Readings In Ethnic Psychology:

Readings in Ethnic Psychology Pamela Balls Organista, Kevin M. Chun, Gerardo Marín, 1998 This volume traces the modern critical and performance history of this play one of Shakespeare's most loved and most performed comedies The essay focus on such modern concerns as feminism deconstruction textual theory and queer theory Suicide Among Racial and Ethnic Minority Groups Frederick T.L. Leong, Mark M. Leach, 2010-04-15 Suicide is increasingly understood and predicted as an intersection of biological psychological cognitive and sociocultural factors We have some basic knowledge of these factors and how they interact but presently we know very little about how culture can play a role as a variable that influences suicide Suicide Among Racial and Ethnic Minority Groups will go a long way towards filling that gap by pulling together cutting edge empirical research from general cultural diversity literature and applying it to suicide assessment treatment and prevention theory and practice By looking outside of the limited cross cultural studies done within suicidal populations the contributors all established experts in both multicultural counseling and suicidology expand the available empirical literature base in order to provide a deeper look into how culture can act as an important catalyst in suicidal intentions Following theoretical overviews the text focuses on six broad ethnic groups classified in the literature African American American Indian Asian American European American Hawaiian Pacific Islander and Hispanic with a main chapter devoted to each relating each culture to suicide research highlighting specific variables within the culture that can influence suicide and presenting appropriate treatment considerations A final section of the book consists of practical applications within specific settings therapy outreach schools psychiatric services and prevention and training issues The Psychology of Ethnic Groups in the United States Pamela Balls Organista, Gerardo Marín, Kevin M. Chun, 2010 Providing students with a readable basic text on fundamental issues and methods that distinguish the field of ethnic psychology within mainstream psychology the authors overview the field of ethnic psychology with emphasis on the experiences of African American Asian American Pacific Islander American Indian Alaskan Native Hispanic Latino and multiethnic individuals Cultures Under Siege Antonius C. G. M. Robben, Marcelo M. Suárez-Orozco, 2000-09-14 Collective violence changes the perpetrators the victims and the societies in which it occurs It targets the body the psyche and the socio cultural order How do people come to terms with these tragic events and how are cultures affected by massive outbreaks of violence This book is a groundbreaking collection of essays by anthropologists psychologists and psychoanalysts drawing on field research in many different parts of the world Profiting from an interdisciplinary dialogue the authors provide provocative at times deeply troubling insights into the darker side of humanity and they also propose new ways of understanding the terrible things that people are capable of doing to each other The New Immigrant and the American Family Marcelo M. Suárez-Orozco, Carola Suárez-Orozco, Desirée Qin-Hilliard, 2014-07-16 This six volume set focuses on Latin American Caribbean and Asian immigration which accounts for nearly 80 percent of all new immigration to the United States The volumes contain the essential scholarship of the last decade and present key contributions reflecting the major theoretical empirical and policy debates about the new immigration The material addresses vital issues of race gender and socioeconomic status as they intersect with the contemporary immigration experience Organized by theme each volume stands as an independent contribution to immigration studies with seminal journal articles and book chapters from hard to find sources comprising the most important literature on the subject The individual volumes include a brief preface presenting the major themes that emerge in the materials and a bibliography of further recommended readings In its coverage of the most influential scholarship on the social economic educational and civil rights issues revolving around new immigration this collection provides an invaluable resource for students and researchers in a wide range of fields including contemporary American history public policy education sociology political science demographics immigration law ESL linguistics and more

Destructive Trends in Mental Health Rogers H. Wright, Nicholas A. Cummings, 2013-01-22 This book takes as its inspiration the assumption that the atmosphere of intellectual openness scientific inquiry aspiration towards diversity and freedom from political pressure that once flourished in the American Psychological Association has been eclipsed by an ultra liberal agenda in which voices of dissent controversial points of view and minority groups are intimidated ridiculed and censored Chapters written by established and revered practitioners explore these important issues within the contexts of social change the ways in which mental health services providers view themselves and their products and various economic factors that have affected healthcare cost structure and delivery In short this book is intended to help consumers practitioners and policy makers to become better educated about a variety of recent issues and trends that have significantly changed the mental health fields
