Life, Rituals and Practice

The Sacrament of Reconciliation, also known as Penance or Confession, is one of the 7 Sacraments of the Catholic Church in which a person confesses their sins to a priest and receives absolution for those sins. It is a Sacrament of Healing and should be done at least once a year.

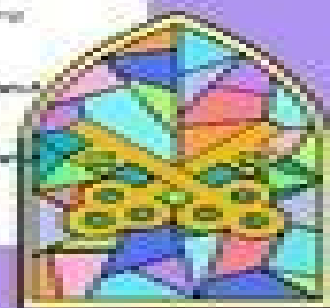

The origin of the sacrament of Reconciliation can be traced back to the early Christian communities where the practice of confessing sins to a bishop or elder and receiving absolution was common. This practice is rooted in the teachings of Jesus Christ as found in the New Testament of the Bible.

Catechism of the Catholic Church references the biblical foundation of the sacrament in the following way:

- Jesus Christ, in his teaching and actions, forgave sins and entrusted the power to forgive sins to his apostles (cf. Jn 20:21-23, Mt 18:18, 20:23).
- In the early Christian communities, the faithful would confess their sins to a bishop or elder who would grant absolution and assign a penance (cf. James 5:16, 1 John 1:9).
- Through the development of the sacrament of Reconciliation, the Church formalized this practice with the Council of Trent (1545-1563) defining the specific form and matter of the sacrament.

In the scriptures, Jesus Christ himself gave the authority to forgive sins to his disciples:

- In John 20:21-23, Jesus breathed on them and said to them, "Whosoever you forgive on earth, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."
- In Matthew 18:18, Jesus said, "whosoever you bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven, and whatsoever you loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven."
- In Matthew 18:20, Jesus said, "whosoever you bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven, and whatsoever you loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven."
