since the gray whale had been hunted nearly to extinction by commercial whalers in the 1920s The Makah whale hunt of 1999 was an event of international significance connected to the worldwide struggle for aboriginal sovereignty and to the broader discourses of environmental sustainability treaty rights human rights and animal rights It was met with enthusiastic support and vehement opposition As a member of the Nuuchah-nulth Nation Charlotte Cote offers a valuable perspective on the issues surrounding indigenous whaling past and present Whaling served important social economic and ritual functions that have been at the core of Makah and Nuuchah-nulth societies throughout their histories Even as Native societies faced disease epidemics and federal policies that undermined their cultures they remained connected to their traditions The revival of whaling has implications for the physical mental and spiritual health of these Native communities today Cote asserts Whaling she says defines who we are as a people Her analysis includes major Native studies and contemporary Native rights issues and addresses environmentalism animal rights activism anti treaty conservatism and the public's expectations about what it means to be Indian These thoughtful critiques are intertwined with the author's personal reflections family stories and information from indigenous anthropological and historical sources to provide a bridge between cultures A Capell Family Book

Family origin histories Edward Sapir, Morris Swadesh, Alexander Thomas, John Thomas, 2009-01-01 Nuuchah-nulth family histories are actually tribal histories since their idea of family encompasses the tribe Eighteen such histories are presented here chronicling the origins and resources of a number of tribal families In lieu of written records these oral traditions stood as Nuuchah-nulth history and were recited formally in public on ceremonial occasions Several accounts give long lists of foods Others describe the acquisition of important technological advances such as a salmon trap Half of the texts are short focusing on a particular item like a mask or a house decoration One text lists hundreds of Nuuchah-nulth place names given mythically by Swan Women to the Port Alberni region which was previously Salish in population and language Generally these histories explain how the world came to be and set forth family claims to material and spiritual resources Each account belonged to the family which had the exclusive right to tell it publicly Summary outlines are provided in the introduction Published in English
