Reading The Literature Experience:

A Psychoanalytic Perspective on Reading Literature Merav Roth, 2019-08-14 What are the unconscious processes involved in reading literature How does literature influence our psychological development and existential challenges A Psychoanalytic Perspective on Reading Literature offers a unique glimpse into the unconscious psychic processes and development involved in reading The author listens to the free associations of various literary characters in numerous scenarios where the characters are themselves reading literature thus revealing the mysterious ways in which reading literature helps us and contributes to our development The book offers an introduction both to classic literature Poe Proust Sartre Sempr n Pessoa Agnon and more and to the major psychoanalytic concepts that can be used in reading it all described and widely explained before being used as tools for interpreting the literary illustrations The book thus offers a rich lexical psychoanalytic source alongside its main aim in analysing the reader s psychological mechanisms and development Psychoanalytic interpretation of those literary readers opens three main avenues to the reader s experience the transference relations toward the literary characters the literary work as means to transcend beyond the reader s self identity and existential boundaries and mobilization of internal dialectic tensions towards new integration and psychic equilibrium An Epilogue concludes by emphasising the transformational power embedded in reading literature The fascinating dialogue between literature and psychoanalysis illuminates hitherto concealed aspects of each discipline and contributes to new insights in both fields A Psychoanalytic Perspective on Reading Literature will be of great interest not only to psychoanalytic psychotherapists and literature scholars but also to a wider readership beyond these areas of study Reading Black

Books Claude Atcho, 2022-05-17 Learning from Black voices means listening to more than snippets It means attending to Black stories Reading Black Books helps Christians hear and learn from enduring Black voices and stories as captured in classic African American literature Pastor and teacher Claude Atcho offers a theological approach to 10 seminal texts of 20th century African American literature Each chapter takes up a theological category for inquiry through a close literary reading and theological reflection on a primary literary text from Ralph Ellison s Invisible Man and Richard Wright s Native Son to Zora Neale Hurston s Moses Man of the Mountain and James Baldwin s Go Tell It on the Mountain The book includes end of chapter discussion questions Reading Black Books helps readers of all backgrounds learn from the contours of Christian faith formed and forged by Black stories and it spurs continued conversations about racial justice in the church It demonstrates that reading about Black experience as shown in the literature of great African American writers can guide us toward sharper theological thinking and more faithful living Reading, Literature, and Psychology in Action Philip

