Ready For The People My Most Chilling Cases As A Prosecutor:

"Ready for the People" Marissa N. Batt, 2004 For more than 25 years Marissa Batt has tried cases for the People in every one of the 35 courtrooms at the Criminal Courts Building in downtown Los Angeles cases ranging from rape and sodomy to armed robbery and murder Despite her years immersed in violence and its concomitant pain and suffering Batt has never become hardened or jaded She has an unshakable belief that justice prevails whether it happens inside or outside a courtroom In the pages of this slap in the face look at the criminal justice system Kirkus Reviews she presents three of her most difficult and terrifying cases Each more gripping and moving than the last they showcase the tremendous courage and humanity of the victims One case was an eye popping combination of rape attempted murder and arson another was a brutal same sex rape and the third was a vicious vigilante style murder Try as you might to look away you cannot Told in a voice full of grit as well as compassion this is true crime at its best The Humanity of Justice Burke E. Strunsky, 2012 Against the backdrop of his most haunting high profile murder and child abuse cases a veteran prosecutor goes beyond an insider's reflection to shine a light on the humanlike qualities personified in the U S criminal justice system and what this means for our future The Humanity of Justice is a procedural true crime book told through the eyes and heart of a veteran criminal prosecutor who cares about the people he meets and their life altering circumstances Burke E Strunsky a senior deputy district attorney in southern California takes the reader inside the courtroom for some of the most haunting criminal cases in the state as well as the nation including a highly respected church leader who brutally murders his wife for the insurance money while their baby sleeps peacefully in another room a twisted father who sexually molests his daughter's own friends at her slumber parties a former police chief who drowns his wife of thirty years in their backyard spa and a young man who sadistically tortures and kills a helpless three year old boy yet manages to dodge the death penalty Strunsky's own impassioned social and moral commentary is woven throughout this thought provoking book on issues significant to the world of criminal justice Even in the midst of the darkest stories the voices and courage of the victims and those who love them will leave the reader touched and inspired 100% of the proceeds from this book will be donated to The Humanity of Justice Foundation a non profit organization to help prevent child abuse and neglect The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and

Committee on Oversight and Government Reform,2012      Hard Time & Nursery Rhymes Claudia Trupp,2009-04-14 What kind of woman leaves three young daughters at home every morning to spend her days representing convicted murderers and rapists That is the question criminal defense attorney Claudia Trupp confronts in this sharp and riveting memoir as she seeks answers for herself and mostly for her daughters Every working mother faces the challenges of balancing work and home but the nature of Trupp s work makes her juggling act all the more precarious and at times hilarious and bizarre Trupp s domestic anecdotes of life with her kids run parallel to narratives of her most memorable and often unsettling criminal cases each providing a platform to explore broader issues such as faith perspective and charm The navigation of radically different realms the criminal courts and maximum security prisons where clients serve hard time and the home front where children demand marshmallows for breakfast provides thought provoking and entertaining reading While the working mother has been a popular subject of fiction and self help guides this may be the only book offering a woman s deeply personal and unapologetic account of how embracing a challenging job while simultaneously guiding a family reaps unexpected benefits on both fronts In a memoir that will resonate powerfully with all women Trupp candidly conveys to the reader and to her daughters the struggles and rewards of the conflicting roles in her life the joy she has found in being a mother and the value of meaningful work
