Ron Martin, Peter Townroe

Regionalism Across The North South Divide:

Regionalism across the North/South Divide Jean Grugel, Wil Hout, 2003-12-16 In contrast to most studies of regionalism Grugel and Hout focus on countries not currently at the core of the global economy including Brazil and Mercosur Chile South East Asia China South Africa the Maghreb Turkey and Australia What seems clear from this original analysis is that far from being peripheral these countries are forming regional power blocs of their own which could go on to hold the balance of power in the new world order

The Limits of Regionalism Robert G. Finbow, 2017-11-28 Assessing the effectiveness of the North American Agreement on Labour Cooperation NAALC this book examines the operation of the core institutions the Secretariat and National Administrative Offices over the past seven years It discusses the main functions of these institutions in hearing public submissions on violations of labour laws and in conducting research and cooperative activities Based on interview research the analysis reviews the strengths and weaknesses of the accord to assess its contribution to a common labour relations regime in North America and its impact in creating new transnational communities of actors in government and civil society in the three countries The NAALC is also compared with the social dimension of the European Union system and a final assessment is made as to whether the NAALC institutions live up to the promises of their founders and whether these can be a model for labour relations in any future Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA agreement

New Regionalism in the Global Political Economy Shaun Breslin, Christopher W. Hughes, Nicola Phillips, Ben Rosamond, 2002-08-22 Featuring a notable list of international contributors this book presents a systematic and stimulating discussion on regionalism covering topical issues such as recent financial crises enlargement within EU and the post Lome regionalism of Africa

North-South Regional Trade Agreements as Legal Regimes Clair Gammage, 2017-05-26 This book offers a critical reflection of the North South regional trade agreements RTAs known as the Economic Partnership Agreements negotiated between the EU and the African Caribbean and Pacific countries Conceiving of regions as legal regimes Clair Gammage highlights the challenges facing developing countries when negotiating RTAs with developed countries and interrogates the assumption that these agreements will and can promote sustainable development through trade

Regionalism and Governance in the Americas L. Fawcett, M. Serrano, 2005-08-25 This book links contemporary thinking on global and regional governance to the recent experience of the Americas It offers fresh insights into understanding the processes of order and change in the region and in the broader international system A particular concern is to reveal the changing contours of regional governance whether in terms of actors issue areas and relations with global structures

Comparative Regionalism Fred H. Lawson, 2017-03-02 Regionalism has regained momentum in the post Cold War era New economic groupings continue to spring up across the globe while older regional organizations have strengthened their institutional bases and broadened their scope Explaining the reinvigoration of regionalism requires comparative analyses that not only highlight the commonalities that characterize various regional experiments but also account for the differential outcomes and divergent trajectories such projects exhibit This collection of seminal articles on regionalism advances theoretical concepts that can stimulate useful comparisons along with scholarly surveys of important instances of regionalism in the contemporary world Besides classic studies of the European Union the volume includes authoritative overviews and case studies of regionalist projects in East Asia Sub Saharan Africa Latin America the Middle East and Central Eurasia An introductory essay situates these articles in the context of the five decade long research program on regional integration theory

Writing the North of England in the Middle Ages Joseph Taylor,2022-12-22 Writing the North of England in the Middle Ages offers a literary history of the North South divide examining the complexities of the relationship imaginative material and political between North and South in a wide range of texts Through sustained analysis of the North South divide as it emerges in the literature of medieval England this study illustrates the convoluted dynamic of desire and derision of the North by the rest of country Joseph Taylor dissects England s problematic sense of nationhood as one which must be negotiated and renegotiated from within rather than beyond national borders Providing fresh readings of texts such as Chaucer s Canterbury Tales the fifteenth century Robin Hood ballads and the Towneley plays this book argues for the North s vital contribution to processes of imagining nation in the Middle Ages and shows that that regionalism is both contained within and constitutive of its apparent opposite nationalism

Geographies of England Alan R. H. Baker,Mark Billinge,2004-06-24 This is the pioneering exploration of the history of a fundamentally geographical concept the North South divide of England Six essays treating different historical periods in time are integrated by two geographical questions and a concludingessay reviews the social construction of England