Davis, Rhiannon Corcoran, Josie Billington, Arthur Frank, 2023-06-23 Psychology in Action is a term coined by the Guest Editors from the Centre for Research into Reading Literature and Society CRILS University of Liverpool in their work in filming recording and analyzing shared reading groups led by The Reader organization It refers both to the work of psychology within literary texts and to the responses of multifarious reader participants to literature read live and aloud in small community groups within a variety of settings In particular psychology in action has meant seeing readers suddenly activated into deep personal thinking responding to situations imaginatively simulated by reading literature in ways that trigger surprised and involuntary emotion autobiographical memory and spontaneous empathy Why Reading Books Still Matters Martha C. Pennington, Robert P. Waxler, 2017-08-29 Bringing together strands of public discourse about valuing personal achievement at the expense of social values and the impacts of global capitalism mass media and digital culture on the lives of children this book challenges the potential of science and business to solve the world's problems without a complementary emphasis on social values The selection of literary works discussed illustrates the power of literature and human arts to instill such values and foster change The book offers a valuable foundation for the field of literacy education by providing knowledge about the importance of language and literature that educators can use in their own teaching and advocacy work Reading Our Lives William L. Randall, Elizabeth McKim, 2008-06-03 Against the background of Socrates' insight that the unexamined life is not worth living Reading Our Lives: The Poetics of Growing Old investigates the often overlooked inside dimensions of aging Despite popular portrayals of mid and later life as entailing inevitable decline this book looks at aging as potentially a process of poiesis a creative endeavor of fashioning meaning from the ever accumulating texts memories and reflections that constitute our inner worlds At its center is the conviction that although we are constantly reading our lives to some degree anyway doing so in a mindful manner is critical to our development in the second half of life Drawing on research in numerous disciplines affected by the so-called narrative turn including cognitive psychology neuroscience and the psychology of aging authors Randall and McKim articulate a vision of aging that promises to accommodate such time-honored concepts as wisdom and spirituality one that understands aging as a matter not merely of getting old but of consciously growing old The Digital Reading Condition Maria Engberg, Iben Havn, Birgitte Stougaard Pedersen, 2022-12-30 This volume offers a critical overview of digital reading practices and scholarly efforts to analyze and understand reading in the mediatised landscape Building on research about digital reading born digital literature and digital audiobooks The Digital Reading Condition explores reading as part of a broader cultural shift encompassing many forms of media and genres Bringing together research from media and literary studies digital humanities scholarship on reading and learning as well as sensory studies and research on multimodal and multisensory media reception the authors address and challenge print-biased conceptions of reading that are still prevalent in research whether the reading medium is print or digital They argue that the act of reading itself is changing and rather than rejecting digital media as unsuitable for sustained or focused reading practices they argue that the complex media landscape challenges us to rethink how to define reading as a mediated practice Presenting a truly interdisciplinary perspective on digital reading practices this volume will appeal to scholars and graduate students in communication media studies new media and technology literature digital humanities literacy studies composition and rhetoric Focus on Reading Walch, Walch Publishing, 2002 Cognitive principles, critical practice: Reading literature at university Susanne Reichl, 2009-09-16 This enquiry into the principles and practice of reading literature brings together insights from cognitive studies literary theory empirical literature studies learning and teaching research and higher education research Reading is conceptualised as an active process of meaning making that is determined by subjective as well as contextual factors and guided by a sense of purpose This sense of purpose part of a professional and conscious approach to reading is the central element in the model of reading that this study proposes As well as a conceptual aim this model also has pedagogical power and serves as the basis for a number of critical and creative exercises geared towards developing literary reading strategies and strategic reading competences in general These activities demonstrate how the main tenets of the study can be put into practice within the context of a particular institution of higher education Reading Home Cultures Through Books Kirsti Salmi-Niklander, Marija Dalbello, 2022-02-27 This wide ranging comparative and multidisciplinary collection addresses the significance of books in creating the idea of home The chapters present cases that reveal the affective and sensory dimensions of books and reading in the practice of everyday life of individuals in communities and in society The complex relationship of books reading and home is explored through American and European case studies both in bourgeois and middle class homes and in working class and immigrant families and communities with limited possibilities for reading The volume combines the conceptions and representations of domesticity the materiality of reading and library as a place drawing on book history and material culture studies as well as anthropology and sociology of the home Focus on Reading: Walk Two Moons - Study Guide Marshall K. Hall, 2004 Prepares students for reading success through prereading background material Focuses reading with guided questions Builds vocabulary Develops cultural literacy Focus on Reading Walch Publishing, 2002 On Reading Well Karen Swallow Prior, 2018-09-04 Publishers Weekly starred review A Best Book of 2018 in Religion Publishers Weekly Reading great literature well has the power to cultivate virtue says acclaimed author Karen Swallow Prior In this book she takes readers on a guided tour through works of great literature both ancient and modern exploring twelve virtues that philosophers and theologians throughout history have identified as most essential for good character and the good life Covering authors from Henry Fielding to Cormac McCarthy Jane Austen to George Saunders and Flannery O Connor to F Scott Fitzgerald Prior explores some of the most compelling universal themes found in the pages of classic books helping readers learn to love life literature and God through their encounters with great writing The book includes end of chapter reflection questions geared toward book club discussions original artwork throughout and a foreword by Leland Ryken The hardcover edition was named a Best Book of 2018 in Religion by Publishers Weekly A lively treatise on building character through books Publishers Weekly starred review Focus on Reading: A Long Way From Chicago - Study Guide Walch, 2004 Focus on Reading: Winger - Study Guide Walch, 2004 Teaching Secondary English Daniel Sheridan, 2001

