Linking Literacy and Libraries in Global Communities Marlene Asselin,Ray Doiron,2016-05-06 Libraries in today s global world have emerged as key players in building a culture for reading in communities while enhancing the literacy development of children youth adults and seniors Whether one lives in a modern city with sophisticated library services or in a remote region of the world where access to books and literacy services may be limited librarians and libraries are contributing to the development of learning communities This book captures some of the essence of this work in libraries in order to inspire and support all those who value the role of libraries in building global communities The authors highlight the emerging role of libraries and community partners in literacy development and provide concrete examples via case studies drawn from global communities demonstrating how libraries are working to support local literacies They also suggest recommendations for supporting the critical role for libraries in supporting global literacies The book will become essential reading for all those interested in literacy and libraries throughout the world Resources in Education ,1998 Library Services for Children and Young People Carolynn Rankin,Avril Brock,2012-11-23 A vision for children s library services in the next decade This book provides a sound background to all aspects of library provision for 6 18 year olds It is designed to support the strategic planning and delivery of library services and programmes at a local community level or in schools The book outlines a vision for children s library services in the next decade and carves out a strategy for engaging with the challenges and opportunities for children s librarians and policy makers in the Google environment This book is accessible informative and inspiring and offers practitioners the knowledge ideas and confidence to work in partnership with other key professionals in delivering services and programmes It provides an evidence base which promotes and encourages the development of effective library services for children and young people The case studies scenarios and vignettes drawn from UK and international sources show that the key issues have an international dimension and the similarities and differences in service provision will be of interest to many In addition to the two editors chapters are contributed by a range of internationally known practitioners and academics offering a wide perspective Case studies at the end of each section complement themes and practices from previous chapters while rooting the discussion in a specific context The book is organized into four parts Children s library services policy people and partnerships Connecting and engaging reaching your audience and catching the latest wave acknowledging the role of technology Buildings design and spaces libraries for children and young people Issues for professional practice Readership This book is essential reading for all senior library practitioners children s librarians and school librarians subject co ordinators and managers in schools It will also be of value for all postgraduate students on CILIP accredited library and information management courses Handbook of Research on Emerging Trends and Technologies in Library and Information Science Kaushik, Anna,Kumar, Ashok,Biswas, Payel,2019-11-22 With the perpetual advancements of technology library and information science professionals are tasked with understanding these technologies and providing accurate and comprehensive information to other potential users These professionals must develop best practices for understanding these technologies in order to best serve other users The Handbook of Research on Emerging Trends and Technologies in Library and Information Science is a critical research book that examines advancing technologies and new innovations and their influences on library and information sciences for improved best practices Featuring an array of topics such as digital libraries distance education and information literacy this publication is essential for librarians knowledge managers information retrieval specialists library and information science professionals information scientists researchers web librarians academicians educators IT specialists and managers

Library User Education Barbara I. Dewey,2002-05-09 Material presented here is replete with concrete new ideas not only for collaboration but also for funding training personal involvement Web based instruction and other concepts too numerous to mention And the best thing about these ideas is that they are not the usual endlessly discussed theories these are ideas that have worked and some which have failed in the real world Despite the myriad new works available today related to library instruction in general and information literacy in particular none is devoted solely to collaborative efforts between teaching faculty and librarians This is where Library User Education Powerful Learning Powerful Partnerships shines just as in the real world it s all about collaboration Angela Weiler Portal National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1992
