Europe, 2017 Images of Immigrants and Refugees in Western Europe Leen d'Haenens, Willem Joris, François Heinderyckx, 2019-05-14 Perception and representation of newcomers and immigrants The topic of migration has become particularly contentious in national and international debates Media have a discernable impact on overall societal attitudes towards this phenomenon Polls show time and again that immigration is one of the most important issues occupying people's minds This book examines the dynamic interplay between media representations of migrants and refugees on the one hand and the governmental and societal reactions to these on the other Largely focusing on Belgium and Sweden this collection of interdisciplinary research essays attempts to unravel the determinants of people's preferences regarding migration policy expectations towards newcomers and economic humanitarian and cultural concerns about immigration's effect on the majority population's life Whilst migrants and refugees remain voiceless and highly underrepresented in the legacy media this volume allows their voices to be heard Contributors Leen d'Haenens KU Leuven Willem Joris KU Leuven Paul Puschmann KU Leuven Radboud University Nijmegen Ebba Sundin Halmstad University David De Coninck KU Leuven Rozane De Cock KU Leuven Valérie Mistiaen Université libre de Bruxelles Lutgard Lams KU Leuven Stefan Mertens KU Leuven Olivier Standaert UC Louvain Hanne Vandenberghe KU Leuven Koen Matthijs KU Leuven Kevin Smets Vrije Universiteit Brussel Jacinthe Mazzocchi UC Louvain Lorraine Gerstmans UC Louvain Lien Mostmans Vrije Universiteit Brussel and François Heinderyckx Université libre de Bruxelles Ebook available in Open Access This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content With thanks to the funding provided by Belspo Belgian Science Policy Office as part of the framework programme BRAIN by Belgian Research Action Through Interdisciplinary Networks contract nr BR 165 A4 IM2MEDIATE The Right to Seek Refugee Status in the European Union Sylvie Da Lomba, 2004 In 2001 the 1951 United Nations Convention relating to the Status of Refugees celebrated its 50th anniversary Whilst its fundamental contribution to refugee protection is undisputed the Convention has come under sustained criticism in recent years founded on its alleged inability to address the complexities and challenges of the world of today Yet the need for international protection worldwide persists regardless of changes in the international community and the Convention remains the cornerstone of refugee protection In that context it is critical that the asylum policy of the European Union fully realises the right to seek refugee status that may be inferred from the Convention provisions To that end the author examines and measures EU and EC instruments and proposals for legislation on asylum against standards set out in international refugee and human rights law The author argues that the influence of the European Union and its Member States must not be undermined and that any departure from international standards carries the risk of undermining the right to seek refugee status and refugee protection as a whole within and beyond the borders of the European Union The communalisation of asylum operated by the Treaty of Amsterdam presents the European Union with the crucial challenge of remaining true to its humanitarian tradition and vision Book jacket Reluctant Hosts: Europe and Its Refugees Danièle Joly, Robin

Cohen,2024-02-02 Now reissued with a new Preface by Robin Cohen and Dani le Joly this book was originally published in 1989 at a time when the reality of a single European Community had begun to materialize the comfortable belief that many European countries offered havens for those fleeing persecution This belief was undermined as governments sought to cope with xenophobic and racist sentiments by their indigenous populations This book with contributions from social scientists policy makers and representatives from many European countries discusses the response of European governments to the increasing demands by asylum seekers refugees and exiles for admission settlement and protection issues which remain as pertinent today as when the book was originally published Haven or Hell? D. Joly,2016-07-14 This book brings together in a systematic manner three discrete areas of interest pertaining to refugees Asylum is explored through studies on the evolution of legal instruments in Europe the harmonisation process of European policies and the broader spectrum of factors underpinning decisions on asylum Reception and settlement of refugees are analysed through a comparative study of national programmes in France and Britain and in addition a survey of local authority policies A typology for refugees is developed and tested by a comparison between Chilean and Vietnamese associations in France and Britain Refugees in Europe Joly,Lynette Kelly,Clive Nettleton,1997 Asylum Determination in Europe Nick Gill,Anthony Good,2018-12-05 Drawing on new research material from ten European countries Asylum Determination in Europe Ethnographic Perspectives brings together a range of detailed accounts of the legal and bureaucratic processes by which asylum claims are decided The book includes a legal overview of European asylum determination procedures followed by sections on the diverse actors involved the means by which they communicate and the ways in which they make life and death decisions on a daily basis It offers a contextually rich account that moves beyond doctrinal law to uncover the gaps and variances between formal policy and legislation and law as actually practiced The contributors employ a variety of disciplinary perspectives sociological anthropological geographical and linguistic but are united in their use of an ethnographic methodological approach Through this lens the book captures the confusion improvisation inconsistency complexity and emotional turmoil inherent to the process of claiming asylum in Europe International Refugee Law H?ne Lambert,2017-07-05 The essays selected and reproduced in this volume explore how international refugee law is dynamic and constantly evolving From an instrument designed to protect mostly those civilians fleeing the worse excesses of World War II the 1951 Refugee Convention has developed into a set of principles customary rules and values that are now firmly embedded in the human rights framework and are applicable to a far broader range of refugees In addition international refugee law has been affected by international humanitarian law and international criminal law and vice versa Thus there is a reinforcing dynamic in the development of these complementary areas of law At the same time in recent decades states have shown a renewed interest in managing migration thereby raising issues of how to reconcile such interests with refugee protection principles In addition the emergence of concepts of participation and responsibility to protect promise to have an impact on international refugee law

Coping with Migrants and Refugees Tiziana Caponio,Irene Ponzo,2022-03-08 This book provides a comparative overview of asylum seekers reception throughout Europe by adopting a theoretical framework based on an analytical approach to the notion of multilevel governance MLG It challenges the tendency of the MLG literature to overlook political controversies and conflicts and questions the assumption that it represents the best policymaking arrangement for promoting policy convergence In doing so it explores the functioning of the reception component of the Common European Asylum System in centralised states and federal regional states and analyses its implementation at both national and local levels The book reveals the heterogeneous development of reception policies not only across Member States but also within each country where solutions adopted at the local level generally diverge substantially Furthermore the overall centralisation of policy making on reception regardless the institutional structure seems to leave little room for MLG arrangements tailored to specific localities and triggers tensions between central governments and local authorities This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of migration and asylum studies immigration multilevel global governance and more broadly to comparative politics European studies politics and public policy Chapter 3 Chapter 5 Chapter 6 Chapter 9 and Chapter 10 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
