Regan,2011-03-08 CNBC anchor Trish Regan takes you behind the scenes of America s thriving pot industry to show readers things only drug dealers know about this secret world Forget amber waves of grain Today it s marijuana plants that blanket the nation from sea to shining sea in homes in backyards and even in our national parks In Joint Ventures Trish Regan takes you behind the scenes to explore every aspect of this flourishing underground economy Her focus is the so called Emerald Triangle Northern California s Mendocino Humboldt and Trinity counties where many small time part time marijuana growers contribute to a trade that generates roughly a billion dollars a year A fascinating investigation into the inner workings of today s exploding American marijuana industry Based on extensive research and interviews by Trish Regan whose Emmy nominated documentary Marijuana Inc attracted more viewers than any documentary in CNBC's history. Regan examines all aspects of this new culture. She reveals how small time growers get their start, make or lose a fortune, struggle with violence, try to keep up with constantly changing laws and regulations, all while walking an increasingly fine line with the Feds. Regan reports on the current and potential impact of legalized marijuana on local economies, uncovers the link between marijuana and violent Mexican cartels, questions whether decriminalization would work on a national scale as it has in Portugal since 2001. As the decriminalization and legalization debates gather steam, Joint Ventures arms you with the facts on both sides of the issue.

Hooked: Drug War Films in Britain, Canada, and the U.S. Susan C. Boyd, 2010-09-13. Drug prohibition emerged at the same time as the discovery of film, and their histories intersect in interesting ways. This book examines the ideological assumptions embedded in the narrative and imagery of one hundred fictional drug films produced in Britain, Canada, and the U.S. from 1912 to 2006, including Broken Blossoms, Reefer Madness, The Trip, Superfly, Withnail and I, Traffik, Traffic, Layer Cake, Harold and Kumar Go to White Castle, Trailer Park Boys, and more. Boyd focuses on past and contemporary illegal drug discourse about users, traffickers, drug treatment, and the intersection of criminal justice with counterculture, alternative, and stoner flicks. She provides a socio-historical and cultural criminological perspective and an analysis of race, class, and gender representations in illegal drug films. This illuminating work will be an essential text for a wide range of students and scholars in the fields of criminology, sociology, media, gender, and women's studies, drug studies, and cultural studies.

Criminal Law Kathryn Russell-Brown, Angela J. Davis, 2015-01-30. An Interdisciplinary Approach. Criminal Law provides students with an integrated framework for understanding the U.S. criminal justice system with a diverse and inclusive interdisciplinary approach and thematic focus. Authors Kathryn Russell-Brown and Angela J. Davis go beyond the law and decisions in court cases to consider and integrate issues of race, gender, and socio-economic status with their discussion of criminal law. Material from the social sciences is incorporated to highlight the intersection between criminal law and key social issues. Case excerpts and detailed case summaries used to highlight important principles of criminal law are featured throughout the text. The coverage is conceptual and practical, showing students how the criminal law applies in the real world, not just within the pages of a textbook.
