Nuggets Of The African Novel:

Nuggets of the African Novel K-Moses Nagbe, 2005-09-08 In Nuggets of the African Novel With Notes on the Liberian Literary Heritage Nagbe charts a critical course which seeks to consolidate a unit approach to African literature reinforcing one continental mind and soul He has summarized nearly thirty African novels in Nuggets The summaries are rich The comments are insightful They contain very many topics that will possibly evoke or sustain interest in the novels themselves and interest in seeing literature as an irresistible shadow of history Even so on the pages the reader will understand that because all literature tells the human story all literature speaks a universal language The notes on the Liberian component of African literature are revealing Only a few of Nagbe's compatriots can boast of the insight which he brings to the subject of the ironies and forces that have impacted the progress of imaginative writing in Liberia a modern nation state established by repatriated African Americans Even so the three phases of national struggle which Nagbe constantly refers to in the Notes as intra national struggle is poignant Here lies an important testimony of the biting pain which the politics of long suffering can inflict on a nation It is an implicit testimony of the attributes of the mental ailment which with insidious and protracted attack decimates a person or a group of people In a larger sense the Liberian story is the story of Africa and her scars from cultural misinformation and confusion and what needs to be done in the new millennium

Studies in the African Novel Samuel O. Asein, Albert Olu Ashaolu, 1986

The Scum of the Earth K-Moses Nagbe, 2018-03 The Scum of the Earth provides some context to results of Liberia's Election 2017 Here Dr K Moses Nagbe sheds light on how empathy and genuine mutual respect can transform lives of ordinary people and provide professionals and technocrats the type of deference they need to help drive growth and development in society

The African Novel Stephen Kofi Okleme, 2005

The African Palimpsest Chantal J. Zabus, 2007 Uniting a sense of the political dimensions of language appropriation with a serious yet accessible linguistic terminology The African Palimpsest examines the strategies of indigenization whereby West African writers have made their literary English or French distinctively African Through the apt metaphor of the palimpsest a surface that has been written on written over partially erased and written over again the book examines such well known West African writers as Achebe Armah Ekwensi Kourouma Okara Saro Wiwa Soyinka and Tutuola as well as lesser known writers from francophone and anglophone Africa Providing a great variety of case studies in Nigerian Pidgin Akan Igbo Maninka Yoruba Wolof and other African languages the book also clarifies the vital interface between Europhone African writing and the new outlets for African artistic expression in auto translation broadcast television radio and film Hailed as a classic in the 1990s The African Palimpsest is here reprinted in a completely revised edition with a new Introduction updated data and bibliography and with due consideration of more recent theoretical approaches A very valuable book a detailed exploration in its concern with language change as demonstrated in post colonial African literatures Bill Ashcroft University of New South Wales Apart from its great documentary value The African Palimpsest provides many theoretical concepts that will be useful to scholars of African literatures linguists in general as well as comparatists who want to gain fresh insights into the processes by which Vulgar Latin once gave birth to the Romance languages Ahmed Sheikh Bangura University of California Santa Barbara As Zabrus book suggests it is the area where the various languages of a community meet and cross over that is likely to provide the most productive site for the generation of a new literature that is true to the real linguistic situation that pertains in so much of contemporary urban Africa Stewart Brown University of Birmingham African Literature in French Dorothy S. Blair, 1976-11-18 This 1976 book provides both a historical survey and a critical analysis of the literature in French from West and Equatorial Africa Professor Blair begins by discussing the social educational and political influences which led to the formation of the Negritude movement and to a flowering of French African creative writing This historical approach is then complemented by a study of the different literary genres She traces the evolution of the first manifestations of literary activity in French by African writers the written folk tale fable and short story from the oral tradition of the indigenous culture and the eventual appearance of the novel with a legendary or historical theme The origins of French African drama are considered for the first time and the work of the minor poets analysed Finally Professor Blair attempts a definition of the French African novel and studies examples from three major periods from the 1930s onwards Tradition and Change in Contemporary West and East African Fiction Ogaga Okuyade, 2014-08-15 The essays in this volume capture the exciting energy of the emergent novel in East and West Africa drawing on different theoretical insights to offer fresh and engaging perspectives on what has been variously termed the new wave emergent generation and third generation Subjects addressed include the politics of identity especially when re constructed outside the homeland or when African indigenous values are eroded by globalization transnationalism and the exilic condition or the self undergoes fragmentation Other essays examine once taboo concerns including gendered accounts of same sex sexualities Most of the essays deal with shifting perceptions by African women of their social condition in patriarchy in relation to such issues as polygamy adultery male domination and the woman's quest for fulfilment and respect through access to quality education and full economic and socio political participation Themes taken up by other novels examined include the sexual exploitation of women and criminality generally and the exposure of children to violence Likewise examined is the contemporary textualizing of orality the trickster figure Writers discussed include Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Okey Ndibe Helon Habila Ike Oguine Chris Abani Tanure Ojaide Maik Nwosu Unoma Azuah Jude Dibia Lola Shoneyin Mary Karooro Okurut Violet Barungi Adaobi Tricia Nwaubani Abidemi Sanusi Akachi Ezeigbo Sefi Atta Kaine Agary Kojo Laing Ahmadou Kourouma Uwen Akpan and Alobwed Epie Ogaga Okuyade teaches popular folk culture African literature and culture African American and African diasporic studies and the English novel in the Department of English and Literary Studies Niger Delta University Wilberforce Island Nigeria He has guest edited special issues of ARIEL and Imbizo and is the editor of Eco Critical Literature Regreening African Landscapes 2013 African Traditional Oral Literature and Visual cultures as Pedagogical Tools in Diverse

