Readings In Modern Chinese History Soc:

Readings in Modern Chinese History Immanuel Chung-Yueh Hsü, 1971      Modern Chinese History Harley Farnsworth MacNair, 1923      Modern Chinese Society George William Skinner, Winston Hsieh, Shigeaki Tomita, 1973      University of Michigan Official Publication, 1961      Department of Defense Appropriations for 1975 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of Defense, 1974      Crisis and Transformation in Seventeenth-century China Chun-shu Chang, Shelley Hsueh-lun Chang, 1998 Describes the social and cultural transformation of seventeenth century China through the life and work of Li Yu      Journal of the China Society Chung-kuo hsüeh hui (Taipei, Taiwan), 1963      China Michael Dillon, 2010-07-30 China's transformation in the last few decades has been perhaps the most remarkable and most controversial development in modern history Barely a century removed from the struggling and outdated Qing Empire China has managed to reinvent itself on an unprecedented scale from Empire to Communist state to hybrid capitalist superpower Yet the full implications of China's rapid march to modernity are not widely understood particularly the effects of China's meteoric rise on the nation's many ethnic minorities China A Modern History is the definitive guide to this complex contemporary phenomenon Deng Xiaoping's 1980s policy of reform and opening which saw China enter the world market is only the most recent in a series of dramatic shifts that have transformed Chinese society over the past 150 years China A Modern History explores these contrasts in detail while also highlighting the enduring values which have informed Chinese identity for millennia Michael Dillon's China A Modern History is essential reading for those interested in the past present and future course of one of the world's great nations Clearly and compellingly written this will stand as the best introduction to this spectacular and still unfinished story      A Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Yingjin Zhang, 2015-08-07 This wide ranging Companion provides a vital overview of modern Chinese literature in different geopolitical areas from the 1840s to now It reviews major accomplishments of Chinese literary scholarship published in Chinese and English and brings attention to previously neglected important areas Offers the most thorough and concise coverage of modern Chinese literature to date drawing attention to previously neglected areas such as late Qing Sinophone and ethnic minority literature Several chapters explore literature in relation to Sinophone geopolitics regional culture urban culture visual culture print media and new media The introduction and two chapters furnish overviews of the institutional development of modern Chinese literature in Chinese and English scholarship since the mid twentieth century Contributions from leading literary scholars in mainland China and Hong Kong add their voices to international scholarship      General Register University of Michigan, 1962 Announcements for the following year included in some vols      Modern Chinese Theologies Chloë Starr, 2024 The third volume in the series Modern Chinese Theologies expands the scope of China and Chinese theology It addresses two distinct groups scholarship by mainland Chinese academics and the writings of Chinese speaking theologians beyond China including the diasporic Sinophone worlds of East and Southeast Asia      Kyoto

University Bulletin Kyōto Daigaku,1999      Journal of the North China Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society North China Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society,1924 Contains list of members      Journal of the North-China Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society for the Year ... ,1915      Rereading Modern Chinese History Zhu Weizheng,2015-04-21 Rereading Modern Chinese History is a collection of short essays on aspects of the history of the Qing dynasty a regime dominated by Manchus that ruled China from 1644 to 1911 Using sources from that period and earlier it addresses key themes on the nature of Qing rule These include the defeat by the British in the Opium Wars the twin track administration of Manchus and Han Chinese the rise of Chinese military leaders in southern China the purchase of office and endemic corruption the challenge of the Taiping Heavenly Kingdom and the failure of political reform There are new insights on all the Qing emperors and the Empress Dowager Cixi who ruled China between 1861 and 1908      The Indigenization of Christianity in China I Qi Duan,2022-11-30 As the first volume of a three volume set on the indigenization of Christianity in modern China this book focuses on the presence of Christianity during the late Qing dynasty and the early twentieth century discussing the early waves of Christian influence key watersheds in its history Over the course of its growth in modern China Christianity has faced twists and turns in its embedding in Chinese society and indigenous culture This three volume book delineates the genesis and trajectory of Christianity s indigenization in China over the course of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries highlighting the actions of Chinese Christians and the relationship between the development of Christianity and modern Chinese history In this volume the author discusses early missionary works from both foreign missionaries and local churches both of which were influential in rendering Christianity more present and influential in China and which paved the way for further indigenization The book then expounds on the thoughts and practices of indigenizing Christianity prompted by historical events in the early twentieth century including the independent movement of the Chinese Christian Church and religious reforms that were undertaken to reach greater accommodation with Chinese society The book will appeal to scholars and students interested in the history of Christianity in China and modern Chinese history      A History of Modern Chinese Popular Literature Boqun Fan,2020-07-30 The first English translation of one of the most authoritative and significant studies in the field of modern Chinese literature      A Historical Study of Early Modern Chinese Fictions (1890—1920) Pingyuan Chen,2021-01-28 This book contains a classic guide to historical study of early modern Chinese fiction from the late Qing Dynasty till early republican China It does not merely study the new fiction writing in China which was strongly influenced by the western fiction but also draws a comparison between classical Chinese fiction and the early modern Chinese fiction This book is an excellent reference in the study of early modern Chinese literature since it conveys a point of view to the readers with abundant and solid historical materials At the heart of the book it is the matter of a specific value in trans cultural studies between the western world and China      Disability and Impairment in Early China Avital H. Rom,2025-03-31 This book is the first collection of scholarly works fully dedicated to exploring disability and impairment in early Chinese history Early Chinese understandings of disability are effectively revealed through investigations of a wide range of aspects such as terminological legal political and etiological The volume explores how early Chinese disability was socially negotiated as a means for creating enabled and at times empowered identities It shows how oppression and empowerment when viewed through the prism of such negotiations of identity were not mutually exclusive Through such examinations the volume demonstrates how an approach sensitive to both the separability and the interconnectedness of disability and impairment enables a more nuanced understanding of Chinese disability history specifically and Chinese notions of embodiment more generally Bringing together international academics to examine a plethora of topics relating to disability and bodily impairment in early Chinese history with an eye on their socio political implications this book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese History History of Medicine and Disability Studies China, Syllabus and Bibliography Wilbur Laurent Williams, 1927
