Readings In Introductory Macroeconomics 1989 9:

Sociological Readings and Re-readings (1996) Paul Atkinson, 2018-05-08 Published in 1996 this book comprises a number of essays by Paul Atkinson in which he reflects on processes of reading and writing in the social sciences Topics covered include ethnographers confessions an analysis of the style of Erving Goffman a reflection of his own experiences of re reading work and a discussion of the challenges of reading an alien discipline This book was originally published as part of the Cardiff Papers in Qualitative Research series edited by Paul Atkinson Sara Delamont and Amanda Coffey The series publishes original sociological research that reflects the tradition of qualitative and ethnographic inquiry developed at Cardiff The series includes monographs reporting on empirical research edited collections focussing on particular themes and texts discussing methodological developments and issues Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Essays on the Methodology and Discourse of Economics Warren J. Samuels, 1992-06-18 Contains a collection of articles on economics as a system of discourse and on certain epistemological problems of economics The treatment of both topics centres on the role of often implicit assumptions as to whose interests count in reaching conclusions especially as to policy Paperbound
Books in Print, 1992 Introduction to Environmental Economics Nick Hanley, Jason F. Shogren, Ben White, Benedict White, 2019 The only easy to read and practical non specialist introduction to key concepts in environmental economics written by an international author team The Cumulative Book Index, 1991 A world list of books in the English language

Information and Communication in Economics Robert E. Babe, 2012-12-06 Although there is a burgeoning interest among economists in information economics much of the literature adopts a reductionist conceptualization of information defining it exclusively as reduction in uncertainty exploring the implications of imperfect information on markets This neoclassical treatment obscures major interrelations between economic and communicatory processes Drawing on a range of distinguished scholarship from both the economic and communication studies disciplines Information and Communication in Economics explores the implications for economic analysis and our understanding of economic processes of employing a more complete conceptualization of information information as locus of power information as evolutionary agent and media systems as devices for control Introduction to Development Economics Subrata Ghatak, 2003 Charged with analysing and criticising the way economies develop and grow development economists play a vital role in attempting to reduce inequality across the world The fourth edition of this classic textbook introduces students to this vital field All of the popular aspects of earlier editions are retained with new additions such as the introduction of endogenous growth theory The book also includes the very latest World Bank development data With vastly improved and updated pedagogical features such as new topical case studies and questions for discussion Subrata Ghatak introduces what can be a difficult topic with a welcome clarity

Fixed Income Securities Pietro Veronesi, 2010-01-12 The deep understanding of the forces that affect the valuation risk and return of fixed income securities and their derivatives has never been so important As the world of fixed income securities becomes more complex anybody who studies fixed income securities must be exposed more directly to this complexity This book provides a thorough discussion of these complex securities the forces affecting their prices their risks and of the appropriate risk management practices Fixed Income Securities however provides a methodology and not a shopping list It provides instead examples and methodologies that can be applied quite universally once the basic concepts have been understood

International Economics Henry Thompson, 2001 This textbook describes and predicts production trade and investment across countries Using graphs and numerical examples it describes the foundations of international trade and investment including constant cost neoclassical and modern theories of production industry and trade

The Economics of Contracts, second edition Bernard Salanie, 2017-02-17 A concise introduction to the theory of contracts emphasizing basic tools that allow the reader to understand the main theoretical models revised and updated throughout for this edition The theory of contracts grew out of the failure of the general equilibrium model to account for the strategic interactions among agents that arise from informational asymmetries This popular text revised and updated throughout for the second edition serves as a concise and rigorous introduction to the theory of contracts for graduate students and professional economists The book presents the main models of the theory of contracts particularly the basic models of adverse selection signaling and moral hazard It emphasizes the methods used to analyze the models but also includes brief introductions to many of the applications in different fields of economics The goal is to give readers the tools to understand the basic models and create their own For the second edition major changes have been made to chapter 3 on examples and extensions for the adverse selection model which now includes more thorough discussions of multiprincipals collusion and multidimensional adverse selection and to chapter 5 on moral hazard with the limited liability model career concerns and common agency added to its topics Two chapters have been completely rewritten chapter 7 on the theory of incomplete contracts and chapter 8 on the empirical literature in the theory of contracts An appendix presents concepts of noncooperative game theory to supplement chapters 4 and 6 Exercises follow chapters 2 through 5 Praise for the previous edition The Economics of Contracts offers an excellent introduction to agency models Written by one of the leading young researchers in contract theory it is rigorous clear concise and up to date Researchers and students who want to learn about the economics of incentives will want to read this primer Jean Tirole Institut D'conomie Industrielle Universite des Sciences Sociales France Students will find this a very useful introduction to the ideas of contract theory Salani has managed to summarize a large amount of material in a relatively short number of pages in a highly accessible and readable manner

