Readings In The Humanities I Antiquity Through The Middle Ages:

Readings in the Humanities: Antiquity through the Middle Ages, 1998 Africa: The Glory, the Curse, the Remedy

Anthony Agbo, 2014-06-20 In Africa The Glory the Curse the Remedy the author Anthony Agbo in a spectacular and inspirational detail researched the bible and rare ancient authorities to establish that God through the mouths of His Prophets pronounced broad and far reaching curses on Africa and Africans the result of which put the continent and her people in the negative side of all indices of human fortune growth and development Tracing the African family tree from the patriarch Noah through her phenomenal rise and greatness in ancient time to her sudden downfall the author in an amazing inspirational treatise woven with extra ordinary suspense unveiled the character and activities of the enigmatic biblical figure Nimrod the great African and first world ruler who built the Tower of Babel openly confronted the God of Heaven and originated Idolatry the worship of the gods of wood and stone thereby leading Africans astray the identity and pioneering works of Tehuti the great African who laid the foundation for all academic knowledge on earth and who the ancient Greeks referred to as the master of all masters and the greatest of all greats the journey of the biblical Ark of the covenant in the ancient time from Jerusalem to Ethiopia where it resides today why and how God cursed Africa and how this curse has impacted on the lives and endeavors of the black race what is it that can return Africa to future world dominion etc This is a book of extraordinary revelations about Africa and God her glory and curse propelled downfall as well as remedial prescriptions

Microhistories of Composition Bruce McComiskey, 2016-04-01 Writing studies has been dominated throughout its history by grand narratives of the discipline but in this volume Bruce McComiskey begins to explore microhistory as a way to understand enrich and complicate how the field relates to its past Microhistory investigates the dialectical interaction of social history and cultural history enabling historians to examine uncommon sites objects and agents of historical significance overlooked by social history and restricted to local effects by cultural history This approach to historical scholarship is ideally suited for exploring the complexities of a discipline like composition Through an introduction and eleven chapters McComiskey and his contributors including major figures in the historical research of writing studies such as Louise Wetherbee Phelps Kelly Ritter and Neal Lerner develop focused narratives of particular significant moments or themes in disciplinary history They introduce microhistorical methodologies and illustrate their application and value for composition historians contributing to the complexity and adding momentum to the emerging trend within writing studies toward a richer reading of the field's past and future Scholars and historians of both composition and rhetoric will appreciate the fresh perspectives on institutional and disciplinary histories and larger issues of rhetorical agency and engagement enacted in writing classrooms that are found in Microhistories of Composition Other contributors include Cheryl E Ball Suzanne Bordelon Jacob Craig Matt Davis Douglas Eyman Brian Gogan David Gold Christine Martorana Bruce McComiskey Josh Mehler Annie S Mendenhall Kendra Mitchell Antony N Ricks David Stock Kathleen Blake Yancey Bret Zawilski and

