Prospects For Recovery And Sustainable Development In Africa:

Prospects for Recovery and Sustainable Development in Africa, 1996 Prospects for Recovery and Sustainable Development in Africa Aguibou Y. Yansané, 1996-04-16 Nine world class experts on the African economy share their knowledge regarding the potential for real improvement and growth in food production and the development of grassroots economies that will benefit citizens as well as governments Economic models that assume good incentives infrastructure entrepreneurial skills and a level trading field cannot be invoked Structural adjustment in African countries has led to unintended consequences because the common people and the small farmers have not been consulted Domestic food production the crux of Africa s economic problem has been downgraded because of the emphasis on export crops To develop self sufficiency and food security African nations must mobilize domestic resources improve the human resource capacity and strengthen their scientific and technological bases They must also cooperate in integration schemes rather than compete for the available Western aid CHALLENGES AND PROSPECTS IN AFRICAN EDUCATION SYSTEMS SOJI ONI (Ph.D.), 2013 Challenges and Prospects in African Education System The general idea this book is trying to disseminate is to inform readers about the compelling challenges and prospects in African system of education As we all know when issues of Africa educational system is raised the first set of thoughts that come to mind is decline in standard deterioration of facilities examination malpractices cult crises or school based violence shortage of teachers underqualified teachers and poor teachers performance which results in poor learning standards lack of classroom discipline that is exacerbated by insufficient resources and inadequate infrastructure failure of appropriate inspection and monitoring and confusion caused by changing curricula without proper communication and training All these have led to massive demoralization and disillusionment among teachers and a negative and worsening perception of African system of education This therefore calls for in depth analysis aimed at tutoring every stakeholder in education on how their action and inactions have individually and collectively contributed to the collapsing state of education in Africa However the prospect is that Africa s recovery and sustainable development can only be guaranteed through expansion and sustenance of both quantitative and qualitative of the continent s stock of human capital through education In order for education to realize its key role in development it must be provided to the younger segments of African society as quickly as human and financial resources permit with the ultimate goal of developing a comprehensive meaningful and sustainable system of education at all levels and for all age groups This is the message that this book puts across in the six knitted sections Tourism and Hospitality for Sustainable Development Emmanuel Ndhlovu, Kaitano Dube, Ngoni Courage Shereni, 2024-09-12 The tourism and hospitality industry in the 21st century cannot be adequately planned executed marketed managed or studied without taking into account digital technology and its impact The Fourth Industrial Revolution provides the framework for sustainable development in this sector Technology not only increases profitability but also enables the industry to effectively respond to pressing global sustainability challenges such as pandemics climate change energy crises staffing shortages and hyperinflation Moreover technology allows the industry to consider its current and future economic social and environmental consequences addressing the needs of tourists the industry the environment and destinations However implementing technology efficiently and ethically is a complex process and the opportunities costs and challenges vary depending on the geopolitical and socio economic context The application of digitalisation and technological innovations have played a significant role in promoting universal design and reasonable accommodation for older adults and individuals with disabilities in both developed and developing countries These advancements are crucial for the growth of accessible tourism and hospitality This edited book aims to explore the trends challenges and complexities of integrating digitalisation and technology into the tourism and hospitality industry It also examines the strategic shifts that will shape future research in this area The book provides a comprehensive overview of the current state of research including theoretical insights empirical evidence and evidence based recommendations It covers a range of technologies such as blockchain robots artificial intelligence virtual reality big data and analytics The goal is to understand how these disruptive technologies are being used and their potential impact on various stakeholders as well as their future possibilities and limitations

Comparative Constitutionalism and Good Governance in the Commonwealth John Hatchard, Muna Ndulo, Peter Slinn, 2004-07-08 The central role that good effective and capable governance plays in the economic and social development of a country is now widely recognised Using the Commonwealth countries of eastern and southern Africa this book analyses some of the key constitutional issues in the process of developing strengthening and consolidating the capacity of states to ensure the good governance of their peoples Utilising comparative material the book seeks to draw lessons both positive and negative about the problems of constitutionalism in the region and in doing so critically addresses the legal issues involved in seeking to make constitutions work in practice

Financing Sustainable Development in Africa Uchenna R. Efobi, Simplice Asongu, 2018-05-15 This edited volume provides a critical evaluation of financing options for sustainable development in Africa While sustainability has long been the watchword for development programs and while many African countries have taken initiatives to develop integrated frameworks that tackle developmental challenges including poverty education and health financing has remained a challenge In this book an expert team of chapter authors examines new financing options while also exploring how traditional financing means such as foreign aid and foreign direct investment can be more effective for sustainability The authors discuss how African nations can build adequate structures and productive capacity to create a platform that can meet present economic social and environmental needs without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs Practical case studies and scientific evidence give this book a unique approach that is both qualitative and quantitative This book will be of interest to students practitioners and scholars of development studies public policy and African economics
