Rediscovering Magical Realism In The Americas:

Rediscovering Magical Realism in the Americas Shannin Schroeder, 2004-10-30 Drawing from a variety of contemporary literature including such works as One Hundred Years of Solitude, Beloved and Like Water for Chocolate Schroeder explores magical realism as one of many common denominators in the literature of the Americas challenging the notion that magical realism should be defined merely in terms of geography or Latin American history By relying on an all encompassing vision of this unique mode of writing the author argues that the Americas share a literary tradition and validates the North American strain of the mode In addition she points to fundamentally similar approaches to fiction that illustrate the ways in which the Americas share a common literature and calls for increased Pan American scholarship Counteracting the critical tendency to label anything unreal or supernatural in literature as magical realism Schroeder traces the mode through a variety of contemporary works including well known and lesser known examples Through a carefully articulated history and description of the mode itself she is able to show that while Latin American and North American fiction share in common certain features of magical realism their distinctive approaches to it reflect Latin America's third world concerns and North America's preoccupation with popular culture and capitalism Tracing the forces of change at work on the mode in an effort to counter the tendency among scholars to apply the label without justification this book reclaims magical realism as a current and significant term for use in its application to literary works Moments of Magical Realism in US Ethnic Literatures R. Perez, 2012-12-06 A collection of essays that explores magical realism as a momentary interruption of realism in US ethnic literature showing how these moments of magic realism serve to memorialize address and redress traumatic ethnic histories Rediscovering the Americas Shannin Schroeder, 1999 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty-First Century Richard Perez, Victoria A. Chevalier, 2020-04-30 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty First Century examines magical realism in literatures from around the globe Featuring twenty seven essays written by leading scholars this anthology argues that literary expressions of magical realism proliferate globally in the twenty first century due to travel and migrations the shrinking of time and space and the growing encroachment of human life on nature In this global context magical realism addresses twenty first century politics aesthetics identity and social national formations where contact between and within cultures has exponentially increased altering how communities and nations imagine themselves This text assembles a group of critics throughout the world the Americas Europe Africa Asia the Middle East and Australia who employ multiple theoretical approaches to examine the different ways magical realism in literature has transitioned to a global practice thus signaling a new stage in the history and development of the genre Magical Realism and Deleuze Eva Aldea, 2011-02-10 Magical Realism and Literature Christopher Warnes, Kim Anderson Sasser, 2020-11-12 Magical realism can lay claim to being one of most recognizable genres of prose writing It mingles the probable and improbable the real and the fantastic and it provided the late twentieth century novel with an infusion of creative energy in Latin America Africa Asia and beyond Writers such as Alejo Carpentier Gabriel Garc a M rquez Isabel Allende Salman Rushdie Ben Okri and many others harnessed the resources of narrative realism to the representation of folklore belief and fantasy This book sheds new light on magical realism exploring in detail its global origins and development It offers new perspectives of the history of the ideas behind this literary tradition including magic realism otherness primitivism ethnography indigeneity and space and time

Magical Realism in Postcolonial British Fiction Taner Can, 2014-06-01 This study aims at delineating the cultural work of magical realism as a dominant narrative mode in postcolonial British fiction through a detailed analysis of four magical realist novels Salman Rushdie s Midnight s Children 1981 Shashi Tharoor s The Great Indian Novel 1989 Ben Okri s The Famished Road 1991 and Syl Cheney Coker s The Last Harmattan of Alusine Dunbar 1990 The main focus of attention lies on the ways in which the novelists in question have exploited the potentials of magical realism to represent their hybrid cultural and national identities To provide the necessary historical context for the discussion the author first traces the development of magical realism from its origins in European Painting to its appropriation into literature by European and Latin American writers and explores the contested definitions of magical realism and the critical questions surrounding them He then proceeds to analyze the relationship between the paradigmatic turn that took place in postcolonial literatures in the 1980s and the concomitant rise of magical realism as the literary expression of Third World countries
