Proust On Art And Literature:

Proust on Art and Literature Marcel Proust, 1997-08-26 Beginning with the remarkable essay Contre Saint Beuve this surprising and stimulating critical collection presents Proust's views on the contemporary writing of his era on painting and painters and on such literary masters of the nineteenth century as Tolstoy Goethe and Stendhal Marcel Proust on Art and Literature, 1958 Marcel Proust on Art and Literature, translated by Sylvia T Warner Marcel Proust, 1958 Marcel Proust Leo Bersani, 2013-06-05 Oxford University Press published eminent literary critic Leo Bersani's first book on Proust in 1965 but the work has long been out of print This new edition comes in response to a recent renewal of interest among philosophers of literature among others and features a new preface from the author Proust and the Arts Christie McDonald, François Proulx, 2015-11-05 Proust and the Arts brings together expert Proustians and renowned interdisciplinary scholars in a major reconsideration of the novelist's relation to the arts Going beyond the classic question of the models used by Proust for his fictional artists the essays collected here explore how he learned from and integrated in highly personal ways the work of such creators as Wagner or Carpaccio This volume reveals the breadth of Proust's engagement with varied art forms from different eras from primitive arts to sound recordings from medieval sculpture to Art Nouveau glassmaking and from portrait photography to the private art of doodling Chapters bring into focus issues of perception and detail in examining how Proust encountered and responded to works of art and attend to the ways art shaped his complex relationship to identity sexuality humor and the craft of writing Proust as Philosopher Miguel de Beistegui, 2012-11-12 Marcel Proust's In Search of Lost Time has long fascinated philosophers for its complex accounts of time personal identity and narrative amongst many other themes Proust as Philosopher The Art of Metaphor is the first book to try and connect Proust's implicit ontology of experience with the question of style and of metaphor in particular Miguel de Beistegui begins with an observation throughout In Search of Lost Time the two main characters seem prone to chronic dissatisfaction in matters of love friendship and even art Reality always falls short of expectation At the same time the narrator experiences unexpected bouts of intense elation the cause and meaning of which remain elusive Beistegui argues we should understand these experiences as acts of artistic creation and that this is why Proust himself wrote that true life is the life of art He goes on to explore the nature of these joyful and pleasurable experiences and the transformation required of art and particularly literature if it is to incorporate them He concludes that Proust revolutionises the idea of metaphor extending beyond the confines of language to understand the nature of lived bodily experience Marcel Proust Leo Bersani, 2013 The author of this book is an eminent literary critic whose influential work spans half a century His vast in many ways unclassifiable oeuvre has traversed and blurred the boundaries of the disciplines of modern French literature literary criticism psychoanalysis art history film theory philosophical aesthetics and masculinity studies and sexuality studies This text is his first book on Proust originally published in 1965 This new edition comes in response to a recent renewal of interest among philosophers of literature among others Marcel Proust Leo Bersani,1969 Au Seuil de la Modernité Nigel Harkness, Marion Schmid,2011 This volume of essays which is dedicated to the late Richard Bales one of the doyens of Proust studies considers Proust's pivotal role at the threshold of modernity between nineteenth and twentieth century forms of writing and thinking between the Belle Epoque and the First World War between tradition and innovation More than just a temporal concept this threshold is theorized in the volume as a liminal space where borders geographical artistic personal dissolve where greater possibilities for artistic dialogue emerge and where unexpected encounters between artists genres and disciplines take place Working both backwards and forwards from the publication dates of A la recherche du temps perdu 1913-27 the seventeen essays written specially for this volume take as their focus Proust's manifold engagements with the world of modernity as well as intermedial relations among the generations of artists before and immediately after him Looking back to the nineteenth century the undisputed starting point for nascent forms of modernity in Western art and literature and a period that was uniquely formative for the young Proust they also offer insights into inter artistic dialogue in Surrealist and post Surrealist painting and poetry The Religion of Art in Proust Barbara J. Bucknall,1969
