Michael W. Bruening

Protestant Era Abridged Edition:

The Protestant Era, 1966 The Protestant Era Paul Tillich, 1966 Reformed Sacramentality Graham R. Hughes, 2017-06-05 In Reformed Sacramentality the late Graham Hughes discusses the role of physicality in worship He contends that to counter the Reformed tradition's vulnerability to a cultural colonization by secular modernity Reformed theology needs to amplify its appreciation for God's omnipresence in creation with a reappropriation of the condensed symbols of faith Hughes's argument builds on a historical analysis of the Reformed tradition's rejection of material sacramentality and its ecclesial and cultural consequences From a late modern vantage point Hughes advocates for a rediscovery of material sacramentality both as a lever against modern solipsism and as an iconic reminder of God's radical otherness

Refusing to Kiss the Slipper Michael W. Bruening, 2021-03-19 Refusing to Kiss the Slipper reveals that the French Reformation was more complex and colorful than previously recognized History has long viewed all French Protestants as Calvinists this book by contrast tells the stories of French Protestants who opposed and often detested John Calvin These opponents believed that Calvin had set himself up as a Protestant pope demanding obedience to his own religious authority They believed Calvin's self-appointed leadership undermined the bedrock principle of the Reformation that the faithful be allowed to challenge religious authorities

The Theological Paradox Gert Hummel, 1995 Keine ausführliche Beschreibung für The Theological Paradox Das theologische Paradox verfgbar

Applied Christian Ethics Matthew Lon Weaver, 2014-09-09 Applied Christian Ethics addresses selected themes in Christian social ethics The book is divided in three parts In the first section Foundation several contributors reveal their Christian realist roots and discuss the prophetic origins and multifarious agenda of social ethics Thus the names of Reinhold Niebuhr and Paul Tillich come up frequently In the second section Economics and Justice the focus turns to the different levels at which economics has significance for social justice These chapters discuss fair housing at the local level the dialogue between Christians and Native Americans over property rights at the regional and national levels and trade and international organization In the third and final section Politics War and Peacemaking the content ranges from the existential experience of a soldier to that of a veteran of civil rights activism from theorizing about peacemaking to commenting on the use of drones

Towards a Trinitarian Theology of Religions Pan-Chiu Lai, 1994 Peeters 1994 Religion, Politics and Thomas Hobbes George Wright, 2006 This collection develops insight into the relation which Hobbes describes between his theory of government and the three part division he draws with respect to religion Pursuing the chain of causes that proves God's existence as first cause Hobbes identifies and defines both true religion and such superstition as he found in the theology and practices of the Roman Catholic Church of his era He then emphasizes the difference between natural religion and revealed religion in order to extinguish the claim of contemporary theologians to an authority in the state greater than that of the political sovereign Although according to the author Hobbes falters in carrying out his politico theological project his careful radical and innovative attempt to describe the relationship of religion and politics church and state has special relevance for us today as forms of religious fundamentalism in many countries are increasingly claiming and in some cases winning control of political institutions

International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

Theology at the End of Culture Russell Re Manning, 2005 This book is a reconsideration of Paul Tillich's 1886-1965 project of a theology of culture and art Concentrating on Tillich's widely neglected pre emigration writings 1910-1933 Re Manning reconstructs and defends Tillich's proposals for theology of culture as a philosophically sophisticated programme of theological engagement with culture and art On the boundary between the extremes of liberal Christian humanism and neo orthodox isolationism Tillich's project is shown to be a powerful continuation of the mediatory intentions of the Schleiermacher Troeltsch line of modern Protestant theology to overcome the intolerable gap between religion and culture Drawing heavily on Tillich's incorporation of Schelling's positive philosophy into the deep structure of this theology Re Manning argues that Tillich's Idealistic Romantic theology of mediation provides a way through the entrenched oppositions of the divided mind of twentieth century theology to a constructive theology of cultural engagement Further this book offers an assessment of the continued relevance of Tillich's project in the situation of contemporary philosophical theology Beyond the dominant antithetical types of postmodern theology Mark C Taylor's a theology and the radical orthodoxy of John Milbank Re Manning argues for the possibility of a Tillichian postmodern theology of culture able to engage with the spiritual situation at the end of culture
