horrific conditions and suffered a 75 percent death rate the highest of any arm of service in the conflict Yet their story has never been told in full In Wolfpack historian Roger Moorhouse tells the story of the Battle of the Atlantic from the point of view of the German submariners He tracks these men from the enthusiasm of the war's early days buoyed with optimism about their cause through the challenges of the Allied counterthreat to the final horrors of enemy capture and death in the depths It is a story of courage certainly but also of fear privation and ultimately failure Drawing extensively on war diaries archival records and the voices of the German submariners themselves Wolfpack is a story of technological brilliance dramatic naval engagements and extraordinary human endurance
