Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid Shahab Ahmed,2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism

The United Nations Human Rights Council Rosa Freedman,2013 The United Nations Human Rights Council was created in 2006 to replace the UN Commission on Human Rights The Council s mandate and founding principles demonstrate that one of the main aims at its creation was for the Council to overcome the Commission s flaws Despite the need to avoid repeating its predecessor s failings the Council s form nature and many of its roles and functions are strikingly similar to those of the Commission This book examines the creation and formative years of the United Nations Human Rights Council and assesses the extent to which the Council has fulfilled its mandate International law and theories of international relations are used to examine the Council and its functions Council sessions procedures and mechanisms are analysed in depth with particular consideration given to whether the Council has become politicised to the same extent as the Commission Whilst remaining aware of the key differences in their functions Rosa Freedman compares the work of the Council to that of treaty based human rights bodies The author draws on observations from her attendance at Council proceedings in order to offer a unique account of how the body works in practice The United Nations Human Rights Council will be of great interest to students and scholars of human rights law and international relations as well as lawyers NGOs and relevant government agencies establishment objectives and principles The text then examines the Balkan Pact of 1953 1954 Belgium Luxembourg Economic Union Benelux Economic Union and boundary disputes between China and USSR The manuscript considers the boundary disputes in Latin America and Africa Council for Mutual Economic Assistance European Atomic Energy Community European Coal and Steel Community and the European Conference of Postal and Telecommunications Administrations The publication also takes a look at the Economic Community of West African States European Atomic Energy Community and the European Atomic Energy Society The book is a vital source of information for researchers interested in regional organizations cooperation and problems Regional Organisations and the Development of Collective Security Ademola Abass,2004-12

This book examines the development of collective security by regional organisations particularly after the Cold War It analyses the various constitutional developments that have occurred within regional arrangements such as ECOWAS African Union SADC OAS and NATO and critically analyses how these developments have propelled regional organisations to depart from the normative framework of regional arrangement contained in Chapter VIII of the UN Charter Through a comprehensive examination of practice the book evaluates the impact of regional organisations newly asserted powers to authorise enforcement action and determine when situations within member states warrant their intervention It inquires into the legal justifications for these developments both from within the UN Charter and regional treaties and practice and asks whether consensual intervention that is the use of force by regional organisations on the basis of their members consent contravenes or constitutes an exception to the prohibition of the use or threat of force under Article 2 4 of the Charter The book also analyses the regime of complementarity between the UN and regional organisations Constitutional Law and Regionalism Vito Breda,2018-09-28 This topical book analyses the practice of negotiating constitutional demands by regional and dispersed national minorities in eight multinational systems It considers the practices of cooperation and litigation between minority groups and central institutions in Australia Britain Canada New Zealand Italy Spain and the U S and includes an evaluation of the implications of the recent Catalan Puerto Rican and Scottish referenda Ultimately the author shows that a flexible constitution combined with a versatile constitutional jurisprudence tends to foster institutional cooperation and the recognition of the pluralistic nature of modern states Regional Security Rodrigo Tavares,2009-12-16

Regional organizations are an inescapable feature of global politics Virtually all countries in the world are members of at least one regional or other intergovernmental organization The involvement of international organizations in the realm of regional peace and security and their cooperation in this domain with the United Nations has reached an unprecedented level Regional organizations have traditionally been formed around economic political or environmental objectives however over the last decades these organizations have gradually penetrated into the security sphere and developed their capacities in conflict prevention peacekeeping or post war reconstruction In Europe Africa Asia or the Americas regional and other intergovernmental organizations have been concurrently empowered by the UN and their own member states to maintain peace and security Despite suffering from important discrepancies in both their mandates and capacities regional organizations have become indisputable actors that play a role from the outbreak of a crisis to the reconstruction efforts in the aftermath of a conflict Presenting the most up to date critical and comparative analysis of the major regional security institutions assessing a wide range of regional organizations and providing an accessible and comprehensive guide to 11 key organizations this book is the first systematic study of the capacities of the most recognized intergovernmental organizations with a security mandate Regional Security is essential reading for all students of international organizations peace and security studies and global governance The Spirit of Uppsala Atle Grahl-Madsen, Jiri Toman, 2019-06-04 No detailed description available for The Spirit of Uppsala
