Rejecting the New Millenium Don A. Hoyt, 1999      Tradition and the Poetics of Self in Nineteenth-Century Women's Poetry, 2021-11-01 Tradition and how far writers fit into or diverge from the demands of tradition is one of the most debated issues in literary discussion Gender however is not often part of discussions which depend on such questions at the decisiveness of the Modernist break with the Victorian period or whether Postmodernism makes tradition meaningless By contrast the very existence of a specifically female tradition is still an urgent subject of debate and it is clear that many nineteenth century women writers were troubled in their search for literary foremothers This autobiographical impetus can be located in the work of each of the poets discussed in Tradition and the Poetics of Self Nineteenth Century Women s Poetry Elizabeth Barrett Browning Caroline Bowles Southey Emily Dickinson and Christina Rossetti An exploration of the self either in the abstract or in a more closely personal sense appears in a concern with the craft of poetry and the role of the poet in a teasing out of language as a marker of a personal encounter with the world in an adventurous play with genre and a rewriting of myth and in a bold confrontation with received notions of a woman s place Adventurousness marks the work of each of these poets and is a central focus of these essays      Humor, Empathy, and Community in Twentieth-Century American Poetry Rachel Trousdale, 2021 Studies how American poets of the last hundred years have used laughter to promote recognition of shared humanity across difference      The Dangers of Poetry Kevin M. Jones, 2020-09-01 Poetry has long dominated the cultural landscape of modern Iraq simultaneously representing the literary pinnacle of high culture and giving voice to the popular discourses of mass culture As the favored genre of culture expression for religious clerics nationalist politicians leftist dissidents and avant garde intellectuals poetry critically shaped the social political and cultural debates that consumed the Iraqi public sphere in the twentieth century The popularity of poetry in modern Iraq however made it a dangerous practice that carried serious political consequences and grave risks to dissident poets The Dangers of Poetry is the first book to narrate the social history of poetry in the modern Middle East Moving beyond the analysis of poems as literary and intellectual texts Kevin M Jones shows how poems functioned as social acts that critically shaped the cultural politics of revolutionary Iraq He narrates the history of three generations of Iraqi poets who navigated the fraught relationship between culture and politics in pursuit of their own ambitions and agendas Through this historical analysis of thousands of poems published in newspapers recited in popular demonstrations and disseminated in secret whispers this book reveals the overlooked contribution of these poets to the spirit of rebellion in modern Iraq      American Poetry since 1945 Eleanor Spencer-Regan, 2017-09-16 This book features a collection of essays on some of the key poets of post war America written by leading scholars in the field All the essays have been newly commissioned to take account of the diverse movements in American poetry since 1945 and also to reflect retrospectively on some of the major talents that have shaped its development In the aftermath of the Second World War American poets took stock of their own tumultuous past but faced the future with radically new artistic ideals and commitments More than ever before American poetry spoke with its own distinctive accents and declared its own dreams and desires This is the era of confessionalism beat poetry protest poetry and avant garde postmodernism This book explores the work of John Berryman Robert Lowell Elizabeth Bishop Adrienne Rich and Sylvia Plath as well as contemporary African American poets and new poetic voices emerging in the 21st century This New Casebook introduces the major American poets of the post war generation evaluates their achievements in the light of changing critical opinion and offers lively incisive readings of some of the most challenging and enthralling poetry of the modern era

New Millennium Writings Madison Smartt Bell, Allen Wier, David Hunter, Don Williams, Lisa Coffman, 1996-04 A twice annual journal filled with vibrant imagery word craft and pure story telling talent The Utopian Moment in Contemporary American Poetry Norman Finkelstein, 1993 This second edition includes all of the material from the first in depth analyses of the work of such poets as George Oppen John Ashbery Robert Duncan and William Bronk as well as a new Preface and a lengthy chapter on the younger language poets

The Cambridge Companion to Twenty-First-Century American Poetry Timothy Yu, 2021-03-11 A new poetic century demands a new set of approaches This Companion shows that American poetry of the twenty first century while having important continuities with the poetry of the previous century takes place in new modes and contexts that require new critical paradigms Offering a comprehensive introduction to studying the poetry of the new century this collection highlights the new multiple centers of gravity that characterize American poetry today Essays on African American Asian American Latinx and Indigenous poetries respond to the centrality of issues of race and indigeneity in contemporary American discourse Other essays explore poetry and feminism poetry and disability and queer poetics The environment capitalism and war emerge as poetic preoccupations alongside a range of styles from spoken word to the avant garde and an examination of poetry's place in the creative writing era

The Clerk of Oxford in Fiction Samuel Fletcher Hulton, 1909 Dublin University Magazine ,1834 University Magazine ,1834 The Dublin University Magazine ,1834

Churchyard Poetics James Metcalf, 2025-01-12 The familiar literary critical category of graveyard poetry has made the eighteenth century churchyard a commonplace in the period's cultural imaginary a location in which melancholy religious poets get lost in imaginative reveries or didactic visions of the afterlife By contrast Churchyard Poetics Landscape Labour and the Legacy of Genre shows how the churchyard takes on a new shape and a fresh importance for a counter tradition of women and labouring class poets for whom this landscape is a resting place with no closure In work by Mary Leapor Ann Yearsley Charlotte Smith and John Clare but also for Robert Blair Thomas Gray and William Wordsworth the churchyard emerges as a contested space of social life through a shared focus on the body as the instrument of labour Churchyard Poetics focuses on how these poets use genres like georgic pastoral topographical poetry and elegy to locate the churchyard in a broader terrain of laborious life disarranged in the press towards industrial capitalism Managing the material of their violently reordered world through genre and other aesthetic strategies these poets articulate the pressures on working bodies and the associated structures of feeling attendant on the experience of history at its sharpest edge The poems examined in Churchyard Poetics thus strain against without resolving the ideal the churchyard is made to express that collective life is reassuringly organised around places of burial and remembrance Declining continuity or consolation the poets at the centre of this book refigure the churchyard as a traumatised landscape and unearth from its wounded ground an affective archive of social injury of bodies compelled into service by new regimes of labour and dispatched to the churchyard when their usefulness runs out

