Provocations: Writings by John Coplans Stuart Morgan, 1996 Provocations John Coplans, 2002-03

Provocations a selection of the writings of John Coplans esteemed art critic artist and founder of Artforum spans the period of 1963 1981 Edited by art critic and curator Stuart Morgan this collection includes essays on Classic Modernism Photography and Pop Art chapters from his now out of print books Kurt Schwitters and Serial Imagery as well as his controversial report on the decline of the Pasadena Art Museum What was distinctive about his mind and the way it worked was the ingenuity curiosity independence range Stuart Morgan Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included The Experimenters Eva Díaz, 2014-12-25 In the years immediately following World War II Black Mountain College an unaccredited school in rural Appalachia became a vital hub of cultural innovation Practically every major artistic figure of the mid twentieth century spent some time there Merce Cunningham Ray Johnson Franz Kline Willem and Elaine de Kooning Robert Motherwell Robert Rauschenberg Dorothea Rockburne Aaron Siskind Cy Twombly the list goes on and on Yet scholars have tended to view these artists time at the College as little more than prologue a step on their way to greatness With The Experimenters Eva D az reveals the importance of Black Mountain College and especially of three key teachers Josef Albers John Cage and R Buckminster Fuller to be much greater than that D az s focus is on experimentation Albers Cage and Fuller she shows taught new models of art making that favored testing procedures rather than personal expression These methodologies represented incipient directions for postwar art practice elements of which would be sampled and often wholly adopted by Black Mountain students and subsequent practitioners The resulting works which interrelate art and life in a way that imbues these projects with crucial relevance not only reconfigured the relationships among chance order and design they helped redefine what artistic practice was and could be for future generations Offering a bold compelling new angle on some of the most widely studied creative figures of modern times The Experimenters does nothing less than rewrite the story of art in the mid twentieth century Junk Gillian Whiteley, 2010-11-30 Trash garbage rubbish dross and detritus in this enjoyably radical exploration of Junk Gillian Whiteley rethinks art s historical and present appropriation of junk within our eco conscious and globalised culture She does this through an illustrated exploration of particular materials key moments and locations and the telling of a panoply of trash narratives Found and ephemeral materials are primarily associated with assemblage object based practices which emerged in the mid 1950s and culminated in the seminal exhibition The Art of Assemblage in New York in 1961 With its deployment of the discarded and the filthy Whiteley argues assemblage has been viewed as a disruptive transgressive artform that engaged with narratives of social and political dissent often in the face of modernist condemnation as worthless kitsch In the Sixties parallel techniques flourished in Western Europe the US and Australia but the idiom of assemblage and the re use of found materials and objects with artist as bricoleur is just as prevalent now This is a timely book that uncovers the etymology of waste and the cultures of disposability within these economies of wealth

Out of Sight William Hackman,2015-04-14 A social and cultural history of Los Angeles and its emerging art scene in the 1950s 60s and 70s The history of modern art typically begins in Paris and ends in New York Los Angeles was out of sight and out of mind viewed as the apotheosis of popular culture not a center for serious art Out of Sight chronicles the rapid fire rise fall and rebirth of L A s art scene from the emergence of a small bohemian community in the 1950s to the founding of the Museum of Contemporary Art in 1980 Included are some of the most influential artists of our time painters Edward Ruscha and Vija Celmins sculptors Ed Kienholz and Ken Price and many others A book about the city as much as it is about the art Out of Sight is a social and cultural history that illuminates the ways mid century Los Angeles shaped its emerging art scene and how that art scene helped remake the city Artforum International ,1998 On Paper ,1997 A Body John Coplans,2002-03 For 33 years Coplans has photographed his body nude from the age of 58 to the age of 81 Mythic in scope and unflinching in its examination of one person s humanness and mortality in this sequence of 115 duotone images Coplans transcends the boundaries of photography as an art Epic grotesque bittersweet sensual provocative funny and even at times absurd Coplans achieves a visual meditation on the compelling relationship between sensuality ageing and death that is unparalleled in the history of the medium I gasped in admiration The Village Voice Speaking with Hands Jennifer Blessing,Kirsten A. Hoving,Ralph Rugoff,2004 Essays by Jennifer Blessing Kirsten Hoving and Ralph Rugoff
