Reign Of The Emperor Francis Joseph 1848:

The Reign of the Emperor Francis Joseph, 1848-1916 Karl Tschuppik,1930 The reign of the emperor francis joseph, 1848-1916 translated by c.j.s. sprigge Karl Tschuppik,1930 Emperor Francis Joseph John Kiste,2005-05-19 In 1848 28 year old Francis Joseph became King of Hungary and Emperor of Austria He would reign for almost 68 years the longest of any modern European monarch Focusing on the life of Emperor Francis Joseph and his family this book examines their personal relationships against the turbulent background of the 19th century State-Making in an Age of Revolution, 1830-1880 Christos Aliprantis,Anna Ross,2025-07-02 How did states expand in the mid nineteenth century While scholars now associate the period after the 1848 revolutions with a striking increase in state activity few have demonstrated how new state building measures were put into practice From France to Hungary and Scandinavia to Spain State Making in An Age of Revolution shows how officials went about implementing reform With original contributions grounded in extensive archival research this volume casts light on the scale at which officials relied on elites professionals and technical experts both inside and outside of government and even from outside their own states to carry out their expanding work Together these findings help us to re think the reach and nature of growing states during these pivotal decades of change The New International Encyclopaedia ,1905 The Invention of Tradition Eric Hobsbawm,Terence Ranger,2012-03-26 Many of the traditions which we think of as very ancient in their origins were not in fact sanctioned by long usage over the centuries but were invented comparatively recently This book explores examples of this process of invention the creation of Welsh and Scottish national culture the elaboration of British royal rituals in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the origins of imperial rituals in British India and Africa and the attempts by radical movements to develop counter traditions of their own It addresses the complex interaction of past and present bringing together historians and anthropologists in a fascinating study of ritual and symbolism which poses new questions for the understanding of our history Albania's Mountain Queen Marcus Tanner,2014-04-21 Whilst young ladies in the Victorian and Edwardian eras were expected to have many creative accomplishments they were not expected to travel unaccompanied and certainly not to the remote corners of Southeast Europe then part of the crumbling Ottoman Empire But Edith Durham was no ordinary lady In 1900 at the age of 37 Durham set sail for the Balkans for the first time Her trip was intended as a means of recovering from a period of ill health and as a break from the stifling monotony of caring for her ailing mother Her experiences on this trip were to change the course of her life kindling a profound love for the region which saw her return frequently in the following decades She became a confidante of the King of Montenegro ran a hospital in Macedonia and following the outbreak of the First Balkan War in 1912 became one of the world s first female war correspondents Back in England she was renowned as an expert on the region writing the highly successful book High Albania and along with other aficionados such as the MP Aubrey Herbert becoming an advocate for the people of the Balkans in British political life and society King Zog of Albania once said that before

Durham visited the Balkans Albania was but a geographical expression By the time she left he added her championship of his compatriots desire for freedom had helped add a new state to the map Durham was tremendously popular in the region itself earning her the affectionate title Queen of the Mountains and an enduring legacy which continues unabated until this day Yet she has been all but forgotten in the country of her birth Marcus Tanner here tells the fascinating story of Durham s relationship with the Balkans painting a vivid portrait of a remarkable and sometimes formidable woman who was several decades ahead of her time
