Proust's Way Roger Shattuck, 2000 For many years Roger Shattuck has been mesmerised by one writer First came Proust's Binoculars a short brilliant study published in 1964 Then came Marcel Proust commissioned by Frank Kermode for the Modern Masters series which won the National Book Award in 1974 A series of essays lectures and reviews followed Now like Richard Ellmann whose constant outpourings on Joyce resulted in his triumphant biography James Joyce Roger Shattuck has revisited his earlier writings and musings on Proust and used them as a springboard to write a new and definitive work

Understanding James, Understanding Modernism David H. Evans, 2017-04-20 Psychologist philosopher teacher writer William James stood closer than any other thinker to the center of the confluence of intellectual and artistic forces that defined the culture of modernism The outstanding feature of this volume lies in its intent to investigate James's influence on both American and International Modernism It provides on the one hand a multifaceted introduction to students of history philosophy and culture and on the other a compendium of some of the most up to date thinking on this central figure James's first book Principles of Psychology 1890 immediately established James as the leading psychologist of his time at a moment in history when psychology seemed to offer the promise of finding some definitive answers to eternal philosophical conundra James's innovations would register a clear effect on much modernist art most evidently in the stylistic prose experiments of James Joyce Virginia Woolf and their imitators James's tentative skepticism concerning the concept of consciousness as such and the post Cartesian ego that was its foundation also anticipates the questioning of the subject that would be the theme of much modern and indeed postmodern thought The contributors to this volume explore James's most essential texts as well as his influence on contemporary writers artists and thinkers The final section is a glossary of James's key terms with entries written by leading experts

Persephone Tamara Levitz, 2012-09-27 Here Levitz demonstrates how a group of collaborating artists Igor Stravinsky Ida Rubenstein Jacques Copeau Andr Gide and others used the myth of Pers phone to perform and articulate their most deeply held beliefs about four topics significant to modernism religion sexuality death and historical memory in art Translation and Rewriting in the Age of Post-Translation Studies Edwin Gentzler, 2016-11-03 In Translation and Rewriting in the Age of Post Translation Studies Edwin Gentzler argues that rewritings of literary works have taken translation to a new level literary texts no longer simply originate but rather circulate moving internationally and intersemiotically into new media and forms Drawing on traditional translations post translation rewritings and other forms of creative adaptation he examines the different translational cultures from which literary works emerge and the translational elements within them In this revealing study four concise chapters give detailed analyses of the following classic works and their rewritings A Midsummer Night's Dream in Germany Postcolonial Faust Proust for Everyday Readers Hamlet in China With examples from a variety of genres including music film ballet comics and video games this book will be of special interest for all students and scholars of translation studies and contemporary literature The Sense of an Interior Diana Fuss, 2004-08-02 The Sense of an Interior is a fascinating exploration of domestic space and of the ways it determines how writers work The book looks at four famous figures Emily Dickinson Sigmund Freud Helen Keller and Marcel Proust and examines the relationship between their work and the spaces where they wrote

Debussy, Bergson and the Music of 'la duree' Charles Frantz, 2024-10-21 Charles Frederick Frantz provides a quantitative and qualitative analysis of Debussy's music through the lens of Bergson's philosophical perspective of dur e revealing his revolution in musical time In fin de si cle Paris Debussy was revolutionizing musical time while Bergson was establishing a metaphysics that challenged the notion of measured or spatialized time Bergson argued that real time or durée could be grasped only through intuition as opposed to analysis Debussy eschewed analysis of music declaring that separating it into parts was better left to engineers Debussy's music and Bergson's durée were conceived and imagined in the environs of nature The cycle of seasons the gracefulness of a blooming flower or a gentle breeze all suggest continuity flow and uninterrupted rhythm The time of nature is the time of Debussy's music and Bergson's durée Debussy's use of open forms and Golden Sections create a time world of an expanded present never ceasing Bergson's perception of real time is ever changing bringing the past into the present and open to unforeseen novelty This book is intended primarily for scholars in the disciplines of musicology music theory and philosophy and can be used as a text for upper level undergraduate or graduate courses in musicology or music theory

Childhood as Memory, Myth and Metaphor Catherine Crimp, 2017-12-02 A fascination with childhood unites the artist Louise Bourgeois 1911-2010 and the writers Samuel Beckett 1906-89 and Marcel Proust 1871-1922 But while many commentators have traced their childhood images back to memories of lived experiences there is more to their mythologies of childhood that waits to be explored They invite us to move away from familiar ideas whether psychological or biographical about what a child can represent and even what a child is The haunting child figures of Bourgeois Beckett and Proust echo each other as they show how imagining origins for a life for a work of art involves paradoxes that test the limits of our forms of expression Art meets literature profusion meets concision French meets English and images of childhood reveal new insights in this encounter between three great figures of twentieth and twenty first century culture Catherine Crimp holds a PhD from the University of Cambridge and is currently Lectrice d'anglais at the Ecole Normale Supérieure de Lyon
