Ping Pong A Play About American College Life:

Ping-Pong H. C. Kim, 2001 Many people remember their college days as the most exciting time in their life Perhaps they had an inspiring professor who helped them think about something in creative ways It s possible that they made friends who became their best friends for life Some might have found the love of their life a soulmate Of course life is not only filled with happiness and joy There could be heartaches and troubling experiences as well Some people come out of college and absolutely hate it No one can deny however that college is filled with experiences that will be remembered for a long time This play examines college life through the eyes of college students The protagonists Steven and Alvin search for love and meaning in life In their quest they experience joy and sadness In twists and turns that characterize the whole play the reader certainly will be entertained But the play will provide opportunities for empathy and reflection as well Identify with the characters and serve the ping pong balls of life with them as you read this exciting play And many happy returns Jewish

Being Heerak Christian Kim, 2003 In his second play H C Kim explores the themes of love and sorrow Mohammed is an Arab in love with Iris a Jewish soldier of 18 years defending the state of Israel The central idea is the power of love Often social circumstances add sorrow to love How will Mohammed s social environment impact him and his love □□□□□□. □□□□□□ : □□□
