Proust The Creative Silence:

Proust Angelo Caranfa, 1990 This study confronts Proust's underlying search to explain through literature the meaning of the human self It deals with Proust's creative silence from an aesthetic philosophical point of view by comparing him with Merleau-Ponty Claudel Braque Marcel St Bonaventure and St Augustine It's Silence, Soundly John McGreal, 2016-04-21 It's Silence Soundly It's Nothing Seriously and It's Absence Presently continue The It Series published by Matador since The Book of It 2010 They constitute another stage in an artistic journey exploring the visual and audial dialectic of mark word and image that began over 25 years ago In their aesthetic form the books are a decentred trilogy united together in a new concept of The Bibliograph All three present this new aesthetic object which transcends the narrow limits of the academic bibliography The alphabetical works also share a tripartite structure and identical length The Bibliograph itself is characterised by its strategic place within each book as a whole as well as by the complex variations in meaning of the dominant motifs nothingness absence and silence which recur throughout the alphabetical entries that constitute the elements of each text It's Nothing Seriously for example addresses the amusing paradox that so much continues to be written today about nothing The aleatory character of the entries in the texts encourage the modern reader to reflect on each theme and to read them in a new way The reader is invited as well to examine their various intertextual relations across given conventional boundaries in the arts and sciences at several levels of physical psychical social reproduction Proust's Self-reader Phillip Bailey, 1997 Merleau-Ponty at the Limits of Art, Religion, and Perception Kascha Semonovitch, Neal DeRoo, 2011-10-27 This book poses the question of what lies at the limit of philosophy Through close studies of French phenomenologist Maurice Merleau-Ponty's life and work the authors examine one of the twentieth century's most interdisciplinary philosophers whose thought intersected with and contributed to the practices of art psychology literature faith and philosophy As these essays show Merleau-Ponty's oeuvre disrupts traditional disciplinary boundaries and prompts his readers to ask what exactly constitutes philosophy and its others Featuring essays by an international team of leading phenomenologists art theorists theologians historians of philosophy and philosophers of mind this volume breaks new ground in Merleau-Ponty scholarship including the first sustained reflections on the relationship between Merleau-Ponty and religion and magnifies a voice that is talked over in too many conversations across the academic disciplines Anyone interested in phenomenology art theory and history cognitive science the philosophy of mind and the philosophy of religion will find themselves challenged and engaged by the articles included in this important effort at interdisciplinary philosophy

Camille Claudel Angelo Caranfa, 1999 This book attempts to separate Camille's art from that of Rodin and to show its connections to the artistic and spiritual ideas of her brother the poet Paul Claudel Like her brother Camille communicates in her art the silence of things This silence however is not an inarticulate void a nothingness an unlimited potentiality as it is for Rodin but it is communicative actual originary and meaningful Phenomenology, Modernism and Beyond Carole

Bourne-Taylor, Ariane Mildenberg, 2010 From the first stirrings of modernism to contemporary poetics the modernist aesthetic project could be described as a form of phenomenological reduction that attempts to return to the invisible and unsayable foundations of human perception and expression prior to objective points of view and scientific notions It is this aspect of modernism that this book brings to the fore The essays presented here bring into focus the contemporary face of ongoing debates about phenomenology and modernism The contributors forcefully underline the intertwining of modernism and phenomenology and the extent to which the latter offers a clue to the former The book presents the viewpoints of a range of internationally distinguished critics and scholars with diverse but closely related essays covering a wide range of fields including literature architecture philosophy and musicology The collection addresses critical questions regarding the relationship between phenomenology and modernism with reference to thinkers such as Edmund Husserl Maurice Merleau Ponty Martin Heidegger Michel Henry and Paul Ricoeur By examining the contemporary philosophical debates this cross disciplinary body of research reveals the pervasive and far reaching influence of phenomenology which emerges as a heuristic method to articulate modernist aesthetic concerns Understanding Merleau-Ponty, Understanding Modernism

Ariane Mildenberg, 2018-12-13 Understanding Merleau Ponty Understanding Modernism brings into dialogue Maurice Merleau Ponty's phenomenology with modernist art literature music film and neurophysiological discoveries opening up the complexities of the philosopher's phenomenology of perception to a broader audience across the arts An important resource for anyone interested in the links between modernism and philosophy Understanding Merleau Ponty Understanding Modernism offers close readings of Merleau Ponty's key texts explores modernist works in light of his thought and provides an extended glossary of Merleau Ponty's central terms and concepts Reading on the Edge Cyra E. Johnson-Roullier, 2000-06-01 Examines the notion of exile and hybrid cultural identity in Proust Joyce and Baldwin with implications for our understanding of modernism and the modernist canon Comparative Criticism: Volume 14, Knowledge and Performance E. S. Shaffer, 1992-10-22 Addresses literary theory and criticism comparative studies in terms of theme genre movement and influence and interdisciplinary perspectives Literary Studies and the Philosophy of Literature Andrea Selleri, Philip Gaydon, 2016-12-01 This book is about the interaction between literary studies and the philosophy of literature It features essays from internationally renowned and emerging philosophers and literary scholars challenging readers to join them in taking seriously the notion of interdisciplinary study and forging forward in new and exciting directions of thought It identifies that literary studies and the philosophy of literature address similar issues What is literature What is its value Why do I care about characters What is the role of the author in understanding a literary work What is fiction as opposed to non fiction Yet genuine interdisciplinary interaction remains scarce This collection seeks to overcome current obstacles and seek out new paths for exploration
