Rediscovering Interlanguage:

Rediscovering Interlanguage Larry Selinker, 1992 An account of the development of research and thinking in the field of learner language Draws on wide ranging research into contrastive analysis bilingualism theoretical linguistics and experimental psychology

Rediscovering Interlanguage Larry Selinker, 1994 Introducing Second Language Acquisition Muriel Saville-Troike, 2005-11-17 Written for students encountering the topic for the first time this is a clear and practical introduction to second language acquisition SLA It explains in non technical language how a second language is acquired what the second language learner needs to know and why some learners are more successful than others The textbook introduces in a step by step fashion a range of fundamental concepts such as SLA in adults and children in formal and informal learning contexts and in diverse socio cultural settings and takes an interdisciplinary approach encouraging students to consider SLA from linguistic psychological and social perspectives Each chapter contains a list of key terms a summary and a range of graded exercises suitable for self testing or class discussion Providing a solid foundation in SLA this book is set to become the leading introduction to the field for students of linguistics psychology and education and trainee language teachers

The Solution to the 'Son of Man' Problem Maurice Casey, 2009-09-01 The opening chapter surveys the history of scholarship regarding the problematic use of the phrase son of man in the New Testament It also explains why this problem could not be solved until recently Casey then presents the relevant Aramaic evidence He offers a careful discussion of the use of the Aramaic term son of man in the light of over 30 examples of the use of this term by speakers who are referring to themselves Chapters 4-9 discuss authentic examples of this idiom in the teaching of Jesus with Aramaic reconstructions of each saying All but one of these sayings is found in Mark or Q There is then a full discussion of secondary sayings in the Synoptic Gospels The first ones dependent on Daniel 7:13 belong to the earliest Gospel which also contains the results of translating genuine sayings of Jesus from Aramaic into Greek There is a discussion of the transition process between authentic Aramaic sayings of Jesus and Greek son of man sayings in the synoptic Gospels This argument builds on work in the field of translation studies and the work of ancient translators especially of the Septuagint Casey argues that Gospel translators deliberately translated both literally and creatively to produce a new Christological title It is this tradition that is evident in the Fourth Gospel its son of man sayings fit perfectly into Johannine theology The final chapter draws together a complete solution to this difficult problem

Language as Discourse Michael McCarthy, Ronald Carter, 2014-07-22 In this book Michael McCarthy and Ronald Carter describe the discoursal properties of language and demonstrate what insights this approach can offer to the student and teacher of language The authors examine the relationship between complete texts both spoken and written and the social and cultural contexts in which they function They argue that the functions of language are often best understood in a discoursal environment and that exploring language in context compels us to revise commonly held understandings about the forms and meanings of language In so doing the authors argue the need for language teachers syllabus planners and curriculum organisers to give greater attention to language as discourse
