Reducing Delinquency:

Strategies to Reduce Student Misbehavior Oliver Clinton Moles, 1989      Preventing and Reducing Juvenile Delinquency James C. Howell, 2009 This book informs readers about the latest research and the most promising and effective programmes for understanding preventing and controlling juvenile delinquency      Practical Strategies to Reduce Childhood Trauma and Mitigate Exposure to the School-to-Prison Pipeline Alexander-Ashley, Belinda M., 2023-01-03 School closures due to the COVID 19 pandemic racial violence injustice and resource inequities highlight the need for multi disciplinary strategies and practices that support evidence based practices across a range of educational levels for leaders professors teachers educational professionals trauma survivors and youth and government programs for both in class and remote learning environments Practical Strategies to Reduce Childhood Trauma and Mitigate Exposure to the School to Prison Pipeline provides practical strategies and tools focused on reducing childhood trauma while mitigating exposure to the school to prison pipeline Covering a range of crucial topics such as social justice trauma mindfulness and coaching this reference work is ideal for researchers scholars practitioners academicians educators leaders administrators school staff youth programs government organizations students and trauma survivors      Examining the Federal Effort to Prevent Juvenile Crime United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Youth Violence, 1998      Youth Prison Reduction Through Opportunities, Mentoring, Intervention, Support, and Education (PROMISE) Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and Homeland Security, 2010      Reducing Delinquency Arnold P. Goldstein, 1989      Perspectives on Crime Reduction Tim Hope, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 The papers in this volume are concerned with the prevention of crime Like other books in the International Library the text is intended primarily for reference by those who need to reflect upon what criminology has had to say about important contemporary concerns of criminal policy The papers present a kind of history of ideas which together trace the emergence of some key components of contemporary thinking about reducing crime      Hearings United States. Congress Senate, 1955 Attorney General's Report on Federal Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Assistance Activities United States. Department of Justice,      Attorney General's Annual Report United States. Dept. of Justice,      Ebook: Child Development: An Introduction John Santrock, 2014-10-16 Accurate Reliable Engaging These are just a few of the words used by adopters and reviewers of John Santrock's Child Development The new topically organised fourteenth edition continues with Santrock's highly contemporary tone and focus featuring over 1 000 new citations The popular Connections theme shows students the different aspects of children's development to help them better understand the concepts Used by hundreds of thousands of students over thirteen editions Santrock's proven learning goals system provides a clear roadmap to course mastery      Encyclopedia of Race and Crime Helen Taylor Greene, Shaun L. Gabbidon, 2009-04-14 The organization of the reader's guide especially the groupings of landmark cases race riots and criminology theories is impressive Other related titles lack the breadth detail and accessibility of this work Recommended for all libraries essential for comprehensive social studies collections Library Journal As seen almost daily on local and national news race historically and presently figures prominently in crime and justice reporting within the United States in the areas of hate crimes racial profiling sentencing disparities wrongful convictions felon disenfranchisement political prisoners juveniles and the death penalty and culturally specific delinquency prevention programs The Encyclopedia of Race and Crime covers issues in both historical and contemporary context with information on race and ethnicity and their impact on crime and the administration of justice These two volumes offer a greater appreciation for the similar historical experiences of varied racial and ethnic groups and illustrate how race and ethnicity has mattered and continues to matter in the administration of American criminal justice Key Features Covers a number of broad thematic areas basic concepts and theories of criminal justice the police courts and corrections juvenile justice public policy the media organizations specific groups and populations and specific cases and biographies Addresses such topics as gender hate bias crimes immigrant experiences international and cross cultural issues race and gangs and race and law Presents experiences of all major racial and ethnic groups in the U S including Asians Blacks Latinos Native Americans and Ethnic Whites as well as religious minorities such as Muslims Includes coverage of recent incidents like the alleged rape of a black female North Carolina Central University student by white male members of the Duke University Lacrosse Team the Jena 6 incident the Tulia Texas drug arrests the Rodney King beating the O J Simpson trials in the 1990s and more recent racial profiling incidents Two appendices provide information on locating and interpreting statistical data on race and crime as well as detailed instructions on how to access statistical data on the web for such specific areas as arrests drugs gang membership hate crimes homicide trends juvenile justice prison populations racial profiling the death penalty and victimization Because the topic of race and crime is of wide interest and relevance entries in this Encyclopedia are written in an accessible style to appeal to a broad audience making it a welcome addition to academic and public libraries alike

Offender Rehabilitation and Treatment James McGuire, 2003-04-11 Criminal behaviour continues to be a matter of major public concern How society should respond to it and what should be done with those who repeatedly offend remain hotly disputed topics of conversation Offender Rehabilitation and Treatment draws together internationally renowned experts from the United Kingdom Europe North America and Australia Chapters summarise some of the most recent and exciting developments in this field and offer a systematic knowledge based approach to the effective reduction of criminal behaviour Offers coverage of a wide range of key topics in this area Links theory research and practice in a coherent and accessible style International focus with examples and authors from a number of countries

Crime Prevention Steven E. Barkan, Michael Rocque, 2020-01-31 In Crime Prevention Programs Policies and Practices criminologists Steven E Barkan and Michael Rocque present a well rounded exploration of evidence based policies programs and practices Grounded in criminological theory and emphasizing the social psychological and biological roots of crime this text presents current research perspectives and examples that capture the key crime prevention concepts students should understand including the public health model for crime prevention Highlighting the importance of applying theory to real world solutions the authors discussion of crime prevention strategies integrates theory and practice throughout the text      Forensic

Psychology Joanna R. Adler, Jacqueline M. Gray, 2010 This book brings together academics practitioners and experts in the field of forensic psychology to demonstrate the scope of the discipline and push its parameters Its aim is to go beyond introductory texts to challenge perceptions to raise questions for research and to pose problems for practice The editors hope to inspire and stimulate debate about how forensic psychology can aid the practice of justice The book is divided into six sections addressing key topics from the discipline investigation and prosecution testimony and evidence serious and persistent offending treat      Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and related agencies
