Regional Economic Problems Comparative Experiences Of Some Market Economies Studies In Economics 13:

Regional Economic Problems Alfred John Brown, 1977

Routledge Library Editions: Economic Geography

Various, 2021-06-23 The books in this set originally published between 1968 and 1992 introduce the reader to the many lines of thought in the literature on economic geography and tie these various aspects together within the concept of the economy As well as providing a comprehensive overview of the Western European economy since the Second World War and including specific studies and assessments of the Dutch and Italian economies these volumes examine the economic factors that have shaped cities and patterns of urbanization An Introduction to Industrial Economics P.J. Devine, N. Lee, R.M.

Jones, W.J. Tyson, 2018-01-12 This updated and expanded 1985 edition of the classic 1974 work covers deindustrialisation industrial and competition policy the public enterprise sector regional and urban policy and privatisation as well as focussing on the firm and the industrial sector in all its facets It remains the key work on industrial economics The Value of

Applied Economics Kenneth Button, 2017-12-29 This biography of the applied English economist Arthur A J Brown an English economist from the late 1930s to the 1980s sets his work in the context of the Great Depression the emergence of Oxford University as a centre of applied economic research the contraction of British colonialism in Africa the enlarging of the UK university system the post war arms race the UK joining the Common Market and significant changes in the industrial structure of Britain Regions in Recession and Resurgence Michael Chisholm, 2015-03-27 The world economy has undergone rapid evolution in recent decades along with changes in the importance of industries and their organization and sharp changes in the fortunes of regions There are differences of opinion regarding the mainsprings of change and development and the role of governments in fostering national output In order to show the relevance of these changes to regional economies the book focuses on the different schools of economic thought from the neo classical through Keynesian to Marxist radical ideas and monetarist supply side thinking providing a brief description of their structure in non spatial terms The way these theories map into contrasting ideas regarding the mechanisms of regional economic growth is then explained The book concentrates on developed economies and explicitly seeks to confront theory with fact fact with theory Bringing together non spatial economic theory regional growth theory and relevant empirical data this book is intended for students in geography and regional economics but will also be of interest for those studying politics and government Key to Economic Science and Managerial Sciences, 1978 Semi monthly review with annual indexes of abstracts on economics finance trade industry foreign aid management marketing labour The Atlantic Community Antoni Kukliński, Krzysztof

Pawłowski, 2010 Regional Economic Problems A. J. Brown, E. M. Burrows, 2017-08-25 Originally published in 1977 This book provides the first concise non technical account of what the main kinds of regional problems are how they arise and the kinds of policy which have been used to tackle them in the UK USA and Western Europe The book starts with a discussion of why regional problems really are situations which call for special action followed by a short preliminary classification of problem regions including those in the less developed countries then on to a more detailed survey of the origins and experience of selected problem regions in the more developed market economies The authors focus on four broad kinds of problem region agricultural regions coal mining regions old textile regions and so called congested regions They conclude with a selective survey of regional policies in these more advanced economies distinguishing and comparing the main trends and the different national styles Economic Titles/abstracts ,1978-07 The Political Economy of Uneven Development Shaoguang Wang,Angang Hu,1999 Exploring one of the most dynamic and contested regions of the world this series includes works on political economic cultural and social changes in modern and contemporary Asia and the Pacific Economic Books ,1978 Macroeconomics John Evans-Pritchard,1985 Weekly Record ,1978 Selection of Recent Books Published in Great Britain1940-Apr. 1941 ,1978 British Book News ,1978 Library Bulletin Great Britain. Depts. of the Environments and Transport.
