Forming the Mind Henrik Lagerlund,2007-07-20 This book deals with the internal senses the mind body problem and other problems associated with the concept of mind as it developed from Avicenna to the medical Enlightenment The book collects essays from scholars in this promising field of research It brings together scholars working on the same issues in the Arabic Jewish and Western philosophical traditions This collection opens up new and interesting perspectives

The Sinister Side James Hall,2008-10-23 The Sinister Side reveals a hidden symbolic language in the visual arts that of the perceived differences between the left and right sides of the body Long forgotten or misunderstood it is a symbolism that has been interpreted by artists differently through the centuries and that sheds new light on some of our greatest works of art

Food Culture in Italy Fabio Parasecoli,2004-10-30 There is keen interest in the exquisite yet simple Italian cuisine and Italian culture This volume provides an intimate look at how Italians cook eat and think about food today It describes the cornucopia of foodstuffs and classic ingredients An overview of the typical daily routine of meals and snacks gives a good feel for the everyday life The changing roles of women are explored with a discussion of the inroads that convenience foods are making In addition the current concerns about the food supply the benefits of the Mediterranean diet and the slow food movement are tied in to the debates on these issues in the United States Food is one of the main reasons why many Americans travel to Italy Yet the fascination with Italian cuisine is not all about health or taste There is much more to it Italian food is perceived and portrayed in the media as representing a whole lifestyle Italians live la dolce vita leisurely eating and drinking with friends and families families are still important and communities are close knit The reality of Italian society is more complex and this volume offers a balanced view of Italian culture and identity through its foodways

Perceval and Gawain in Dark Mirrors Rupert T. Pickens,2014-10-27 An innovative author of verse romance Chretien de Troyes wrote in northern France between 1170 and 1190 Credited with the first Arthurian romance he composed five works set in King Arthur s court culminating with an unfinished masterpiece the Conte del Graal Story of the Grail This text is the first to mention the banquet serving dish that became the Holy Grail in early efforts to rewrite or complete the text This book focuses on the Conte s narrative depiction of mirrors real and metaphorical shining armor a polished golden eagle the Grail itself St Paul s enigmatic looking glass the blood drops in snow in which Perceval sees the face of his beloved The last chapter joins the controversy over Chretien s intended conclusion and proposes a climactic ending in which Perceval heir to the Grail kingdom confronts his double Gawain heir to Arthur s Logres