Classroom Contexts Lewis Asimeng-Boahene, Michael Baffoe, 2018-06-01 This book the second in the series is a distinct exploration of how educational policy makers curriculum developers educators learners and social activists can utilize the hitherto untapped rich resource of African traditional oral literature and visual cultures These are epistemological reservoirs and invaluable pedagogical tools in the delivery of content in the classrooms of the present global village most of whom contain diverse student populations from varying backgrounds The content of the book is thus designed to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the hitherto conventional wisdom most of which are either outdated or are colonial impositions on former colonial entities Our motivation for pulling together this anthology was due to the fact scholars educators and educational policy makers have hitherto paid little attention to the epistemological and pedagogical value of Traditional Indigenous Knowledge systems TIKS Our objective has been largely achieved by this anthology in the sense that the research perspectives of the contributors to this effort have enhanced the hitherto limited exposure and knowledge about traditional oral literature and visual cultures in Africa The torch that has been lighted from this endeavor heightens the epistemological and pedagogical implications of TIKS In launching this book we are extending a clarion call to researchers and disciples of Indigenous Knowledge systems in Africa and elsewhere to seize this opportunity and interest generated by this endeavor to undertake more studies in this area Our current efforts were focused mainly on Africa TIKS systems but we strongly believe that there are similar and equally powerful and important TIKS systems in other parts of the world Asia the Far East Central and Southern America as well as the Caribbean that are longing for exploration and exposition It is therefore our fervent hope that exploration and dissemination of knowledge in this field will continue with the flame lighted from this endeavor We believe that these efforts will greatly enhance awareness an otherwise neglected and almost forgotten but important aspects of knowledge creation and dissemination especially about traditional and hitherto unwritten histories and knowledge systems around the world These undertakings will help to broaden the conceptualization of what constitutes global knowledge within the current reality of globalization

Critical Engagements on African Literature Abba A. Abba, Benedictus C.

Nwachukwu, 2019-09-24 Beyond the critical examination of Isidore Diala s award winning poetry and drama the essays in this collection offer fresh insights on the complex methodological and theoretical patterns underlying the readings of African literary landscapes This is the first book to devote considerable attention to the study of Diala s creative works The Pyre drama and The Lure of Ash poetry The majority of the contributors here are selected from among the finest of Diala s former teachers colleagues and students who know him very closely The collection addresses fertile areas of African literary expression such as the relationship between literature and national history African ritual aesthetics affirmation denial and ambivalence as products of social constructions and exile migration and home coming Contributions also explore poetry and poetic truths semiotics anticolonial revolutions and postcolonial implosions oil politics discontent and militancy and feminism and gender politics The book stands out among its peers and offers great insights to scholars researchers and teachers working in the fields of African literature cultures and aesthetics The Culture Game Olu Oguibe,2004 Thirteen previously published essays notes and interviews by Olu Oguibe with revisions with an additional list of where the contributions were originally published and a cumulative index for this anthology as a whole Facts, Fiction, and African Creative

