The Politics of Religion and the Religion of Politics Ira

Sharkansky,2000-01-01 Prominent political theorist Ira Sharkansky looks at the intersection of religion and politics using the case of Israel where a chief rabbi officiates along with a prime minister to examine how the two inform each other Focusing more on similarities than differences Sharkansky demonstrates that both religion and politics can justify their position on the moral high ground Both are involved in shaping our values and standard of living however neither religion nor politics can claim a monopoly of virtue Political demagogues have their religious equivalents in self serving prophets and false messiahs and politicians and religious leaders both may violate the morality that they preach Sharkansky examines the place of intellectual certainty doubt charisma and passion in both realms He argues that Israel among other Western democracies where politics and religion intersect supports a successful fusion of the two

Religion and the Christian Faith Hendrik Kraemer, 2003-06 A rich and profound contribution to the debate on the position of modern Christianity opened up Kraemer's The Christian Message in a Non-Christian World In Religion and the Christian Faith he deals with many of the criticisms of his position and offers an apologia at once luminous and massive of the Christian religion as the revelation of God to Man and the faith for all mankind There is a decisive Christian finality about Kraemer's writing and his book is a significant contribution to the sharp discipline of faith and action under which the universal Christian community lives All the way through his formidably marshalled arguments run the undertones of Christian involvement in a real world a world which by his astonishing grasp of philosophy Biblical theology and the claims of religion and religions the Author brings alive to the reader The reading of this formative book with its strenuous demands on the reader's intelligence and Christian understanding is a rewarding experience Its significance for the Christian Church throughout the world is obvious but it is also a monumental witness to the Christian religion for all those who ask not only for a faith once delivered but a faith to believe in their own day and generation