Oliver Hart Professor of Economics Harvard University

An Introduction to International Economics Kenneth A. Reinert, 2011-12-26 This book is designed for a one semester or two semester course in international economics primarily targeting non economics majors and programs in business international relations public policy and development studies It has been written to make international economics accessible to wide student and professional audiences The book assumes a minimal background in microeconomics and mathematics and goes beyond the usual trade finance dichotomy to give equal treatment to four windows on the world economy international trade international production international finance and international development It takes a practitioner point of view rather than a standard academic view introducing the student to the material they need to become effective analysts in international economic policy The website for the text is found at <http://ie.gmu.edu>

Islamic Finance P. Mills, J. Presley, 2015-12-17 Given the propensity of the world financial system to crisis this book explores the radical alternative put forward by Islamic and Western theories of non interest banking The Islamic critique of interest and early experiments with non interest banking are assessed against the conventional theories regarding banking company finance and macroeconomic stability Whilst the experience of Islamic banking has proved inconclusive thus far the theoretical model provides a cogent alternative to a financial system made fragile by debt contracts

Introduction to Forestry Economics Peter H. Pearse, 1990 Offers a good introduction to forestry economics in BC including markets supply demand pricing non market values land allocation forest rotations regulations property rights and taxes

Aesthetic Conflict and the Evolution of a Riot B. Marie Brady-Whitcanack, 2011-02-24 The text is a hermeneutic and field theory analysis of events that occurred during the first of two doctoral degree programs at a major state university The study considers challenges to traditional curriculum in higher education and possible links to conflicts occurring at some major university campuses

Our Ecological Footprint Mathis Wackernagel, William Rees, 1998-07-01 Our Ecological Footprint presents an internationally acclaimed tool for measuring and visualizing the resources required to sustain our households communities regions and nations converting the seemingly complex concepts of carrying capacity resource use waste disposal and the like into a graphic form that everyone can grasp and use An excellent handbook for community activists planners teachers students and policy makers

Modern Macroeconomics Dibyendu Banerjee, Ramesh Chandra Das, 2024-12-10 This comprehensive textbook deals with multidimensional aspects of macroeconomics through lucid presentation of concepts and critical comparison of different schools of thought The book explains how the incomes of a country prices of goods and services level of employment interest rates and so on are determined and how an economy progresses It attempts to re establish the existing theories behind the determination of macro variables and the growth process of an economy In the process it captures the significance of the debate between the classical orthodox theories and Keynesian modernism and its implications Besides adhering to traditional aspects the volume also focuses on recent developments such as green macroeconomics Undergraduate and postgraduate students of economics and business economics will find this book immensely helpful

Land Resource Economics and Sustainable Development G. Cornelis Van Kooten, 2011-11-01 This text seeks to provide an introduction to issues of land use and the economic tools that are used to resolve land use conflicts In particular tools of economic analysis are used to address allocation of land among alternative uses in such a way that the welfare of society is enhanced Thus the focus is on what is best for society and not what is best for an individual a particular group of individuals or a particular constituency What this text seeks to provide is a balanced and just approach to decision making concerning allocation of land from the Introduction Land Resource Economics and Sustainable Development has already been tested in a slightly different format on over 400 students in a number of upper level undergraduate and lower level graduate courses It presents a pragmatic approach to the issues of land use and sustainable development and breaks away from the narrow focus of most economics texts on resources as it takes into account current political and ecological concerns while at the same time providing readers with the essential economic tools for a rational discussion of land use conflicts Land Resource Economics and Sustainable Development addresses a wide range of issues not covered in other economics texts These include soil erosion wetlands preservation global climatic change urban rural conflict urban land use range management forest management and public land management The broad scope and practical perspective make Land Resource Economics and Sustainable Development useful to students interdisciplinary researchers and professional economists and managers working in the fields of economic development the environment agriculture and forestry Both U S and Canadian data are used throughout the text to illustrate the issues discussed in the book
