Reforming the Christian Faith Mark W. Karlberg, 2017-10-12 Central to the mission of the church with each passing generation is the elucidation of the gospel of Christ which is the heart of the Christian message Witness to God's saving word in Scripture comes in response to discussions and debates arising over the course of church history Our study highlights some of the unity and disunity found within the Reformed tradition Reformation and modern Beginning with the subject of the development of doctrine over the course of church history we take up the foundational issue of biblical hermeneutics the question of how we are to interpret the Bible The year 2017 marks the Protestant Church's 500th anniversary October 31 We consider secondly Protestantism's two leading theological principles the formal the doctrine of Scripture and the material the doctrine of justification by faith alone In the final section we critique departures from the teaching of historic federalism found within contemporary Reformed orthodoxy which strikes at the very heart of what it means to be Reformed in theology Crucial in this long standing and ongoing dispute is the interpretation of the Mosaic Covenant as in some sense a republication of the original Covenant of Works with Adam at creation Covenant and justification are the focal doctrines under study

Trinity and Revelation Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2014-04-19 In this book Pentecostal theologian Veli Matti Karkkainen develops a constructive theology of triune revelation and the triune God in dialogue with Christian tradition with contemporary theology in its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Karkkainen's Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World is a five volume project that aims to develop a new approach to and method of doing Christian theology in a pluralistic world at the beginning of the third millennium With the metaphor of hospitality serving as the framework for his discussion Karkkainen engages Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism in sympathetic and critical mutual dialogue while remaining robustly Christian in his convictions Never before has a fullscale doctrinal theology been attempted in such a wide and deep dialogical mode

Exposition of Reformed Doctrine Menno John Bosma, 1907

Reforming the Art of Dying Austra Reinis, 2016-12-05 The Reformation led those who embraced Martin Luther's teachings to revise virtually every aspect of their faith and to reorder their daily lives in view of their new beliefs Nowhere was this more true than with death By the beginning of the sixteenth century the Medieval Church had established a sophisticated mechanism for dealing with death and its consequences The Protestant reformers rejected this new mechanism To fill the resulting gap and to offer comfort to the dying they produced new liturgies new church orders and new handbooks on dying This study focuses on the earliest of the Protestant handbooks beginning with Luther's Sermon on Preparing to Die in 1519 and ending with Jakob Otter's Christlich leben vnd sterben in 1528. It explores how Luther and his colleagues adopted traditional themes and motifs even as they transformed them to accord with their conviction that Christians could be certain of their salvation. It further shows how Luther's colleagues drew not only on his teaching on dying but also on other writings including his sermons on the sacraments. The study concludes that the assurance of salvation offered in the Protestant handbooks represented a significant departure from traditional teaching on death. By examining the ways in which the themes and teachings of the reformers differed from the late medieval ars moriendi, the book highlights both breaks with tradition and continuities that marked the early Reformation. Reforming Worship Julian Templeton, Keith

Riglin, 2012-06-12. The Reformed tradition of worship in England has given the English speaking world the Westminster Directory for the Public Worship of God and the hymns of Isaac Watts. In this collection of essays scholars and ministers who are inheritors of this tradition reflect on the continuities, innovations and tensions in Reformed worship and their lived expression in contemporary church life. Among the tensions explored is that between order and freedom in worship and the bold contention is made that ordered freedom is the scriptural mark of the church's worship and the character of all good liturgy for order is love in regulative operation. Anglican Reformed International Commission. This collection of essays on the theology, history and practice of Reformed worship also includes examples of psalmody, liturgy and a sermon. Celebrating the Reformation Mark D Thompson, 2017-09-21 Too often the Reformers and their doctrines have been caricatured misrepresented or misappropriated in the service of agendas they would never have recognized let alone endorsed Happily there has been a great deal of fine scholarship in recent years that has exploded some of these myths but it has not always been accessible to non specialists The intention of Celebrating the Reformation is that Christians today will find new cause to rejoice in what God did in the sixteenth century through weak and fallible men and women These people sought in their own context to submit themselves to the word of God and lead his people in a godly and faithful response to the gospel of grace Three sections deal with the chief Reformers key doctrines and the Reformation in retrospect Each contribution seeks to connect its subject to the present making clear its relevance for today The Reformation is not a dead movement but a living legacy that can still capture the imagination and encourage men and women in their own Christian discipleship The contributors are Andrew Bain Colin R Bale Rhys S Bezzant Gerald Bray Martin Foord David A H hne Chase Kuhn Andrew Leslie Edward Loane John McClean Joe Mock Michael J Ovey Tim Patrick Mark D Thompson Stephen Tong Jane Tooher and Dean Zweck

Of the English reformation. Against the doctrine of papal supremacy. Of the Catholick church. The popish rule of faith examined and disproved. The Protestant rule of faith explained and vindicated Edmund Gibson, 1738 A Defence of the Reformation-principles of the Church of Scotland William Wilson, 1769 Reforming Christianity Don Cupitt, 2001

Christian churches are seemingly in terminal decline Is a reformation and renewal of Christianity still possible even at this late hour Don Cupitt argues that it is possible but will be difficult Church Christianity as we have received it is handicapped by two great errors a mistaken interpretation of Jesus as having been the co equally divine Son of God incarnate and the mistaken belief that there is a controlling supernatural world beyond this world To escape from these errors we need to go back and start again from the historical Jesus and his message about the Kingdom of God on this earth We need to create a modern version of his kingdom religion a religion that is immediate beliefless and entirely focussed upon the here and now Reconstructing Christianity in this way calls for a revolution in thought At present the churches don't even want to think about reform and renewal but if they are ever to become serious this is the path they'll have to take China's Reforming Churches Bruce P.