This new edition of Teaching Secondary English is thoroughly revised but its purpose has not changed Like the popular first edition it balances content knowledge with methodology theory with practice and problem posing with suggested solutions The tone and format are inviting while addressing student readers on a professional level Rather than attempting to cover everything the text provides a framework and materials for teaching a secondary English methods course while allowing considerable choice for the instructor The focus is on teaching literature writing and language the basics of the profession Attention is given to the issues that arise as one seeks to explore what it means to teach English The problems and tensions of becoming a teacher are discussed frankly in a manner that helps students figure out their own attitudes and solutions Features Focuses on a few central concepts in the teaching of secondary English Provides an anthology of 22 readable and challenging essays on key topics allowing students to hear a variety of voices and opinions Includes an applications section for each reading that extends the discussion and asks students to explore problems and grapple with important issues related to the articles Offers short writing assignments in questions that follow the readings and in brief writing tasks in the applications and a longer writing assignment at the end of each chapter Addresses student readers directly without talking down to them New in the Second Edition This edition is shorter tighter and easier to use The opening and concluding chapters more directly address the concerns of new teachers The anthology is substantially updated of the 22 articles included 14 are new to this edition Each essay is preceded by a brief introduction and followed by questions for further thought There are fewer applications but these are more extensive and more fully integrated within the text A writing assignment is provided at the end of each chapter Interviews with college students before and after student teaching are included in Chapters 1 and 6 The bibliographies at the end of each chapter are fully updated Literatures of the World and the Future of Comparative Literature ,2023-08-14 The 2019 congress of the International Comparative Literature Association attracted many hundreds of scholars from all around the world to Macau This volume contains a modest selection of papers to discuss the four hottest fields of the discipline the future of comparison the position of national and diaspora literature in the context of globalization the importance of translation and the concepts of world literature The contributions cover huge geographical and cultural areas but pay special attention to the connections between Western both American and European and Asian especially Indian and East Asian literatures The literatures of the world might be different but they are also connected Reading Literature and Chronic Pain Josie Billington,2025-05-15 This valuable and insightful study into chronic pain and its treatment advances a striking analysis of the complex phenomenon of chronic pain also attesting to the importance of the medical humanities in addressing urgent questions that medical science alone cannot resolve The primary purpose of this book is twofold First to demonstrate empirically against a conceptual background drawn from multiple disciplines and knowledge bases historical medical neurobiological psychological socio anthropological how an apparently soft intervention such as literary reading can effectively combat symptoms of a condition as intractable as chronic pain

Second to explore what this evidence tells us about pain as a lived experience as well as a condition in urgent need of new treatment options and about literature and the reading of fiction and poetry as therapeutic influences in contemporary health and healthcare most particularly in alleviating the often severe mental health difficulties with which chronic pain is almost universally associated Based on unique empirical research with people who are living with chronic pain this book is the first of its kind to demonstrate the value of literature and literary reading both as a discourse for understanding and finding pain and as an intervention in its treatment Bodies of Tomorrow Sherryl Vint,2007-01-01 Bodies of Tomorrow argues for the importance of challenging visions of humanity in the future that overlook our responsibility as embodied beings connected to a material world Supporting Reading in Grades 6-12 Sybil M. Farwell,Nancy L. Teger,2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6 12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development promote literature appreciation and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork Supporting Reading Grades 6 12 A Guideaddresses head on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students motivation and test scores The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this the READS curriculum which stands for Read as a personal activity Explore characteristics history and awards of creative works Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works Develop a literary based product and Score reading progress Each of these five components is explained thoroughly describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals in groups and as school communities support classroom teachers instruction and connect students to today s constantly evolving technologies Used in combination with an inquiry information skills model the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic balanced library program that addresses AASL s Standards for the 21st Century Learner Focus on Reading Walch,2002-08-30
