Relating Consumer, Descriptive, and Laboratory Data to Better Understand Consumer Responses , Sensory Evaluation Techniques Gail Vance Civille, B. Thomas Carr, 2015-11-04 This new edition of a bestseller covers all phases of performing sensory evaluation studies from listing the steps involved in a sensory evaluation project to presenting advanced statistical methods Like its predecessors Sensory Evaluation Techniques Fifth Edition gives a clear and concise presentation of practical solutions accepted methods Sensory Evaluation Techniques, Fourth Edition Morten C. Meilgaard, B. Thomas Carr, Gail Vance Civille, 2006-12-13 From listing the steps involved in a sensory evaluation project to presenting advanced statistical methods Sensory Evaluation Techniques Fourth Edition covers all phases of sensory evaluation Like its bestselling predecessors this edition continues to detail all sensory tests currently in use to promote the effective employment of these tests and to describe major sensory evaluation practices The expert authors have updated and added many areas in this informative guide New to this edition are expanded chapters on qualitative and quantitative consumer research and the Spectrum™ method of descriptive sensory analysis that now contains full descriptive lexicons for numerous products such as cheese mayonnaise spaghetti sauce white bread cookies and toothpaste Also new in this chapter is a set of revised flavor intensity scales for crispness juiciness and some common aromatics The book now includes an overview of Thurstonian scaling that examines the decision processes employed by assessors during their evaluations of products Another addition is a detailed discussion of data relationship techniques which link data from diverse sources that are collected on the same set of examples With numerous examples and sample tests Sensory Evaluation Techniques Fourth Edition remains an essential resource that illustrates the development of sensory perception testing Sensory Evaluation of Food Harry T. Lawless, Hildegard Heymann, 2013-12-11 The field of sensory evaluation has matured in the last half century to become a recognized discipline in the food and consumer sciences and an important part of the foods and consumer products industries Sensory professionals enjoy widespread recognition for the important services they provide in new product development basic research ingredient and process modification cost reduction quality maintenance and product optimization These services enhance the informational support for management decisions lowering the risk that accompanies the decision making process From the consumers perspective a sensory testing program in a food or consumer products company helps ensure that products reach the market with not only good concepts but also with desirable sensory attributes that meet their expectations Sensory professionals have advanced well beyond the stage when they were simply called on to execute taste tests and to provide statistical summaries of results They are now frequently asked to participate in the decision process itself to draw reasoned conclusions based on data and to make recommendations They are also expected to be well versed in an increasingly sophisticated battery of test methods and statistical procedures including multivariate analyses As always sensory professionals also need to understand people for people are the measuring instruments that provide the basic sensory data People are notoriously variable and difficult to calibrate presenting the sensory specialist with many additional measurement problems that are not present in instrumental methods

Sensory and Consumer Research in Food Product Design and Development Howard R. Moskowitz, Jacqueline H. Beckley, Anna V. A. Resurreccion, 2012-04-03 During the past thirty years companies have recognized the consumer as the key driver for business and product success This recognition has in turn generated its own drivers sensory analysis and marketing research leading first to a culture promoting the expert and then evolving into the systematic acquisition of consumer relevant information to build businesses Sensory and Consumer Research in Food Product Design and Development is the first book to present from the business viewpoint the critical issues faced by business leaders from both the research development and business development perspective This popular volume now in an updated and expanded second edition presents a unique perspective afforded by the author team of Moskowitz Beckley and Resurreccion three leading practitioners in the field who each possess both academic and business acumen Newcomers to the field will be introduced to systematic experimentation at the very early stages to newly emerging methods for data acquisition knowledge development and to points of view employed by successful food and beverage companies The advanced reader will find new ideas backed up by illustrative case histories to provide another perspective on commonly encountered problems and their practical solutions This book is aimed at professionals in all sectors of the food and beverage industry Sensory and Consumer Research in Food Product Design and Development is especially important for those business and research professionals involved in the early stages of product development where business opportunity is often the greatest
