Practising Critical Reflection: a Resource Handbook Jan Fook, Fiona Gardner, 2007-09-16 How can professionals learn more easily from their own experience How can critical reflection be performed in a structured way How can professionals maintain a critically reflective stance when contexts may be restrictive

Critical reflection in professional practice is popular across many different professions as a way of ensuring ongoing scrutiny and improved practice skills. This accessible handbook focuses on a description and analysis of the theoretical input as well as the approach involved in critical reflection. It also demonstrates some skills strategies and tools which might be used to practise it. The cross disciplinary approach taken by the authors will appeal to a wide range of students and professionals and combines neatly with useful discussion of the complex educational and professional issues which arise from the practice of critical reflection. An innovative website containing a variety of useful resources accompanies the book www.openup.co.uk. Resources include Extracts from workshops, interviews and lectures. Additional articles and readings. Sample material for workshop preparation. Throughout the book the authors provide pertinent examples from their own practice referring to relevant literature providing annotated bibliographies and noting where additional resource materials are available to provide further illustration. Practising Critical Reflection is key reading for a variety of students across social work, health sciences and nursing as well as health care and social welfare professionals.

Nursing Education Jennifer Boore, Patrick Deeny, 2012-09-18. Nursing Education provides a strategic guide and practical focus to curriculum planning and development. It will help all those involved in the provision of nursing education to understand the issues involved at the different stages of preparing a nursing curriculum which meets both professional and academic requirements, integrates theory and practice, enables students to achieve the skills and competencies they need for professional practice, includes different methods of teaching and learning, provides clear guidance for student selection and assessment, balancing theoretical principles with practical application and linked closely to the NMC's 2010 standards for pre-registration nursing. Jennifer Boore and Pat Deeny illustrate clearly and accessibly how to develop tailored education programmes so that nurse educators and clinicians in practice can enable their students to provide up to date and appropriate patient care.

EBOOK: Developing Community Nursing Practice Sue Spencer, John Unsworth, W. Burke, 2001-08-16. Developing Community Nursing Practice is the first book to identify and debate the key issues around community nurses taking responsibility for developing the ways in which they deliver care. Modern health care expects the individual practitioner to develop patient focused, accessible and evidence based community services. Despite the fact that the introduction and management of change is now a feature of professional education, community nurses often feel ill prepared for introducing change in the real world, perceiving a gap between theory and practice. Developing Community Nursing Practice aims to close that gap. This book interweaves thinking about change and innovation with wide ranging case study experience of contemporary community nursing. It addresses often neglected issues in practice development such as evaluation and sustainability. It gives guidance on how to identify what aspects of practice need to be developed, on how to convince others of the need to change, on how to work across organizational boundaries and on the likely hazards and how to tackle them. This is a key resource for all student and practising community nurses across all specialisms, providing information on how to initiate and implement change and on how ultimately to succeed in developing their own practice Making Sense Of Nursing Portfolios: A Guide For Students Timmins, Fiona, 2008-05-01 All students undertaking pre registration nursing qualifications are required to complete a portfolio as part of their formal assessment This book is pitched at introductory level and provides a guide to the context of portfolio development and its importance not just to assessment but to the patient experience Mental Health Nursing Stephan D. Kirby, Denis Hart, Dennis Cross, 2017-03-14 Pre registration nurse training across the UK is now competency based and this is the first mental health nursing text devoted to this approach It explores the practical application of a competency based Exit Profile for mental health nursing students which ensures that there is consistency in the essential knowledge skills and attitudes that mental health nursing students will acquire by the end of their training programmes This timely and contemporary text will be an essential resource for all Mental Health Branch nursing students
