Ornamental Wall Painting in the Art of the Assyrian Empire Pauline Albenda,2022-01-04 This study brings together the archaeological record and the pictorial documentation of ornamental wall painting produced in Assyria from the thirteenth to the seventh centuries B C Nimrud Khorsabad Til Barsip and Tell Sheikh Hamad are among the ancient sites where impressive wall paintings were discovered unfortunately most of these discoveries now exist in drawings and photographs only Ornamental wall painting created a colorful and meaningful visual impact to the rooms of residences belonging to the Assyrian kings The assembled material demonstrates that the polychrome and black and white decorated bands of geometric floral figural and animal motifs were arranged into a variety of formulaic designs Particular attention is given to the changing trends in the selection and combination of motifs some of which had symbolic meaning The chronology of the wall paintings at Til Barsip and the accompanying discussion of textile patterns are of special interest to the art historian This book illustrates the ornamental wall paintings as recorded in the excavation reports

Principles of Decoration in the Roman World Annette Haug,M. Taylor Lauritsen,2021-04-19 This book explores the manner in which architectural settings and action contexts influenced the perception of decoration in the Roman world Crucial to the relationship between ancient viewers and media was the concept of decor a term employed by Vitruvius and other Roman authors to describe the appropriateness of particular decorative elements to the environment in which they were located The papers in this volume examine a diverse range of decorated spaces from press rooms to synagogues through the lens of decor In doing so they shed new light on the decorative principles employed across Roman Italy and beyond