Imaginations Toyin Falola,Fallou Ngom,2009-09-11 This volume brings together insights from distinguished scholars from around the world to address the facts fiction and creative imaginations in the pervasive portrayals of Africa its people societies and cultures in the literature and the media The fictionalization of Africa and African issues in the media and the popular literature that blends facts and fiction has rendered perceptions of Africa its cultures societies customs and conflicts often superficial and deficient in the popular Western consciousness The book brings eminent scholars from a variety of disciplines to sort out the persistent fictionalization of Africa from facts pertaining to the genesis of powerful cultural political or religious icons the historical and cultural significance of intriguing customs such as tribal marks gender relations causes of conflicts and African responses and creative imaginations in contemporary African films fiction and literature among others

The Routledge Companion to International Children's Literature John Stephens,2017-09-11 Demonstrating the aesthetic cultural political and intellectual diversity of children s literature across the globe The Routledge Companion to International Children s Literature is the first volume of its kind to focus on the undervisited regions of the world With particular focus on Asia Africa and Latin America the collection raises awareness of children s literature and related media as they exist in large regions of the world to which mainstream European and North American scholarship pays very little attention Sections cover Concepts and theories Historical contexts and national identity Cultural forms and children s texts Traditional story and adaptation Picture books across the majority world Trends in children s and young adult literatures Exposition of the literary cultural and historical contexts in which children s literature is produced together with an exploration of intersections between these literatures and more extensively researched areas will enhance access and understanding for a large range of international readers The essays offer an ideal introduction for those newly approaching literature for children in specific areas looking for new insights and interdisciplinary perspectives or interested in directions for future scholarship Chinua Achebe and the Igbo-African World Chima J. Korieh,Ijeoma C. Nwajiaku,2022-04-12 Chinua

Achebe and the Igbo African World Between Fiction Fact and Historical Representation explores Chinua Achebe s literary works and how they communicated the Igbo African world to readers Engaging in the politics of representation Achebe sought to demystify deterministic views of race and cultural ethnocentrism While his books and commentaries have been very influential in shaping a unique and multifaceted view of the African world some scholars have challenged Achebe s representations of historical reality Through in depth analyses of his writing contributors examine the interpretations Achebe imposed on African culture and history in his texts The chapters cover Achebe's engagement with critical issues like historical representation gender relations and indigenous political institutions in a changing society Throughout contributors present new ways for understanding Achebe's literary works and show how his work draws from African historical reality and identity while challenging Western epistemological hegemony

Money Matters in European Artworks and Literature, c. 1400-1750 Natasha Seaman, Joanna Woodall, 2025-10-01 Money Matters in European Artworks and Literature c 1400 1750 focuses on coins as material artefacts and agents of meaning in early modern arts The precious metals double sided form and emblematic character of coins had deep resonance in European culture and cultural encounters Coins embodied Europe's power and the labour increasingly located in colonised regions of extracting gold and silver Their efficacy depended on faith in their inherent value and the authority perceived to be imprinted into them guaranteed through the institution of the Mint Yet they could speak eloquently of illusion debasement and counterfeiting A substantial introduction precedes essays by interdisciplinary scholars on five themes power and authority in the Mint currency and the anxieties of global trade coins and persons coins in and out of circulation credit and risk An Afterword on a contemporary artist demonstrates the continuing expressive and symbolic power of numismatic forms

Expressions of Indigenous and Local Knowledge in Africa and its Diaspora Akinloye Ojo, Mobolanle Sotunsa, Karim Traore, 2016-06-22 Expressions of Indigenous and Local Knowledge in Africa and its Diaspora provides critical discourses on Africa and the various configurations of its reflections in folklore literature music languages and philosophy The collection through its selected works focuses on the African continent in terms of preserving the unique identity of African Indigenous and Local Knowledge In reality this preservation effort is confronted by a number of challenges within today's increasingly globalized and westernized world This book documents ongoing scholarly discussion on the paradoxical dynamics of preserving this identity and consequently enhancing the relevance of African Indigenous and Local Knowledge This volume articulates the representation of knowledge and values lodged in the diverse knowledge systems in Africa and its diaspora and which are constantly expressed in local and global spaces It highlights the prejudicial assessment of African Indigenous knowledge systems that has ensured that Western epistemological systems are internationally recognized and supported while African epistemological systems are denigrated discouraged or simply ignored even on the African continent Given that the term expressions entails making something known or manifest this edited collection is assembled to make known some of the elements of indigenous and local knowledge as well as the practices that these elements necessitate both historically and contemporarily in the African situation
