Real Fictions Four Canadian Artists:

Real Fictions Linda Michael,1996-01-01 Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century Joan Murray,1999-11 Joan Murray discusses social and political events in combination with the movements ideas attitudes styles and important groups in Canadian art of this century The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Reenactment Mark Franko,2017 The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Reenactment investigates new forms of choreographic dramaturgy and interpretation inherent Joining junior and senior scholars as well as practitioners in the field the handbook shows how the recovery of past dances has come to constitute a new branch of contemporary choreographic activity A History of Canadian Fiction David Staines,2021-08-05 The first one volume history of Canadian fiction covering its growth and development from earliest times to the present day Recounting the struggles and the glories of this burgeoning area of investigation it explains Canada s literary growth alongside its remarkable history Culture + the State: Landscape and Ecology ,2003 Mining the Media Archive Dot Tuer,2006 Mining the Media Archive gathers together an exciting collection of essays by writer and cultural theorist Dot Tuer Ranging from monographs on new media artists to a history of Canada s most controversial artist run centre the CEAC to testimonial writing on cultural politics and post colonialism in Canada and Argentina Tuer s writings address issues of global media and local remembrance through a unique blend of storytelling archival research and cultural analysis Macfadden Fiction-lovers Magazine ,1908 The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1922

Creative Canada ,1971-12-15 Did he ever play Hamlet Has she worked in television What was the title of his first novel Under whom did she study How many children has he Answers to such questions about contemporary Canadian artists have often been difficult even impossible to find This series has been created to provide the answers it covers creative and performing artists who have contributed as individuals to the culture of Canada in the twentieth century Each volume in the series presents a cross section of many different kinds of artists authors of imaginative works artists and sculptors musicians performers composers conductors and directors and performing artists in ballet modern dance radio theatre television and motion pictures directors designers and producers in theatre cinema radio television and the dance choreographers and for cinema cartoonists and animators Within each category of art is included a selection of those who have achieved national and international recognition those who have been recognized locally and some now deceased who markedly influenced their contemporaries locally nationally or internationally This is not a critical compilation rather it is an objective and factual reference work for those interested in contemporary Canadian culture Information was collected by painstaking research in a wide variety of sources and wherever possible it has been verified by the artist to make each entry as accurate and comprehensive as possible The Fiction of Margaret Atwood Fiona Tolan,2022-09-22 Winner of the 2023 Atwood Society Award for Best Book on Atwood and Her Work Margaret Atwood is one of the most significant writers working today Her writing spans seven decades is phenomenally diverse and ambitious and has amassed an enormous body of literary criticism In this invaluable guide Fiona Tolan provides a clear and comprehensive overview of evolving critical approaches to Atwood's work Addressing all of the author's key texts the book deftly guides the reader through the most characteristic influential and insightful critical readings of the last fifty years It highlights recurring themes in Atwood's work such as gender feminism power and violence fairy tale and the gothic environmental destruction and dystopian futures This is an indispensable companion for anyone interested in reading and writing about Margaret Atwood The Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art and Literature, 1899 The Still Life in the Fiction of A. S. Byatt Elizabeth Hicks, 2010-08-11

This book explores the ways in which English writer A S Byatt's visual still lifes descriptions of real or imagined artworks and what are termed verbal still lifes scenes such as laid tables rooms and market stalls are informed by her veneration of both realism and writing It examines Byatt's adoption of the Barthesian concept of textual pleasure showing how her ekphrastic descriptions involve consumption and take time to unfold for the reader thereby highlighting the limitations of painting It also investigates the ways in which Byatt's still lifes demonstrate her debts to English modernist author Virginia Woolf French writer Marcel Proust and the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood of nineteenth century Britain A number of Byatt's verbal still lifes are read as semiotic markers of her characters particularly with regard to economic status and class Further her descriptions uniting food and sexuality are perceived as part of her overall representation of pleasure Finally Byatt's employment of vanitas iconography in many of her portrayals of death is discussed showing how her recurring motif of Keats's Ode on a Grecian Urn teases out the still life's inherent tension between living passion and cold artwork Literary Theory Julie Rivkin, Michael Ryan, 2017-01-23 The new edition of this bestselling literary theory anthology has been thoroughly updated to include influential texts from innovative new areas including disability studies eco criticism and ethics Covers all the major schools and methods that make up the dynamic field of literary theory from Formalism to Postcolonialism Expanded to include work from Stuart Hall Sara Ahmed and Lauren Berlant Pedagogically enhanced with detailed editorial introductions and a comprehensive glossary of terms Freefall into Fiction Barbara
