Relatives A Novel:

The Relatives Camilla Gibb, 2023-01-31 From the renowned author of Sweetness in the Belly The Beauty of Humanity Movement and This Is Happy comes a bold urgent and richly imagined novel about what it means to be a family in our modern world Lila is on a long painful journey toward motherhood Tess and Emily are reeling after their ugly separation and fighting over ownership of the embryos that were supposed to grow their family together And thousands of miles away the unknown man who served as anonymous donor to them all is being held in captivity in Somalia While his life remains in precarious balance his genetic material is a source of both creation and conflict What does it mean to be a family in our rapidly shifting world What are our responsibilities to each other with increasing options for how to create a family As these characters grapple with life altering changes they will find themselves interconnected in ways they cannot have imagined and forced to redefine what family means to them The Family Novel in Russia and England, 1800-1880 Anna A. Berman, 2022 An in depth comparative analysis of the family novel as it developed as a genre in Russia and England during the course of the nineteenth century The Cinema of István Szabó John Cunningham, 2014-08-26 István Szabó is one of Hungary's most celebrated and best known film directors and the only Hungarian to have won an Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film for Mephisto 1981 In a career spanning over five decades Szabó has relentlessly examined the place of the individual in European history particularly those caught up in the turbulent events of Central Europe and his own native Hungary His protagonists struggle to find a place for themselves some meaning in their lives security and a sense of being against a background of two world wars Colonel Redl Confidence the Holocaust Sunshine the Hungarian Uprising and the Cold War Father 25 Fireman's Street Taking Sides This is the first English language study of all his feature films and uses material from interviews with Szabó and his collaborators Also included are chapters on his formative years including his time at the famous Budapest Film Academy and the relationship of the state to the film industry in Hungary Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey, 1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b/w illustrations Fiction's Family Ellen Widmer, 2020-10-26 At the end of the Qing dynasty works of fiction by male authors placed women in new roles Fiction's Family delves into the writings of one literary family from western Zhejiang whose works were emblematic of shifting attitudes toward women The mother Wang Qingdi and the father Zhan Sizeng published their poems during the second half of the nineteenth century Two of their four sons Zhan Xi and Zhan Kai wrote novels that promoted reforms in women's lives This book explores the intergenerational link as well as relations between the sons to find out how the conflicts faced by the parents may have been refigured in the novels of their sons Its central question is about the brothers' reformist attitudes Were they based on the pronouncements of political leaders Were they the result of trends in Shanghai publishing Or did they derive from Wang Qingdi s disappointment in her companionate marriage as manifested in her poems By placing one family at the center of this study Ellen Widmer illuminates the diachronic bridge between the late Qing and the period just before it the synchronic interplay of genres during the brothers lifetimes and the interaction of Shanghai publishing with regions outside Shanghai The Short Story Ian Reid,2017-07-20 First published in 1977 this book examines the short story which is one of the most widely read of all modern genres The study begins by examining some preliminary problems of definition before going on to trace the emergence of what is usually meant by the modern short story and examine the various kinds of narrative from which it derives such as the sketch the yarn M rchen parable and fable The final chapter considers the possibility that there are certain structural properties belonging distinctively to the short story This book will be of interest to those studying literature and creative writing

The Ties That Bind Sara E. Cooper, 2004-04-30 The Ties That Bind comprises the first collection of critical essays that explore the family system in Spanish and Latin American culture This thought provoking volume addresses the intersection of language narrative structure social reality and family dynamics through examples from a diverse range of literary works including Cervantes Don Quixote Reinaldo Arenas Celestino antes del alba and the Chicano film My Family Mi Familia Issues of feminism gender and sexuality abuse trauma and communication take the forefront in this ground breaking book which takes psychological literary criticism a step beyond traditional psychoanalytical approaches

Family Constellations in Contemporary Ibero-American and Slavic Literatures Anna Artwińska, Ángela Calderón, Jobst Welge, 2024-10-07 This volume examines Ibero American as well as Slavic literatures of the 21st century and studies how historical imaginaries in family narratives are functionalized for both individual and collective and post national identities The analysis proceeds along three conceptual axes What these narratives have in common is that they construct specific constellations of the historical imagination and of family whereby family is here conceived not so much as an organic micro unity but rather as changing multiple relations between individual members godparents first and second degree relatives non blood related family members present and absent members adopted children etc Furthermore these novels are often grounded in trans generational memories They are written by members of a generation that as a rule did not directly experience these historical events It is also significant that these narratives are no longer conceived as representing national identities but paradigmatically speak for a collective that defines itself in regional ethnic religious or ideological terms It seems therefore that these narratives of family constellations are in need of more flexible typological rubrics and interpretive frameworks Intended as a sustained comparative study of these family narratives this volume is a contribution in understanding how historical caesura experiences and their literary representation work on the self understanding of the present

Queer Kinship in Sarah Schulman's AIDS Novels

Jarosław Milewski,2024-02-29 Queer Kinship in Sarah Schulman's AIDS Novels is the first book to extensively discuss the works of Sarah Schulman a journalist activist and globally recognized novelist This research monograph juxtaposes the works about the AIDS epidemic which were well received by the mainstream America with Schulman's own output as a bard of AIDS burnout in the words of Edmund White In contrast with the prevailing representations of the epidemic her works emphasize the importance of queer kinship chosen families and AIDS activist groups that fall outside of the heteronorm Bearing witness to these voluntary collectivities means also surviving the traumatizing experience of ongoing repeated death and refusing the idea of an easy solution to the crisis The monograph tracks the tension between the dominant narratives about the epidemic and those articulated from the excluded positions arguing that Schulman reformulates queer kinship as the locus of social change
