Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

Using the Power of Hope to Cope with Dying Cathleen Fanslow, 2012-06-01 Introducing Cathleen Fanslow's Hope System which incorporates the four stages of hope hope for cure for treatment for prolongation of life and for peaceful death this book shows both the living and the dying how to use the power of hope to cope with the inevitable This powerful and simple system enables families friends and professional caregivers to understand and assist the dying on their journey regardless of their beliefs by addressing all levels of the experience physical emotional psychological and spiritual Concentrating on solutions for the day to day emotional needs of the dying this practical guide also features examples and stories from families that have experienced loss as well as helpful passages that provide hope throughout the ordeal

New Titles in Bioethics, 1999 Men Coping with Grief Dale A. Lund, 2000 Provides knowledge about the ways men grieve and how their bereavement experiences impact various aspects of their lives

Death, Posthumous Harm, and Bioethics James Stacey Taylor, 2012-10-12 Death Posthumous Harm and Bioethics offers a highly distinctive and original approach to the metaphysics of death and applies this approach to contemporary debates in bioethics that address end of life and post mortem issues Taylor defends the controversial Epicurean view that death is not a harm to the person who dies and the neo Epicurean thesis that persons cannot be affected by events that occur after their deaths and hence that posthumous harms and benefits are impossible He then extends this argument by asserting that the dead cannot be wronged finally presenting a defence of revisionary views concerning posthumous organ procurement