Microregionalism and World Order S. Breslin,G. Hook,2016-01-19 Microregionalism and World Order is a pioneering work on the least understood aspect of regionalism Leading specialists analyze the form microregionalism takes in different parts of the world including the Americas Asia Pacific and Africa By illustrating the complex relationship amongst the political economic and social dimensions of microregionalism the book seeks to contribute to the theoretical debate on regionalism as well as to provide new empirical insights

Hunt,Noel M. Morada,2018-11-26 This book provides a detailed examination of how norms concerning human rights civilian protection and prevention of mass atrocities have fared in the regions of Southeast Asia and Africa Originated as a spin off of the journal GR2P vol 8 2 3 2016 it has been enriched with new chapters and revised contents which contrast the different experiences of those regions and investigates the expression of human protection norms in regional organisations and thematic policy agendas as well as the role of civil society mechanisms processes Hunt and Morada have brought together scholar practitioners from across the world The collection identifies a range of insights that provide rich opportunities for south south exchange and mutual learning when it comes to promoting and building capacity for human protection at the regional level Domestic and International Perspectives on Kyrgyzstan's 'Tulip Revolution' Sally Cummings,2013-09-13 In early 2005 regional protests in Kyrgyzstan soon became national ones as protesters seized control of the country's capital Bishkek The country's president for fifteen years Askar Akaev fled the country and after a night of extensive looting a new president Kurmanbek Bakiyev came to power The events quickly earned the epithet Tulip Revolution and were interpreted as the third of the colour revolutions in the post

Soviet space following Ukraine and Georgia But did the events in Kyrgyzstan amount to a revolution How much change followed and with what academic and policy implications This innovative unique study of these events brings together a new generation of Kyrgyz scholars together with established international observers to assess what happened in Kyrgyzstan and after and the wider implications This book was published as a special issue of Central Asian Survey Italian

Regionalism: Between Unitary Traditions and Federal Processes Stelio Mangiameli,2014-06-12 The object of this book is to describe the institutional modifications of the Italian form of state more than ten years after the review of Title V Part II of the Italian Constitution for an audience that goes well beyond the Italian national boundaries The fifteen essays that make up the book discuss the birth and evolution of the Italian regionalism including those regions with Special Statutes as well as reforms of 1999 2001 A particular attention is devoted to the role of autonomy in defining regional statutes regional forms of government and regulatory and administrative powers These are subjects on which there is by now an abundant body of constitutional case law which is extensively referred to by the chapters The role of the regions vis vis the local bodies and vis vis the European and international order is also discussed as the right to negotiate with foreign powers has now been conferred on the regions Lastly the volume presents contributions on regional finance and on the new law on fiscal federalism as well as on regional powers in the area of health and welfare Cities and Regions in Crisis Martin Jones,2019

This book offers a new geographical political economy approach to our understanding of regional and local economic development in Western Europe over the last twenty years It suggests that governance failure is occurring at a variety of spatial scales and an impedimenta state is emerging This is derived from the state responding to state intervention and economic development that has become irrational ambivalent and disoriented The book blends theoretical approaches to crisis and contradiction theory with empirical examples from cities and regions Globalising the Regional,

Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn,2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples The New Politics of Regionalism Ulf Engel,Heidrun Zinecker, Frank Mattheis,Antje Dietze,Thomas

Plötze,2016-10-04 This edited volume approaches regionalism as one potential pattern in a changing global order Since the end of the Cold War different forms of territorialization have emerged and we are confronted with an increasing number and variety of actors that are establishing regional projects This volume offers an innovative contribution to the study of this new complexity by exploring constellations of regional actors spatial scales and imaginations beyond state centred perspectives as well as on multiple often overlapping levels The chapters analyse the emergence trajectories and outcomes of regionalisms from the perspective of the Global South specifically concentrating on regional projects in Latin America and Africa but also in the Asia Pacific They attempt to identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions The volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world By expanding beyond the perspective of North South transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions This volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on Latin America and Africa
