13 In the words of Aldous Huxley Every man who knows how to read has it in his power to magnify himself to multiply the ways in which he exists to make his life full significant and interesting Few people question the value of reading in fact most extol its virtues As our culture becomes more complex reading plays an increasingly greater role in satisfying personal needs and in promoting social awareness and growth In the last 20 years the teaching of this invaluable skill has focused so intensely on comprehension and prediction from context that it has lost sight of the significance of automaticity and fluency in the word identification process Reading is a synthesis of word recognition and comprehension thus this text is about these basic processes and their integration A common plea from teachers today is that research and psychology be translated into teaching behavior Therefore the aim of this book is twofold one to identify report organize and discuss those bits of data research and theory that are most relevant to the teacher's understanding of the reading process and two to help educators to interpret and apply theory and research data to everyday classroom teaching as well as to the problems encountered frequently in developmental and remedial teaching Teaching and Learning Charles Desforges, Richard Fox, 2002-05-06 This is the first collection of key articles on the psychology behind educational attainment It brings together in one volume for students a set of accessible but influential papers representing the best classic and cutting edge work in the field Teaching Technique Ida Emelia Huglin, 1927 Regulations Governing the provides a useful handbook for psychology teachers in the major subfields of the discipline From introductory psychology to the foundations in such areas as social psychology statistics research methods memory cognition personality and development to such specialized courses as language sexual minorities and peace psychology there is something here for virtually every teacher of psychology In addition to discussions of the rationale for inclusion of cultural context in their areas of specialization these experienced teachers also offer advice and ideas for teaching exercises and activities to support the
