Transformative Learning in Healthcare and Helping Professions Education Teresa J. Carter, Carrie J. Boden, Kathy Peno, 2019-05-01 Transformative Learning in Healthcare and Helping Professions Education Building Resilient Professional Identities is a co edited book Carter Boden and Peno with invited chapters from educators who share our passion for learning in healthcare and the helping professions The purpose of the book is to introduce professional learners students residents and others in professional training to transformative learning for building resilient professional identities amid practice environments that include widespread burnout and compassion fatigue With a diverse set of authors engaged in clinical and educational practice in academic medicine nursing dentistry physical therapy mental health counseling science education psychology social work and inter professional collaborative practice we offer strategies for building resilience throughout the years of professional training and into professional practice We do so through the experiences of authors involved in healthcare and the helping professions to illustrate how some are coping with the challenges of burnout and compassion fatigue through learning that can be transformative This book explores the nature of professional identity formation by examining ways that professionals in training can thrive amid the challenges of today's stressful practice environments First hand stories of resilience illustrate how learners as well as educators in these professions are addressing adversity career decision making service to the underserved and the self care needed to provide excellent care for others The prominence of transformative learning within adult learning theory is illustrated for its potential to revise the meaning that learners make of their experiences and open up new possibilities for renewed vitality in professional education and practice environments The book has two primary audiences professional learners in healthcare and helping professions education and their educators who are often professional practitioners themselves These educators have a significant role in influencing the next generation of professionals by serving as mentors role models and teachers The importance of fostering learning that is transformative has never been more important than it is today for those who will work in these demanding professions We invite readers to discover experiences and strategies for achieving individual wellbeing as well as opportunities for building a culture within professional education and practice settings that will foster resilience

The God of Tomorrow Bruce G Epperly, 2024-04-23

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Alfred North Whitehead came from very different religious backgrounds yet a study of their ideas shows a number of important and helpful synergies This book by Dr Bruce Epperly skilled in the clear presentation of the ideas of process theology examines those ideas and the experiences of these two important thinkers Epperly shows the ways in which their themes converge and examines how this synergy can help us plan strategies to join God's adventure of the universe in our own spheres He argues that both thinkers call for a theological adventure that embraces change and evolution and sees God as a dynamic and transformative force in the universe Whitehead's metaphysics of love and Teilhard's metaphysics of spiritual evolution offer a synthesis that challenges traditional notions of God and invites us to recognize the mystical and transformative potential within ourselves Epperly emphasizes the need for a holistic approach to theology and mission that engages with science culture and the challenges of our time He concludes with a call to embrace the God of Tomorrow and embark on a journey of creative transformation and planetary healing This is a must read for anyone interested in process theology It is suitable for individual reading and with sections on spiritual practices with each chapter it would be a great aid for study prayer and meditation in a small prayer or study group It encourages personal application and action

The Changing Face of Religion and Human Rights Clemens Nathan, 2009-06-02 Clemens N Nathan has devoted a lifetime to the pursuit of Human Rights to understanding and reflecting upon the concept of Human Rights to participating in and sometimes helping to create organisations and mechanisms for the protection and promotion of Human Rights to helping those who have been denied their Human Rights and to encouraging and supporting research into and scholarship on Human Rights All this has been achieved by a man who has had no formal training in the field but who has become a recognised expert through his extensive reading through working with leading exponents and by drawing upon his lively intellect his wealth of culture and his knowledge of history philosophy and religions This volume published under the auspices of the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law offers insight into the challenging relationship between religion and human rights      Process Theology: A Guide for the Perplexed Bruce G.
