Elissa Ambrose,2012-02-15 A WOMAN S LOVE A MOTHER S SECRET Rachel Hartwell just a kid when she gave up her daughter for adoption now yearned to be part of Megan s life and fulfill her motherly role But a run in with Adam Wessler Megan s smoldering and single adoptive father made her realize that her maternal instincts were not the only ones going unfulfilled Adam couldn t have known what Rachel s real connection to his daughter was because clearly all he wanted to do was pull her close from the moment he laid eyes on her But what would happen when he learned the truth about their relationship Would she be welcomed into the fold Or on the outside looking in again Reflections of New England Ellen Lesser,1991-04 The Forging and the Death of a Reflection Dr. Peter J. Swartz,2016-08-01 This work is a memoir As a child and a young man I rarely felt entitled to breath air Emotionally neglected by my father as a teen I left home for a prep school at which I would spend the worst three years of my life Trouble followed two failed attempts at undergraduate college until I found my way to a horseshoeing school out west I was able to work as a professional farrier for several years until a ruptured disc in my back forced a career change I chose psychology as somewhere in the back of my mind the depression I endured as a child motivated me back to school to try to help others eventually becoming a licensed psychologist It was a good fit and I have been practicing for the past twenty five years including many years as an instructor in psychology for Harvard Medical School About seven years ago I acquired tinnitus along with 50 to 60 million other Americans and using my personal practice of meditation developed a program to help myself and my patients manage this chronic illness In short this work traces the forging of a debilitating sense of self and outlines the potential for it s death resulting in a selflessness that connects to the boundless goodness of the universe Lastly I have been helped in no small way throughout by the profound empathy I have shared with many magnificent beasts of the canine variety
