Emerging Perspectives on Anti-oppressive Practice Canadian Association of Schools of Social Work. Meeting, Wes Shera, 2003 This book consists of 27 chapters developed from papers originally delivered at a recent conference at the University of Toronto on anti oppressive practice in social work Dr Shera has gathered expert contributors to discuss define and analyse theories of social work practice pedagogical issues fieldwork practice models of education of social work practitioners and current critical issues These selected conference papers lay the groundwork for anti oppressive practice in a way that will generate discussion and inspire researchers and practitioners

Observation and Its Application to Social Work Pat Le Riche, Karen Tanner, 1998-01-01 Observation helps social workers and students to reflect upon situations before intervening The Tavistock Model of Observation which is informed by psychoanalytic ideas especially those of Klein and Bion is the starting point of this general book on the role of observation in social work Karen Tanner and Pat Le Riche have brought together a range of contributions from practitioners and social work academics in order to discuss the application of ideas about observation to social work education and practice While the Tavistock Model remains influential the writers draw on material from a number of other disciplines such as behavioural ethnography psychology and critical social policy on observation and social work The central theme of the book is that of power relations The authors focus on power in relation to the process of observation and how observation can be used to counteract oppressive and dehumanising practices Clearly and perceptively written the book develops the debate on the purposes of observation and provides an overview of current practice It will be of use to students and professionals alike

Men in Therapy Richard L. Meth, Robert S. Pasick, 1991-10-18 Men have long been considered difficult to engage in psychotherapy often being described as resistant unworkable and unfeeling The few available books that deal specifically with men s issues tend to lack a central theoretical focus are highly psychoanalytic in content or simply do not provide specific guidelines for working with men This unique and timely volume fills an important gap in the literature by demonstrating why change is often so difficult for them It provides detailed guidelines for helping men initiate and sustain change in their personal familial and professional lives

Feminisms in the Academy Domna C. Stanton, Abigail J. Stewart, 1995 Brings together essays by leading scholars to explore the profound impact of feminist scholarship on the major academic disciplines Mirrors and Reflections Charlotte Burck, Gwyn Daniel, 2018-05-08 In this volume as the title indicates the focus is on understanding and elaborating what might be said to be going on in supervision as well as further exploring what is distinctive about systemic supervision Looking at processes within systemic supervision involves engaging with the different contexts within which the supervision takes place and engaging with a range of theories some developed or applied within therapeutic contexts and others drawn from theories of learning Various theoretical frameworks have emerged and been described as underpinnings for systemic supervision Social constructionist and narrative ideas have been vital in the creation of supervisory practices that promote open dialogues multiple perspectives and the interrogation of traditional assumptions about expertise and hierarchy This has inevitably led to a discussion of tensions and contradictions unease about implicit practices of power the problematics of assessment and evaluation and issues concerning the allocation of clinical responsibility Positioning theory dialogic theories and ideas from the field of adult education have also contributed helpful theoretical concepts for use by systemic supervisors