Poole's Index to Periodical Literature: pt. 1. A-J, 1802-1881 William Frederick Poole, William Isaac Fletcher, 1882

Cultural Authority in the Age of Whitman Gunter Leypoldt, 2019-08-05 Cultural Authority in the Age of Whitman deals with narratives of cultural legitimation in nineteenth century US literature in a transatlantic context Exploring how literary professionalism shapes romantic and modern cultural space Leypoldt traces the nineteenth century fusion of poetic radicalism with cultural nationalism from its beginnings in transatlantic early romanticism to the poetry and poetics of Walt Whitman and Whitman's modernist reinvention as an icon of a native avant garde Whitman made cultural nationalism compatible with the rhetorical needs of professional authorship by trying to hold national authenticity and literary authority in a single poetic vision Yet the notion that his language experiment transformed essential democratic experience into a genuine American aesthetics also owes much to Whitman's retrospective canonization What Leypoldt calls Whitmanian authority is thus a transatlantic and transhistorical discursive construct that can be approached from four angles this book begins with an overview of transatlantic contexts such as the 19th century literary field Bourdieu and the romantic turn to expressivism Taylor a detailed analysis of how Whitman's positions develop from the intellectual habitus and cultural criticism of Ralph Waldo Emerson follows and in a third section Whitmanian authority is located within three conceptual fields that function as contact zones for European and American theories of culture romantic notions of national style as a kind of music place centered concepts of national aesthetics and traditional ideas about the aesthetic effects of democratic institutions The final section on Whitman's reinvention between the 1870s and the 1940s discusses how the heterogeneous nineteenth century perceptions of Whitman's work were streamlined into a modernist version of Whitman's nationalist program

A CRITICAL BIOGRAPHY OF MU DAN (ZHA LIANGZHENG) Wang

Hongyin, 2022-08-09 Zha Liangzheng 1918 1977 better known by his pen name Mu Dan was a Chinese poet laureate and remarkable translator Via mutual attesting of poems and history and with a multitude of letters reminiscent documents and poems A Critical Biography of Mu Dan Zha Liangzheng A Poet and a Translator genuinely represents the life of Mu Dan known as a member of Jiuye School against macroscopic academic view and broad historical backgrounds The school of poetry marks the maturity of Chinese modernist literature and indicates the peak of the development of new poetry in China The book reviews the glorious achievements of Mu Dan's new poetry writings confirms his contributions to Chinese translations of Russian poems and British romanticism poems as well as modernist poems Moreover the author spares no efforts to delineate numerous noticeable colonies of Chinese poets and historical figures such as Mao Zedong Zhou Enlai Yu Youren and Sun Liren In the monograph the diachronic and synchronic descriptions are both elaborate and unambiguous and the historical narratives are both sincere and magnificent Together with abundant and subtle emotional expressions A Critical Biography of Mu Dan Zha Liangzheng A Poet and a Translator is an artistic and academic biographic monograph

The Retrospective Review (1820-1828) and the Revival of Seventeenth Century Poetry Jane Campbell,2006-01-01

This essay had its beginning in an investigation of changing attitudes to seventeenth century Pre Restoration poetry during the English Romantic period In the course of that research Jane Campbell discovered that a relatively little known periodical the Retrospective Review which was published in London from 1820 to 1828 appeared to have played an interesting part in the rehabilitation of the poets of the earlier period This book then is an attempt to outline the history of this review to place it against its literary background and to assess its role in the critical re evaluation of the poets of the earlier seventeenth century an age to which the Retrospective s contributors and their contemporaries looked with fascination as well as with an affectionate feeling of kinship

Introduction to the Literature of Europe in the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Centuries by Henry Hallam ,1837      Studies in French Poetry of the Fifteenth Century C.S.

Shapley,2012-12-06 My purpose in these studies is to example a careful reading of the too easily despised too hastily evaluated and too frequently misunderstood poetry of the French fifteenth century I have begun at the tum of the century with three of the more substantial writers of the first generation Nesson Char tier Taillevent and while I have in each case read the poet s entire work I have tried to concentrate my efforts on the single poem which seemed his most substantial in terms of the number and importance of the concerns which animate it the vigor and complexity of his response and the expres sive richness of the poem as a whole I have tried in each instance to say only what seemed most relevant and essential not with respect to any preconceived system but by allowing the categories of my treatment to arise out of a full and extended response to the work itself When one interrogates a poem in terms of pre established categories one is all too apt to find what one is seeking and to find only that

Tennyson and Mid-Victorian Publishing Jim Cheshire,2017-02-17 This book examines how Tennyson s career was mediated organised and directed by the publishing industry Founded on neglected archival material it examines the scale and distribution of Tennyson s book sales in Britain and America the commercial logic of publishing poetry and how illustrated gift books and visual culture both promoted and interrogated the Poet Laureate and his life Major publishers had become disillusioned with poetry by the time that Edward Moxon founded his business in 1830 but by the mid 1860s his firm presided over a resurgence in poetry based on Tennyson s work Moxon not only orchestrated Tennyson s rise to fame but was a major influence on how the Victorian public experienced the poetry of the Romantic period This study reevaluates his crucial role and examines how he repackaged poetry for the Victorian public
