Readings in Educational Supervision Ray E. Bruce, Edith E. Grimsley, 1987 This collection of readings mostly from Educational Leadership is directed to leaders in educational settings who are responsible for curriculum development professional growth and improving instruction The selections are organized under eight topics 1 history nature and purposes of educational supervision 2 organization for supervisory services 3 human skills in supervision 4 supervisory techniques for planning and managing educational programs 5 the supervisor as facilitator in the improvement of teaching and learning 6 the supervisor as leader in curriculum development 7 the supervisor as a leader in staff development and 8 the supervisor as a researcher and member of the profession For each of these major topics an overview introduces selected readings The overview establishes the contribution and relationship of that topic to educational supervision and provides questions in order to direct the reader to the interaction between the articles There is also a Guide for Readers designed to aid instructors and students In the form of a matrix the guide lists nine major textbooks in the field of educational supervision and shows the intersection with the articles in this collection Resources are included in each separate article LMS Readings in educational supervision Ray E. Bruce, Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, 1987 Resources in Education, 1996-08 Educational Supervision in Social Work Jonathan Caspi, William J. Reid, 2002-11-21 This book provides a comprehensive examination of instructional supervision and introduces the Task Centered Model for Educational Supervision TCS It begins by reviewing the history of educational supervision in social work and principles of effective teaching practices in the field While theories about the principles and purposes of educational supervision abound it has proven difficult to translate these ideas into a coherent model of supervisory practice Educational Supervision in Social Work answers that need presenting in detail TCS an ordered series of discrete activities that supervisors and supervisees follow

during and between supervision meetings Designed to promote the continuous attainment of learning and practice objectives TCS accommodates new models of field instruction addresses common accountability concerns in social work supervision and teaches practitioners how to be self initiating and evaluative Focusing on the practical implementation of TCS Caspi and Reed have included detailed case vignettes throughout the book that provide concrete examples of putting theory into practice Both supervisors of interns and staff as well as supervisees will find TCS a helpful tool in the supervisory process

The Wiley Handbook of Educational Supervision Sally J. Zepeda, Judith A. Ponticell, 2018-09-11 An authoritative guide to educational supervision in today's complex environment The Wiley Handbook of Educational Supervision offers a comprehensive resource that explores the evolution of supervision through contributions from a panel of noted experts The text explores a wealth of topics including recent and dramatic changes in the complex context of today's schools This important resource Describes supervision in a historical context Includes a review of adult learning and professional community Reviews new teacher preparation and comprehensive induction systems Contains perspectives on administrative feedback peer coaching and collaboration Presents information on professional development and job embedding learning Examines policy and implementation challenges in teacher evaluation Written for researchers policy analysts school administrators and supervisors The Wiley Handbook of Educational Supervision draws on concepts theories and research from other closely related fields of study to enhance and challenge our understanding of educational supervision

Differentiated Supervision Allan A. Glatthorn, 1984 Several years of research support a differentiated system of supervision in which teachers can choose from among four different supervision styles With the clinical style intense observation and feedback is conducted by a trained supervisor Cooperative professional development consists of small teams of peers working together for their mutual growth With self directed development the individual teacher assumes primary responsibility for his or her own growth Administrative monitoring is a process by which the administrator conducts brief drop in visits and conferences Although research indicates that the differentiated system is feasible and has a positive effect on those who participate it will not be effective in all schools or with all teachers An implementation process that has been found to be generally effective is presented but each school is encouraged to develop its own version of the system after teachers supervisors and administrators have had an opportunity to discuss ideas and their own needs FWR
