Reading Women's Worlds from Christine de Pizan to Doris Lessing S. Jansen, 2011-04-25 In this work Jansen explores a recurring theme in writing by women the dream of finding or creating a private and secluded retreat from the world of men These imagined women s worlds may be very small a single room for example but many women writers are much more ambitious fantasizing about cities even entire countries created for and inhabited exclusively by women

love and murder it's always personal

Field of Screams

Since joining the family matchmaking business run by her eccentric and psychic Grandma Zelda Gladie has had little success. Involved on one level or another, hot sex almost committed and crying in her pillow with three men, Gladie distracts herself by giving up on matchmaking and starting a new career. But when Gladie stumbles on body parts of dead baseball players all over town, she's dragged into solving yet another murder mystery. With her life in chaos and the killer getting closer, Gladie has to come to terms with the fact that love is murder. From Fear to Eternity, it's still up in the air whether Gladie really has her psychic grandmother's gift, but she's determined to finally give matchmaking her best shot. She's also determined to give her new relationship with hottie Police Chief Spencer Bolton a shot that is, if she can find him. Despite her good intentions, Gladie is being sued by a matchmaking client, but even with bankruptcy around the corner, that's not her biggest problem. There seems to be a rash of dead senior citizens popping up at the tea shop owner's family home. Gladie is recruited to find the murderer, but this time she may have met her match, and if she's not careful, it could be her last. West Side Gory Life is going great for Gladie. Burger. She's having lots of sex with her hottie boyfriend, Chief of Police Spencer Bolton. She's settled into her matchmaking career, she's got a new car, and it's been over two weeks since she's stumbled on a dead body. It seems like she's finally got her life on track since she moved in with her psychic grandmother to help her with her matchmaking business. But when a stomach ache proves to be more serious, she finds herself in West Side Hospital preparing for surgery. Befriending the woman in the next bed in her hospital room, she becomes distressed when the woman vanishes. Alerting the hospital staff, they tell her that the woman never existed. Has Gladie lost her mind, or is something more sinister happening at West Side Hospital?

Scareplane

Gladie is nervous about her upcoming vacation with hottie police chief Spencer Bolton. She's never flown before, and she's not looking forward to the experience. Her fear is heightened when a plane crashes into the house across the street. But there's little time to think about it because their town is hosting a law enforcement conference where Southern California's finest are coming to discuss law and order. Everything is going to plan. Spencer is hailed as a great police chief, and Gladie is fixing up half of the town until one of the guests, a famous police czar, drops dead. Now everyone is a suspect, and Gladie is being prevented from investigating the death by the new police detective on the force, a hottie female cop who thinks Gladie is enemy number 1, and Spencer is marriage material. It happened. One. Fright. Spencer might have marriage on his mind, but Gladie is distracted by her best friend's troubles and a busy matchmaking month. The father of Bridget's baby is threatening to take custody away from her, and when he winds up murdered, Bridget becomes the top suspect. Now Gladie must juggle her own love life, her matchmaking, and proving that Bridget is innocent, not to mention dealing with the town's attempt to break the world record for the largest Easter egg hunt. But poking around is dangerous, and Gladie could be next on the killer's hit list. The Big Kill. Progress is being made on Gladie's house, and her impending wedding. Meanwhile, her best friend Bridget is ready to give birth. But all of that takes a backseat to Gladie's discovery in her grandmother's attic about her father. It looks like her father