James T Zebroski The Challenges of the Humanities, Past, Present, and Future Albrecht Classen, 2018-10-08 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue The Challenges of the Humanities Past Present and Future Volume 1 that was published in Humanities Comparative Studies in Asian and Latin American Philosophies Stephanie Rivera Berruz, Leah Kalmanson, 2018-04-05 Comparative philosophy is an important site for the study of non Western philosophical traditions but it has long been associated with East West dialogue Comparative Studies in Asian and Latin American Philosophies shifts this trajectory to focus on cross cultural conversations across Asia and Latin America A team of international contributors discuss subjects ranging from Orientalism in early Latin American studies of Asian thought to liberatory politics in today s globalized world They bring together resources including Latin American feminism Aztec teachings on ethics Buddhist critiques of essentialism and Confucian morality Chapters address topics such as educational reform the social practices surrounding breastfeeding martial arts as political resistance and the construction of race and identity Together the essays reflect the philosophical diversity of Asia and Latin America while foregrounding their shared concerns on issues of Eurocentrism and coloniality By bringing these critical perspectives to bear on the theories and methods of cross cultural philosophy Comparative Studies in Asian and Latin American Philosophies offers new insights into the nature and practice of philosophical comparison Humanities , 1999 Readings in the Anthropocene Sabine Wilke, Japhet Johnstone, 2017-09-21 Readings in the Anthropocene brings together scholars from German Studies and beyond to interpret the German tradition of the last two hundred years from a perspective that is mindful of the challenge posed by the concept of the Anthropocene This new age of man unofficially pronounced in 2000 holds that humans are becoming a geological force in shaping the Earth s future Among the biggest challenges facing our future are climate change accelerated species loss and a radical transformation of land use What are the historical philosophical cultural literary and artistic responses to this new concept The essays in this volume bring German culture to bear on what it means to live in the Anthropocene from a historical ethical and aesthetic perspective Human Sciences Jens Hoyrup, 2000-06-08 Offers historical and philosophical arguments for treating the humanities as sciences Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Anna H. Perrault Ph.D., Elizabeth S. Aversa, Sonia Ramírez Wohlmuth, Cynthia J. Miller, Cynthia F. Miller, 2012-12-10 This familiar guide to information resources in the humanities and the arts organized by subjects and emphasizing electronic resources enables librarians teachers and students to quickly find the best resources for their diverse needs Authoritative trusted and timely Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Sixth Edition introduces new librarians to the breadth of humanities collections experienced librarians to the nature of humanities scholarship and the scholars themselves to a wealth of information they might otherwise have missed This new version of a classic resource the first update in over a decade has been refreshed to account for the myriad of digital resources that have rewritten the rules of the reference and research world and been expanded to include significantly increased coverage of world literature and languages This book is invaluable for a wide variety of users librarians in academic public school and special library settings researchers in religion philosophy literature and the performing and visual arts graduate students in library and information science and teachers and students in humanities the arts and interdisciplinary degree programs Plato in the Italian Renaissance. 1 (1990) James Hankins,1990 Science in the Ancient World Russell M. Lawson,2021-09-23 Science in the Ancient World presents a worldwide history of science from prehistoric times through the medieval period It covers Europe Africa Asia and the Americas and includes topics ranging from alchemy and astrology to psychology and physics This work spans prehistory to 1500 CE examining thousands of years of history in four world regions Asia Africa Europe and the Americas Highlights of this period include the onset of civilization and science in Mesopotamia and Egypt the accomplishments of the ancient Greeks between 700 BCE and 100 CE the adaptation of Greek science by the Romans the spread of Greek science during the Hellenistic Age the expansion of Islamic power and commensurate scientific knowledge and the development of science and philosophy in ancient China and India Focusing on the history of the science that blossomed in the above regions scientific disciplines covered include alchemy astronomy astrology agriculture architecture biology botany chemistry engineering exploration geography hydraulics institutions of science marine science mathematics medicine meteorology military science myth and religion philosophy philosophy of science psychology physics and social sciences In all of these fields theory and application are explored as are leading individuals and schools of thought centers of intellectual activity and notable accomplishments and inventions Interdisciplinary Studies in the Humanities Elizabeth Bayerl,1977 The Forest in Medieval German Literature Albrecht Classen,2015-06-03 By pursuing an ecocritical reading The Forest in Medieval German Literature examines passages in medieval German texts where protagonists operated in the forest and found themselves either in conflictual situations or in refuge By probing the way the individual authors dealt with the forest illustrating how their characters fared in this sylvan space the role of the forest proved to be of supreme importance in understanding the fundamental relationship between humans and nature The medieval forest almost always introduced an epistemological challenge how to cope in life or how to find one's way in this natural maze By approaching these narratives through modern ecocritical issues that are paired with premodern perspectives we gain a solid and far reaching understanding of how medieval concepts can aid in a better understanding of human society and nature in its historical context This book revisits some of the best and lesser known examples of medieval German literature and the critical approach used here will allow us to recognize the importance of medieval literature for a profound reassessment of our modern existence with respect to our own forests Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1998 Reimagining Mobilities across the Humanities Lucio Biasiori,Federico Mazzini,Chiara Rabbiosi,2023-01-31 Volume 1 Theories Methods and Ideas explores the mobility of ideas through time and space and how interdisciplinary theories and methodological approaches used in mobilities studies can be profitably utilised within the humanities and social sciences Through a series of short chapters mobility is employed as an elastic inclusive and multifaceted concept across various disciplines to shed light on a geographically and chronologically broad range of issues and case studies In doing so the concept of mobility is positioned as a powerful catalyst for historical change and as a fruitful approach to research in the humanities and social sciences Like its sister volume this volume is edited and written by members of the Centre for Advanced Studies in Mobility and the Humanities MoHu at the Department of Historical and Geographical Sciences and The Ancient World DiSSGeA of the University of Padua Italy The structure of the book mirrors the Theories and Methods and Ideas thematic research clusters of the Centre Afterwords from leading scholars from other institutions synthesise and reflect upon the findings of each section This volume together with Volume 2 Objects People and Texts makes a compelling case for the use of mobility studies as a research framework in the humanities and social sciences As such it will be of interest to students and researchers in various disciplines
