Proust René Girard, 1972 Proust René Girard, 1977 Marcel Proust René Girard, 1962 Collecting, Curating, and Researching Writers' Libraries Richard W. Oram, 2014-05-21 Academic collection practices in recent years have extended to the private libraries of notable individual authors As a consequence book historians have become more interested in the study of provenance of the contents of these libraries while literary scholars have devoted more attention to authorial annotations At the same time the Internet has encouraged both scholarly and hobbyist reconstructions of private libraries see for example the Legacy Libraries on Librarything com Although there are many bibliographies and reconstructions of the libraries of authors this is the first general consideration of these libraries and serves as an introduction to best practices for academic libraries in their acquisition cataloging and issues of access This collection begins with principal editor Richard Oram s historical overview of writers libraries and institutional collecting focusing primarily on English language authors The co editor Joseph Nicholson has provided a definitive review of best cataloging and arrangement practices that facilitate scholarly access The bookseller Kevin Mac Donnell discusses the marketing of these collections and obstacles to placing intact author libraries in institutions Also included are case studies by Amanda Golden and David Faulds relating to the personal libraries of the poets Anne Sexton and Ted Hughes indicating how these collections have the potential to enhance archival research Fiction writers Iain Sinclair Russell Banks Jim Crace poet Ted Kooser and biographer Ron Powers describe their sometimes passionate relationship with books and their own personal libraries The concluding chapter a location guide to over 500 individual libraries will be invaluable to scholars and librarians who want to know where writers libraries are currently located what happened to them if they are known to have been sold or dispersed and what has been written about them Sensual Reading Michael Syrotinski, Ian MacLachlan, 2001 Sensual Reading is a collection of essays that attempts to rearticulate the relationship between reading and the different senses as a way of moving beyond increasingly homogenized discourses of the body and the subject Contributions engage with the individual senses with the themes of sensory richness and sensory deprivation and with the notion of telesensuality The UAB Marcel Proust Symposium William C. Carter, 1989 Research in Education , 1974 A Collection of Critical Essays Proust, 1962 J. M. Coetzee and the Limits of the Novel John Bolin, 2023-06-22 This is the first book that reads Coetzee s novels in light of research into his archive of manuscripts and drafts Resources in Education , 1974
